The Young People's Christian union held a well attended meeting last night in the First Methodist church. Horace H. Smith was re-elected president, A. F. Peters was chosen vice president, Miss Mary Davis, secretary, and Frank Lucas treasurer.

The state board of equalization will meet the assessors of Sanpete, Sevier, Millard, Piute, Garfield, Beaver, Kane and Wayne counties, together with the chairman of the county commissioners of those counties at Marysville on the 15th inst. for the purpose of making assessments.

The meeting of the "Men's Unity club" was very entertaining last evening. John P. Meakin rendered several favorite declamations and C. L. Josselyn made an interesting talk on "Religion Among the Foremost Men of the United States." A general discussion followed the address. The next meeting will be held Monday night.

The hack drivers met last night with the result that a carriage for funerals will cost $3.50 instead of $2.50, and for dancing $1.50 instead of $1.00. Four persons will constitute a load. Additional passengers will call for extra charges. The reason for this increase is, according to the drivers, because of the price of provender for horses.

General Organizer W. S. Montgomery of the Fraternal Brotherhood has received $5 from E. J. Jordan, who is at Murray. The latter says that he has employment and that he proposes to start on his accounts. Mr. Montgomery says he is willing to help Jordan at any cost but that there is no chance of his getting back into the lodge.

The workmen employed on the great stack that is to rise 200 feet above the new smelter of the United States Mining company, which is to be completed in advance from $3.50 per day to $4.10 per nine hours' work; and when the contractors refused, the men quit work.

The county board has made a purchase of a team of horses for the county infirmary. The old team was aged and practically useless, one of the horses being lame. The new team cost the county $125, but the board is confident that it has got a bargain, and considers that the animals are worth at least $200.

At the recent annual meeting of the East Side Baptist church the treasurer reported a balance in the treasury of $400 in excess of the year previous. For home and foreign missions the collections amounted to over $500, and the additions were reported to be $1,000. The pastor, Rev. J. W. Barnett's pastorate. Sabbas Lamson and Antonio Chialoni were yesterday afternoon examined in the district court by the attorney for the state, Dr. M. J. Eberbeck. Both will go to Provo tonight. The old lady is 77. Her pet mania is that she is a witch, and she is constantly trying to disturb her slumbers. She is not a dangerous lunatic. The young Italian is but 28. His mind is warped with an idea that some fair maiden is constantly looking for an opportunity to offer him a poisoned cup.

Attorney-General Breeden, in answer to a query from A. H. Christensen, county attorney of Sanpete county, states that under section 7 of the transfer act, the assessor is not to be considered as the assessor of the county in which the stock is found, and that the assessor must furnish the owner of said stock with a certificate showing the amount of the stock in the hands of the assessor and the place of coffee. COMMERCIAL CLUB MOVEMENT.

A Denver paper has an article of some length on the advantages of a Commercial club, which has particular interest in Salt Lake at present. It says: "The Commercial club as projected through the ideas of its publisher prospectus should command success. If the objects and aims of the club are to consolidate and unify the efforts and energies of business men, it will deserve the approbation and encouragement of all good citizens. Politics and private schemes must be tabooed and absolutely prohibited from any mention or suspicion within the limits of the organization. This has been definitely promised, an assured declaration by the promoters of the club. The time has arrived when business men of whatever occupation or line of pursuit, must add strength to the forward impetus of public prosperity by consolidating their united efforts into one strong policy for the permanent good of the community."

"The Commercial club must be conducted on such broad lines as to embrace in its fold the representatives of this character no matter how humble their position or how lowly their station. When every line of business and every profession and every public minded citizen of the community shall stand shoulder to shoulder behind a measure for public welfare, who will oppose?"

"This is the true basis upon which to found the Commercial club, avoiding all intrigue, ignoring all political tendency, forbidding all private scheming, embracing all industries and all just discriminations, and devoting its full power and energy to the greatest good of the entire community."

IRRIGATION IN THE FAR WEST.

Dilled on the earth in the long corn of the West, and the feathers tossed. If, instead of 250,000 farms now in the eleven western states, we shall soon find a million or more; if instead of 10,000,000 acres now irrigated in all the West, we shall have 50,000,000 acres, twenty or forty million more reclaimed from the 75,000,000 acres for which it is estimated sufficient water can be obtained by proper storage and use, surely we may claim that this will bring marvelous prosperity to the miners, merchants and manufacturers of the West and the East. And if, in the adjustment of irrigation problems now so prominently before the country, congress shall provide for the homeless of other states, what a splendid tribute it will be to the pioneers, who, enduring privations almost beyond belief, blazed the way across trackless wastes and laid the foundation broad and strong for the great states of the New West! Those grand old pioneers suffered for us. They had their eyes upon the stars, but kept their feet upon the ground.

"We believe that the men and women of the West of today will also be a courageous, conservative and consistent course, prove themselves equal to the magnificent opportunity now offered by the National Irrigation movement and support such action by their representatives in Washington as will secure the best possible development of the land and water resources of the arid west, and the perfection of the grand old homestead law, which since the days of Lincoln, has been the pride of the nation."

"I saw a farmer at break of day, Hoing his corn in a careful way. An enemy came with a drought in his eye, Discouraged the worker and hurried by. The keen edged blade of the faithful hoe."

is dead at Rochester, N. Y., at the age of 82. The other two pioneers were Mr. Cooke, his brother, Elijah, and Jay Galusha's brother, John. Mr. Cooke was a well known financier. These three began the express business between New York and Philadelphia early in the forties, and as the railroad between those two points was not at that time completed, the messengers drove between the end of the track and Philadelphia. Mr. Galusha was afterwards a prominent banker in New York state, his last active position being cashier of the Trust National bank of Rochester. His grandnephew, John J. Galusha, is a prominent figure in the Revolutionary war.

