

PORTUGAL'S BOY KING CROWNED

Manuel Takes Oath of Allegiance
To His People and Proclaimed
Ruler of the Nation.

PASSED OFF VERY QUIETLY.

His Ideal is His Country's Prosperity
And His Ambition to Win His People's Love.

Lisbon, May 6.—Manuel, the boy king of Portugal, solemnly took the oath of allegiance to his people today and, with all the traditional courtly observance, was proclaimed the ruler of the nation. The day was observed as a holiday and the city was aglow with brilliant sunshine and a myriad of flags and flowers. Through the streets, which were lined with troops and filled with throngs of people, King Manuel, accompanied by the high dignitaries, drove in the state coach to the parliament house. The balconies of the houses along the route through which the procession passed were strikingly hung with garlands, flags and streamers, and were crowded with women who eagerly leaned over the railings to catch a glimpse of the king as he rode smartly by, closely guarded by troops.

The ceremonies occurred in the presence of a brilliant assemblage made up of deputies, court functionaries, members of the diplomatic corps and their wives, the delegates to the international telegraphic conference now being held in this city, the patriarch of Lisbon and all the privates of Portugal, as well as a large gathering of women of the nobility.

King Manuel, who presented a striking figure in his state of velvet and ermine, and who was followed by heralds and pages, and ceremoniously escorted to the throne. On his majesty's right, resting on a royal cushion, was the royal crown, which, according to tradition King Manuel does not wear, and which is consecrated to the Virgin Mary.

With the crown were the royal standards, the sword and the crucifix and the famous missal of Gonzales, the Portuguese missionary. Holding the royal scepter in his left hand, the king placed his right hand on the sacred book of the gospels and swore to maintain the Catholic religion and the integrity of the realm and to observe the constitution and laws of Portugal. After the oath had been taken King Manuel read the following discourse:

"My ideal is the nation's prosperity, and my ambition is the winning of my people's love."

From the balcony of the parliament building Manuel was formally proclaimed king by the grand standard-bearer of the realm, whereupon the shouts of the heralds of "Long live the king" arose, and the booming of guns carried the news throughout the city. Upon the conclusion of the ceremony the king returned to the Necessidades palace.

HEINZE TRIAL.

Arraigned and Pleaded Not Guilty to The Indictment.

New York, May 6.—The trials of Charles W. Heinze, Alfred R. Curtis and F. Augustus Heinze on charges growing out of their conduct of New York banks will begin in June, according to an announcement today by United States Dist. Atty. Edmund S. Gould. All three were arraigned in court today and pleaded not guilty to the indictment against them.

BRYAN WILL GO EAST.

REPUBLIC OF COLOMBIA.

Twice Has Demanded $10,000,000 of
United States; Twice Refused.

Washington, May 6.—The republic of Colombia has twice made demand for arbitration of her claim of $10,000,000 from the United States, and twice has been refused, was made known at the state department today. It was added that these demands and refusals were ancient history, and that no fresh representation had been made on the question. This information, perhaps more in detail, will constitute the answer to Mr. Bacon's resolution of inquiry adopted by the senate yesterday. The basis of the Colombian demand is explained to be the damage claims to have sustained from the revolution on her territory of what is now the republic of Panama, made possible through the recognition by the United States of the republic. "The basis of the refusal of the American government to recognize this demand is that the recognition of the new republic was a question of policy and therefore not another nation, and certainly not a question which this government could permit to be made the subject of decision by an arbitration tribunal."

HOUSE OVERWHELMINGLY AGAINST ARMY CANTEN

Washington, May 6.—By the overwhelming vote of 167 to 46, and following a two hours' debate, the house of representatives today again voted to record against the re-establishment of the canteen in national soldiers' homes. In the course of the discussion a motioning his name as George F. Gridley of Providence, R. I., unfurled an American flag and proceeded to make an address from the gallery on the temperance question. He was promptly taken out.

Perhaps the real sensation of the day was an admission by Mr. Bennett of New York, a member of the immigration commission, that he had, under the old immigration law, "railroaded" the

HINDU EMIGRANTS TO BE EXCLUDED FROM CANADA

Ottawa, May 6.—An arrangement has been made by the British and Canadian governments for the exclusion of Hindu immigrants from India. It was disclosed in the house of commons today by a report from Mackenzie King, Canadian deputy minister of labor, who recently returned from a conference with the British government on the question. He stated that the British ministers are in favor of keeping Canada a white man's country. A solution of the problem was found in the India act which provides that no native of India can leave under contract to labor in any foreign country which is not on a list of countries which have made laws which the Indian government considers are adequate for the protection of Hindus. Canada is not on the list and Hindus will be refused permission to sail for the Dominion. That shuts off emigration from the oriental side. As a further check the Canadian government has made an order declaring it illegal for any one to land in Canada who has come in violation of the laws of his own country. Such persons will be deported. That shuts the door at the Canadian side. Those coming by way of Hongkong are excluded from Canada by an order providing admission to immigrants who do not come direct from the country of their origin.

