KANAB STAKE CONFERENCE.

The Kanab Quarterly Conference was held at Kanab, Dec. 7th and 8th, 1878, 10 a. m.

Present on the stand, L. John Nuttall of the Presidency of the Stake; Bishops W. D. Johnson, jr., James Leithead, S. E. Johnson, T. W. Smith; Counselor J. V. Carling, of Orderville, and a few members of the High Council.

After the opening services, Prest. L. J. Nuttall made a few remarks relative to our isolation from the rest of the Latter-day Saints, but felt we could enjoy the same spirit and blessing as had been promised to the faithful in Zion. Desired the bishops to make full reports of their wards just as they were.

Bishop W. D. Johnson, jr., felt that the hand of the Lord had been manifest in behalf of the people of his ward, have had 51 cases of typhoid fever this fall, with only one death. Reported his ward in good condition, as did Bishop James Leithead who felt much encouraged at the progress made.

2 p. m.

After the usual opening exercises Elder J. V. Carling reported the Orderville ward as in a more thrifty and prosperous condition than ever.

Bishop S. E. Johnson said the condition of his ward was good, and Bishop T. W. Smith felt that the Saints in Pahrin ward were negligent in regard to attending meetings, otherwise a good spirit prevailed.

Prest. Nuttall read the reports of the Y. M. and Y. L. M. I. Associations, Foundry Branch, Relief Societies and Manti Temple donations, following with a few remarks of exhortation for the Saints to awake to the duties devolving upon them.

At 5 o'clock p. m. a meeting of the priesthood was held at which much valuable instruction was given.

8th, 10 a. m.

After usual opening exercises, Bp. H. B. M. Jolley, who had been detained until this morning on account of sickness in his family, reported his ward, as a general thing, improving.

President Nuttall presented the statistical report of the Stake, a prominent feature of which was that over one third of the population were children under eight years of age; then followed in relation to the donations and labors in the erection of the Manti Temple; urged upon the bishops the collection of debts due the P. E. Fund, and the settlement of tithing at the close of the year. Encouraged the relief societies in the storing of grain and beans. Urged the propriety of the Saints subscribing for and obtaining the Millennial Star, and explained the arrangements that had been entered into for this purpose.

Benediction by W. D. Johnson, jr.

2 p. m.

Opening exercises. After which, the sacrament was administered. President Nuttall presented the General Authorities of the Church as sustained at our last October conference in Salt Lake City, also the Stake and local authorities were presented and unanimously sustained as also the home missionaries. He then discoursed upon the principle of plural or celestial marriage, also upon the United Order, and the organization of boards of trade as introduced at the last semi-annual conference.

Elder James A. Little followed by a few appropriate remarks.

President Nuttall urged upon those who had not done so, to obtain their naturalization papers.

Congregation joined with the choir in singing "The spirit of God like a fire is burning," etc., and conference adjourned until March 8th, 1879, at Kanab.

President Nuttall pronounced the benediction.

At 5 o'clock the Y. M. and Y. L. M. I. Associations held their quarterly conference, at which Supt. W. D. Johnson, Jr., presented the programme as adopted by the central committee, also much valuable instruction. Presidents of the several societies reported their condition as favorable, and adjourned until next quarterly conference.

Meeting of the Priesthood was held at 7 p.m., at which much instruction was given. The general expression was that a time of rejoicing had truly been had during our conference.

Yours,
J. W. MCALLISTER,
Stake Clerk.

Anniversary Sermon.

KANAB, Dec. 19, 1878.

Editors Deseret News:

December 9th being the anniversary of the appointment of Brother W. D. Johnson, Jr., as Bishop of Kanab Ward, the young ladies and gentlemen of the M. I. Associations tendered him a surprise. At the close of the young men's meeting in the evening, the young ladies, as per previous arrangement, entered the School-house with their baskets well filled, preceded by President Nuttall and the musicians. In a few moments the floor was cleared for the dance, during which a motto, "We Love our Bishop," was suspended from the wall at the back of the stand. Elder W. T. Stewart then made an impromptu speech, informing the Bishop why the party were present; to which he, in an embarrassed and heartfelt manner responded. Dancing being next in order, was freely participated in until 10 p. m., when the pic-nic was spread and as freely partaken of. After supper Elder Ford and others offered several toasts and President Nuttall responded in a neat little speech, to the satisfaction and amusement of all present. Dancing interspersed with singing was continued until 12 o'clock, when all returned to their homes, having spent an enjoyable and long to be remembered evening.

Your brother in the Gospel,
J. W. MCALLISTER.

SHORT AND SHARP.

Josh Billings suggests that many a young poet might collect his breakfast thoughts if he could only look into an editor's waste-basket early in the morning.

A little five-year-old, hearing of the Acts of the Apostles, said he thought the Apostles must have been pretty hard up to have had only one ax among so many of 'em.

"Do not marry a widower," said an old lady, "a really made family is like a plate of cold potatoes." "Oh, I'll soon warm them over," replied the damsel, and she did.

When Gabriel blows his horn you'll find the "professional Christian" who makes awful long prayers one day of the week, and then shivers the ten commandments all to pieces the other six, trying to crawl under the fence with a gilt-edge Bible in his hand, and a dog-eared deck of cards in his coat-tail pocket.—Elmira Gazette.

The civilized Indians of the Cherokee Nation are organizing a brass band, so there will be no further use for the quotation: "Lo the poor Indian, whose un-tool-ored mind."

"My dear," said Mrs. Snodgrass, shuddering, "how do these awful men succeed in entering dead people's vaults?" "With skeleton keys, I presume," unfeelingly replied Mrs. S.

On being asked why he went into bankruptcy, Jones replied, "Well, my liabilities were large, my inabilities numerous, and my probabilities unpromising, and so I thought I'd do as my neighbors do."

