ROSE SPRINGS, Tooele Co.,
June 25, 1869.

Editor Deseret News:—President Joseph Young and myself, on our way to Tooele City, were highly gratified to see some of Bishop Kesler's wheat harvested, the earliest we believe in this county, the present season.

I am credibly informed that a raft of one thousand railroad ties has been successfully taken from the Point of the Mountain around the beach of Salt Lake to Farmington, twenty miles, designed for the Utah Central Railroad, to be followed by many other rafts.

The grain at E. T. City never looked better, the corn stands five feet high, and the wheat is good for fifty bushels per acre, some of which will be fit for the sickle next week.

On Saturday and Sunday we had good and full meetings in Tooele City; the new meeting house is nearly ready for meetings, which, with the woollen factory, near E. T. City, has been delayed during the past year on account of the people being occupied on the U. P. R. R.

Bishop Rowberry tells me that a set of brass instruments will soon arrive from the East for the formation of a band in Tooele City. He also states that the crops throughout the county were never better, and the fruit prospect is very good. On our way to Salt Lake City we held a meeting at E. T., having had an interesting trip, returning on Monday, 28th inst.

Editor Evening News:—The Pondtown irrigation ditch is at last completed and is a decided success, and a great agricultural achievement. It has been two years and a half in construction and owes its final completion to the untiring perseverance and unwearied diligence of the Directors of the Company, of which Bro. Lyman Curtis, of Pondtown, is foreman. The ditch is eight miles long from the dam at the mouth of Spanish Fork Cañon to its western terminus. It is designed to irrigate a survey of sixteen hundred acres of land in the vicinity of Pondtown, though this season there are but three hundred acres sown. The land is of the best quality, and particularly adapted to corn, sugar cane, and roots. A thriving town is growing up on the old site of what is known as Pondtown, but its inhabitants have re-baptized it with the more pretentious, though still humble name of, Salem. A new school and meeting-house has been erected there, and the general watchword seems to be "improvement."

Crops of all kinds in this vicinity look splendid—never better. If the locusts will but keep aloof for a few short weeks longer, we hope to reap such a harvest as was never known before in Payson, a greater breadth of land being in cultivation than has ever been sown any previous year. The health of the people is excellent; very few deaths have occurred among us for the past six months. With the exception of a few lazy loafers, who may be seen sunning themselves on the corners of the streets, everybody is at work, either in the field, shop, or cañon, and this being the case, of course, everybody is happy except the few aforesaid loafers.

Active measures are being taken by the leading men of the county to develop the natural and abundant resources of the country, and we are looking forward to the time, in the near future, when we shall all be rich in the good things of this life as in faith and good works.

Wishing you peace and prosperity, I remain your friend and brother,

ISAIAH M. COOMBS.