MANY ARRESTS FOR PASSING WORTHLESS BILLS

Reno, Nev., May 6.—Arrests continue to be made of men passing and attempting to pass worthless bills of the defunct Farmer's and Planter's bank of Georgia, which failed in 1876. Frank Smith was today arrested in attempting to pass a worthless $5 note and is held on the charge of trying to secure money under false pretenses. Fifty men are now serving time here for similar actions.

WILL FIGHT GAMBLING.

Reno, Nev., May 6.—The anti-gambling league is to continue its fight against gambling in this city and for the revocation of licenses permitting gaming of all sorts. Next Monday night the league will present to council a petition signed by over 500 representative citizens of Reno. The last petition was tabled on account, it was alleged, of false signatures. The league now claims all the signers to be citizens and voters of Reno. Considerable interest awaits the council's action.

S.S.S. DRIVES OUT RHEUMATISM

A good liniment or plaster, or some good home remedy will usually give temporary relief from the pain of Rheumatism, but the disease is more than skin deep and cannot be rubbed away, nor can it be drawn out with a plaster. Such treatment neither prevents nor cures; the excess of acid, which produces Rheumatism, is still in the blood and the disease can never be cured while the circulation remains saturated with this irritating, pain-producing uric acid poison. The trouble will shift from place to place, settling on the nerves and causing pain and inflammation at every exposure or after an attack of indigestion or other irregularity. When neglected or improperly treated, Rheumatism becomes chronic and does not depend upon climatic conditions to bring on an attack, but remains a constant, painful trouble. S. S. S. drives out Rheumatism by neutralizing and expelling the excess of acid from the blood. It purifies and invigorates the circulation so that instead of an acid-laden stream, constantly depositing uric acid in the joints, muscles, nerves and bones, the entire system is nourished and made healthy by rich, life-giving blood. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice desired will be sent free to all who write.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS OF HOUSE

By Vote of 115 to 21 Commits
Itself to Commercial Paper as Basis for Currency.

PRACTICALLY VREELAND BILL

Was Decided to Recommend Apportionment of Commission to Consider Currency Question.

Washington, May 6.—At 11:20 o'clock tonight the Republican caucus of the house committed itself by a vote of 115 to 21 to the principle of commercial paper as an asset upon which to issue additional circulation in time of emergency. This is in accordance with the Vreeland bill, but by a separate action the resolution was so amended to eliminate Mr. Vreeland's name from the bill. By still another vote the caucus decided to recommend the appointment of a committee to consider the currency question and report a bill at the next session of Congress. Coupled with this provision was another providing for the immediate appointment of a committee of five members to draft a new bill in accordance with the action of the caucus and along the general lines of the second Vreeland bill. In accordance with this action the chair appointed as such committee Messrs. Vreeland (N. J.), Burton (O.), Weeks (Mass.), McKinney (Ill.), and Knowland (Cal.).

Under the terms of the resolution the committee will be expected to report a perfect bill to an adjourned conference to be held next Monday evening.

The following is the text of the resolution adopted tonight:

Resolved, That the conference approve recognition of commercial paper through clearing house associations as a safe and logical asset for emergency currency, and that the committee be authorized to prepare the proposition for a currency commission.

That the chair appoint a committee of five to perfect a bill, such committee took up the trail and overtook Arnett shortly with the horses. Arnett fired with a rifle and the officers fired three shots, all of which took effect.

Debate on several questions involved proceeded under the five minute rule. Voting was begun shortly after 11 o'clock. The first proposition voted on was the Hill amendment to the Vreeland bill, which was adopted by a vote of 115 to 21. Mr. Vreeland's name being omitted from the resolution, the making of resolutions, providing for the appointment of a currency commission and a committee of five, were combined and this section was adopted by a vote of 115 to 21. Messrs. Fowler, Prince and Hill voting in the negative. Several of those who spoke against the Vreeland resolution announced that they would stand by the action of the caucus.

PAID A DEBT THAT WAS CON- TRACTED FIFTY YEARS AGO

New York, May 7.—William Davis of Jersey City received a call the other day from an old man who introduced himself as James O'Leary of Chicago. O'Leary said that when he came to this country from Ireland 50 years ago, Mr. Davis' father, now dead, had loaned him $25 to pay his way from Jersey City to Pittsburgh, telling him to pay it back when he could spare the money.

Mr. O'Leary said he served in the Civil war, after which he drifted about the west with varying fortune, until 1890, when he went to Chicago and with $20 he had saved opened a fruit stand. From that time he prospered and he is now comparatively wealthy. He told him he had a son who was dead, but he left a son whom Mr. O'Leary succeeded in locating after a long search.