A Nebraska minister preached an hour and three-quarters last Sunday, and by that time the pews were about emptied, and as the last worshipper collared his hat and slid out, the disgusted preacher asked the choir to sing, "Nothing but leaves."—Omaha Baptist.

When Johnny was questioned as to why his engagement with Miss H. had been broken off, he rolled his eyes, looked very much pained, and groaned, "Oh, she turned out a deceiver." But he forgot to mention that he was the deceiver whom she had turned out.—Puck.

A Sunday school boy of Holyoak, Mass., rather nonplussed his teacher, when she was telling how God punished the Egyptians by causing the first-born in each house to be slain, by inquiring: "What would God have done if there had been twins?"

A class was being examined recently in the sea-beaten town of Sussex. The subject under discussion was the flood. Among the first questions was "How did Noah understand that there was going to be a flood?" "Please," shouted an urchin, "he looked at his almanac!"

A fellow by the name of Ephraim Hazeltine, wrote to a down town booksellers as follows: "Dere sur—If yew hev gut a book called Danel Webster on a a brige please send me a coppy by Pyser's expres c. o. d.—I want ter git it termorror if I kin, caus my spelin techer says I oughter hev it."

Even the bread maker has his poetical side, as witness the following "lines on a baker:"

I'm a well to do sort of a loafer,
Though day after day I knead bread,
And though never a blossom I go for,
There is flour wherever I tread.
I make cake while the sun is a-shining,
My pies on the market are blest,
Though crusty I never am whining,
And my yeast rises out in the west.

A railroad company suspecting deadheads, put a detective on the track. One day he heard a passenger remark that it was very easy to go from B—— to D—— without a ticket. He watched the speaker and was surprised to see him hand the conductor a ticket. Getting into conversation with the passenger he said: "I'd like to know your plan for traveling without a ticket, and don't mind giving you a couple of dollars for it." "Done," said the man, pocketing the bill. "When I want to travel without a ticket, I walk."

OBITUARY.

Sister Almira Henrietta Murdock, daughter of Cornelius P. and Permelia Lott, and wife of John R. Murdock, President of the Beaver Stake of Zion, died on the morning of the 16th day of Dec., 1878, at about 6 o'clock at her residence in this city. Sister Murdock was born in Susquehanna Co., Pennsylvania, on the 15th of Dec., 1829; emigrated to Kirtland, Ohio, in 1833 or 1834, from thence to Caldwell Co., Missouri, in 1837, and was baptized the same year. Was expelled with her parents from Missouri in 1838, and settled near Pittsfield, in Pike Co., Illinois; to Nauvoo in about 1840. She was one of those ladies who drove an ox team from Winter Quarters to Salt Lake City, in 1848, where she was married to President John R. Murdock, by President Heber C. Kimball, on the 13th of Nov., 1849; thence removed to Lehi, in 1851, and from there to Beaver in 1855, and died without a struggle or a groan, on the day above named, having been an invalid about 20 years.

Sister Murdock is extensively and very favorably known. From childhood she was a leading spirit, one of those amiable, sociable and intelligent females whoonly needed to be known to be respected and beloved. She was very kind and benevolent to the poor and faithful to her religion, a kind affectionate wife and mother in Israel in very deed.

She participated in all of the sufferings of the saints, and always remained with the body of the Church except when her husband was called to aid in establishing and presiding over new settlements. The relatives and friends of the deceased have our most sincere condolence in this, the hour of their sore bereavement.

When the daughters of Ephraim are crowned with glory, immortality and eternal life, she will appear prominently among them.—Beaver Chronicle, Dec. 16.

SAVE YOUR HAIR | TO LEARN HOW TO DO IT READ AND HEED WHAT FOLLOWS.

SAVE YOUR HAIR.—The laws of Health and Longevity demand it, the customs of social life require it. The matter is of great importance in every way.

BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR.—It is the surpassing crown of glory, and for the loss of it there is no compensation.

CULTIVATE YOUR HAIR.—For by no other means can it be saved and beautified.

LYON'S KATHAIRON,

Discovered thirty-five years ago by Prof. Lyon, of Yale, is the most perfect preparation in the world for preserving and beautifying the hair.

Besides being the best hair dressing ever produced, Lyon's Kathairon will positively prevent grayness, and will restore new hair to bald heads, if the roots and follicles are not destroyed.

It actually performs these seeming miracles, of which the following is

A FAIR SPECIMEN

I had been entirely bald for several years, constitutional, I suppose. I used a few bottles of Kathairon, and, to my great surprise, I have a thick growth of young hair.

COL. JOHN L. DORRANCE, U. S. A.

In every important respect the Kathairon is absolutely incomparable. It is unequaled.

1. To Cure Baldness.
2. To Restore Gray Hair.
3. To Remove Dandruff.
4. To Dress and Beautify the Hair.

BEAR IN MIND.—The Kathairon is no sticky paste of sulphur and sugar-of-lead, to paint and daub the hair and paralyze the brain. It is a pure and limpid vegetable lotion, intended to restore the hair by natural growth and reinvigoration. It is splendidly perfumed, and the most delightful toilet dressing known. No lady's or gentleman's toilet outfit is complete without Lyon's Kathairon.

Mr. Samuel H. Matthews, Modestown, Accomac Co., Va., states that his child, when a month old, was attacked with an eruption which covered its head, face, arms, feet and legs, converting them into "literally one solid sore," but that two and a-half bottles of Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup effected a complete cure, without a scar.

Martin Robbins, Jr., writes that he suffered from Scrofulous White Swelling with twelve running ulcers on his legs, from which more than 100 pieces of bone sloughed away, but by the time he had finished the twenty-fourth bottle of the Syrup he was completely cured.

THIS GRAND REMEDY