Zion's Savings Bank and Trust Company was established in 1874 and has a capital of $100,000. It has a surplus of $20,000. Have you an account? If not, start one NOW.

CROOKER WILL INVADE ENGLAND.

"I Am Going to Try and Win the Derby," He Said.

THE AMBITION OF HIS LIFE.

He Has Two Entries in This Year's Event—King Edward Will Try For the Prize.

New York, Jan. 13.—Richard Crooker announced today that he would invade England with his string of colts and make a big effort to win the Derby.

"I don't know just when I will sail for England," said Mr. Crooker in an interview. "I am going to try and win the Derby—that has always been one of the great ambitions of my life. I have two entries in this year's Derby and five in next year's. It will be run about June 1st. The king always has entries and will try for the Derby again this year. The uncertainty of horse racing is what gives the charm to it. I shall continue to breed race horses and hope to see my children do as well as they can in the world and watch them with anxious pride as they grow up. He wants them to amount to something. Every poor man who has a son hopes to see him President some day. There is something like this in a horseman's heart as he watches the colts he breeds develop, and he is sure that the way to a winner of the big race among mine."

Naturium, it is said by experts in London, will be the favorite for the Derby, according to the New York Athletic club, which has a colt named by the voyage and has exercised daily since his arrival at Huggins' stable, Newmarket.

MATCH WITH TROTTERS. Borah, The Abbot and Lord Derby Likely to Meet.

New York, Jan. 14.—Two matches between three of America's foremost trotters, with the possible exception of champion Crescus, 2:24, will be arranged for this afternoon.

Thomas Lawson's trotter, Borah, 2:07, is to meet Ex-Pire Commissioner John J. Scannell's ex-champion trotter, The Abbot, 2:03, and E. E. Smith's young trotter, Lord Derby, 2:04, in separate matches for a side wager of $25,000.

In his challenge Mr. Lawson stated that he would bet $25,000 to $20,000 on the result of each match he might make, and both gentlemen have announced that they will accommodate him to the limit in each match. As the race promoters will probably offer a good thing for the second race, the total stake to be contested for in each match will undoubtedly amount to $50,000.

Mr. Scannell when informed of Mr. Lawson's desire to arrange a match with the Abbot and Lord Derby said that he was pleased to hear the news. Mr. Scannell would prefer to have the meeting take place around New York and in about two weeks. The race will be run on the Brighton track, where the Abbot was defeated by Crescus last year, would prove an ideal place.

EVENTS AT OAKLAND. Three Favorites Won but Two First Choices Lost.

San Francisco, Jan. 13.—Three favorites won at Oakland today, but two of the first choices that met defeat were among the heaviest played horses of the day. The race was a one-half mile, with the second race for five and one-half furlongs, but leading for a time, stopped badly. Shellmount was easily the best in the last race, with two other horses, and he was beaten a head by Prestano, who beat the latter part of next month.

Tom Osborne is accredited with the winning race, which will be held in Eureka, Cal., but the challenge to Jack Christie for a twenty-round fight for a side bet of $250, and the entire game receipts. According to the report, each man has a good chance to win, and the fight will be heard from soon when the matter will be finally settled.

The proposed bout between Terry Davis and Phil Green has been called off for the time being, as the matter will be done in the matter until the question of supremacy between Green and Houser is settled next month. The friends of young Davis say the "Butte" boy would not start such a show with the Salt Lake lad. Certain it is he has wonderfully improved since his preliminary meeting with Green, but it cannot be said that he is in any way a contender for the title. In great demand. Price 10c per copy.

INFIRMARY IMPROVEMENTS.

Many improvements in the condition of the county infirmary have been made during the year just closed, and probably the most important of these has been the change in its water system.

The old system was notoriously bad, and many are the weird tales of sickening monstrosities which were taken out of the old rust eaten pipes when they were removed and discarded, such as dead frogs in various stages of decomposition and full grown leeches. One water tap which had become obstructed was found to have been stopped up with the body of a full grown frog which had managed to traverse the pipe but could not pass the faucet.

Two flowing wells were sunk and a new pipe system laid at a total cost of $500. That the money was well spent is demonstrated by the fact that typhoid fever has become but a memory in the good house. Indeed in the last seven months there has not been a single case of disease of any kind contracted within the walls of the infirmary.

An Allegation of Poisoning resulted. "Some time ago my daughter caught a severe cold. She complained of pains in her chest and had a bad cough. I gave Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and she was well and able to go to school. I have used this remedy in my family for the past seven years and have never known it to fail," says James Pringle, a well known citizen of the city.

LOCAL EVENTS. IN THE PRIZE RING. Challenges Flying Around Thick and Fast at Present.

Since the Mexican Pete-Burns match there has been a great deal of talk pertaining to boxing exhibitions and many challenges have been flying around. The match which is attracting the most attention just now is the Houser-Green go, which is scheduled to take place early next month. Both the lads are now in training and will be in fine shape when they step into the ring if all goes well with them. Both appear confident of victory and being very shy they will put up a good go.

George Lawler has gone to Ogden to make arrangements for a boxing tournament. He will hold these in about two weeks. Among the events in prospect to pull off there will be a ten-round go between himself and his brother, Jimmy Burns.

Manager Jack McNamee of the Salt Lake Athletic club is trying to arrange another match for Burns. The man he proposes to match against him is Jim Farrell of Chicago, the man who defeated the late Tom Burns. The date of the bout is arranged it will take place the latter part of next month.

Tom Osborne is accredited with the winning race, which will be held in Eureka, Cal., but the challenge to Jack Christie for a twenty-round fight for a side bet of $250, and the entire game receipts.