William Davis, after satisfying himself that it was his father who had loaned the money, accepted the debt and declined Mr. O'Leary's offer to pay interest on the loan. Mr. O'Leary said he would accept a few days in New York and then go back to Chicago.

POOR FOLKS HAVE TEN TIMES AS MANY CHILDREN AS RICH

New York, May 7.—The Rainy Day club yesterday learned something about American mothers, and American babies as well, that it did not know before when it held its last meeting of the season. Wilbur P. Phillips, secretary of the New York milk committee of the Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor, which is to open seven new infants' milk depots on June 15, was one of the speakers. He gave the members statistics that made them open their eyes, even though they learned that the American mother was not much good and the imported article was the only one worth considering.

TOM JOHNSON FOUGHT HARMON

But Mr. Cleveland's Atty-Gen.
Got the Gubernatorial Nomination Just the Same.

A TUMULTUOUS CONVENTION.

Buckeye Democrats Witnessed Many
Dramatic and Sensational Scenes—
National Issues Left to Denver.

Columbus, O., May 6.—In a tumultuous convention, characterized by the most factional feeling, the Democrats of Ohio today nominated Judson Harmon of Cincinnati, former attorney general of the United States under President Cleveland, for governor, and endorsed William J. Bryan, and instructed the delegates at large to the national convention to vote for him for president.

A complete state ticket was nominated, and former Gov. James E. Campbell was endorsed for United States senator, and delegates and alternates at large to the national convention selected.

National issues were left to the Denver convention, and the platform adopted dealt solely with state questions, attacking the Republican administration of various state officers and endorsing especially the initiative and referendum in state and local legislation and the taxation of franchise.

Major Tom Johnson of Cleveland, after having met defeat in the opening session, Tuesday night renewed his fight against Judson Harmon and for control of the convention and the nomination of Governor Harmon. Johnson, who had been defeated in the bitter and exciting contests ever witnessed in an Ohio convention. Although his victorious opponents, for emergency currency, and the system of State Executive Chairman Harvey C. Garber, held out to him an olive branch in the tender of two places upon the ticket, he declined to enter into any harmony agreement and to report to prevent the names of any of his followers being placed upon the ticket.

Dramatic and sensational scenes attended the nomination of Judson Harmon for governor, which was made despite the fact that the delegation from his home county was divided against him. He was opposed by Alfred Pomerene of Canton, A. C. Sandles of Ottawa, and Isaac R. Sherwood of Toledo. Mayor Johnson nominated Pomerene as a man who stood upon every plank of the platform, and who had voted for Bryan, and "not like some who, in 1896, glorified in the downfall of Bryan."

During the first roll call there was almost a riot among the Hamilton county delegation resulting from the fact that the Hamilton county delegation had voted for Pomerene, and the Hamilton county delegation had voted for Harmon. The Hamilton county delegation was divided, 59 for Harmon, 32 for Pomerene and one for Sandles, making the total for Harmon 463, or 11 less than necessary. Pomerene received 38 votes, Sandles 27, and Sherwood 4. Congressman Sherwood, whose name had been presented by a man not a delegate, and despite protests of the Lucas county delegation, secured his name on the second ballot. Harmon received 512 votes, Pomerene 381, and Sandles 79.

During the recess which was taken following the nomination of a candidate for governor the anti-Johnson faction made overtures for a harmony agreement, but in vain, and when the convention reconvened the entire list of delegates from Hamilton county, name being presented for lieutenant governor. When the name of James M. Williams was later presented, Mayor Johnson withdrew it, but his authority to do so was questioned, and Williams' name went before the convention. David L. Rockwell of Kent, who is known as a bitter political opponent of Harmon, and who is now secretary of the Hamilton county delegation, was nominated for lieutenant governor, however, over Williams and M. B. Chase on the first ballot.

When the nominations for secretary of state were brought up, the list of names was read without any name being presented for lieutenant governor. When the name of James M. Williams was later presented, Mayor Johnson withdrew it, but his authority to do so was questioned, and Williams' name went before the convention. David L. Rockwell of Kent, who is known as a bitter political opponent of Harmon, and who is now secretary of the Hamilton county delegation, was nominated for lieutenant governor, however, over Williams and M. B. Chase on the first ballot.

Notwithstanding the refusal of Mayor Johnson to accept a harmony agreement early in the afternoon, at the session of the convention dragged out the tension relaxed and the nominations for attorney-general and treasurer of state were thrown to candidates known to be favored by the Cleveland mayor, and when it came to the selection of delegates at large to the national convention Mayor Johnson was chosen as one of the "big four" by acclamation.

There was a fight over the endorsement
