THE EVENING NEWS.

PRICE OF GOLD.

Corrected Daily by HOOPER, ELDREDGE & Co., Bankers.

SALT LAKE CITY, August 26, 1871.
Buying at $1.10 Selling at $1.12.

WEATHER ITEM.—The highest point reached by the thermometer to-day was 82.

THE OCTOROON.—The beautiful play entitled "The Octoroon, or Life in Louisiana," will be presented to-night, at the Theatre. Miss Adams, Messrs. McKenzie, Carter, Coggeshall, Thorne, Teasdale and several other favorites take the leading characters. This is the last appearance of Mr. Coggeshall.

DIXIE ITEMS.—The following dispatch was received by Deseret Telegraph, 9th inst.:

ST. GEORGE, 26.

Brother Joseph W. Young has just got in from Kanab and Long Valley, and reports the people well. Corn and potatoes will be good if the frost holds off. A small delegation of Navajos has been over, who seek peace. Brother Lauthead will soon have his mill, at Glendale, in running order. Extensive coal beds have been discovered in Long valley.

NEWS FROM THE EMIGRANTS.—We are enabled to publish the following dispatch:

OMAHA, Aug. 26th.

President B. Young:

Mr. Douglass leaves here to-night, with between fifty and sixty of your people.

THOS. L. KIMBALL.

THAT ORDINANCE.—"An Ordinance in relation to Markets and Market-Masters" will be found in another column. It is important and should therefore be read by all.

FOUND.—Found on the street, this morning, a pitchfork. The owner can get it by calling at this office.

"THE NEW DEPARTURE."—"The New Departure," as it is called, of the national Democratic party is just now calling forth a wonderful amount of "gas" from the editorial fraternity, and if that is anything to judge by, the "new departure" must be a matter of vast importance. Anyway it is the latest card played by one of the great political factions of the nation in hope of gaining popular support and power; whether it will succeed time only will decide.

We have several "new departures" in Salt Lake just now, of a religious, political, and social character; the political and religious are insignificant, we therefore pass them without further comment. With some of the "new departures" of a social character now being introduced, it is far otherwise, and to one of them we feel bound as a public journalist to call attention, believing that if it be allowed to go on unchecked it will exert a very baneful influence in the community. The press has proved a mighty engine in extirpating abuses, and its power should be exerted in Salt Lake City in suppressing the abominable nuisances to which we now allude,—namely, drinking saloons. There was a time when scarcely one institution of the kind could be found in the whole Territory. The people did not want them and the result was the abominations were never developed and sobriety prevailed from one extremity of the Territory to the other. But in those days "civilization" had scarcely dawned in Utah, and the "reformers" (!!) had not made their advent. Now, times have changed. Gold and silver mines have been discovered and opened, and the completion of the railroads has brought a considerable influx of population from other portions of the country to settle here; and with some of the most ignorant and wicked, urged by politicians and blacklegs, "reform" is the cry; and the "reformers" are determined to "civilize" and "christianize" Utah Territory if possible.

One result of their labors, seen at the present time, is the opening of many drinking saloons and a person passing along the principal streets at night now, may convince himself that "civilization" so called, has gained at least a temporary foothold here, for at short intervals he sees one of these places in which fiddling, banjo playing and singing are going on, and in which crowds of tipplers are assembled.

Having heard a report yesterday that a new "concert hall" was to be opened, on the east side of East Temple Street, last night, a friend of ours tells us that he stepped in, just to see the novelty, and anticipating a musical treat. But what a sight greeted him! Instead of a concert room, it was a beer saloon of the lowest class! The room was crowded with men, and boys, many of the latter being from fourteen to eighteen years of age. The great attraction, especially to the boys, was a fellow who was singing a very indecent song, and accompanying himself with a banjo. Every time a filthy and obscene remark or allusion dropped from the singer,—and his song abounded with them, the applause from the juveniles was uproarious. The place stunk with the odor of drink and tobacco, while oaths and foul language were continually heard.

As to the wisdom or policy which leads to the licensing of such places in this city, we have nothing to say; we believe that they who hold this power know their business, and are capable of attending to it; but we do think that such institutions are an unmitigated curse in any community; wherever they are they are but dispensaries of pollution and damnation to those who frequent them. But if, in response to an urgent public demand, the municipal authorities here are, in a manner, compelled to license gin mills and drinking hells, some steps ought to be taken, if possible, to prevent boys frequenting them. If those who have reached the years of manhood feel like prostituting themselves and wasting their means in supporting such places, they undoubtedly have a right to do so; but it is otherwise with boys. They are inexperienced, and should be restrained from making themselves what the majority of those who habitually frequent drinking saloons are,—namely drunkards, and immoral, dissolute and worthless members of society.

There are, we understand, considerably more than a score of such places now in this city. This is indeed a "new departure," and a "reform" in Utah! If the "reformers" could blush, they would certainly be ashamed of this result of their labors! Parents, think of this, and look after your sons and daughters. Let your vigilance and watchfulness be increased ten fold, that your children may be preserved from this contamination. In this place, last night, we are informed that there were probably not less than twenty or thirty boys; and it, no doubt, is a type of the rest of them. Twenty or thirty in each would amount to between five hundred and a thousand boys, some imbibing vile fluid, and others, still worse, receiving impressions of the most obscene nature. The contemplation of such a picture is horrible! This we trust, is an exaggeration of the facts; but one boy in such would be too much; and we hope that all who have authority will join with fathers and mothers in adopting measures which shall prevent the frequenting of such moral pest houses by the youth of the city.

UNIVERSITY OF DESERET.—As per previous announcement in the NEWS, the academical term of this institution for 1871-1872 will open on Monday, the 28th inst. Utah has no cause to be ashamed, but every reason to be proud of her present educational facilities. Considering the youth of the Territory and the peculiar obstacles and disadvantages under which she has labored in the past, her position in point of the means of educating the young is highly creditable. The Faculty and Board of Instruction of the University of Deseret combine an amount and variety of talent and ability that would do honor to much older institutions of the kind. The president, Dr. Park, is well qualified to fill with ability the position he occupies, his ideas with regard to a proper system of education being exceedingly clear and practicable. He is a believer in the common sense method of suiting the educational course to the mental organization of the pupil instead of attempting to change the mentality of the pupil and make it conform to the course.

The value of a sound thorough education cannot be over estimated. It is better than riches. It is the best legacy that can be left by parents to their sons, for with a good education, aided by an ordinary amount of common sense, any boy, even if set afloat in life without a dollar in his pocket, will generally make his way in the world. Parents who have it within their power, should therefore avail themselves of the opportunity of sending their children to an institution like the University of Deseret.

WE direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Calder Brothers.

They certainly present very strong claims for the patronage of those who intend purchasing Musical Instruments.

Their Pianos are from the world renowned makers, the Arion Piano Forte Co., Steinway & Sons, Chickering & Sons, and other makers, which they offer at the Manufacturers' prices, delivered at the residence of the purchaser, set up, and kept in tune for six months, thereby saving to their customers the cost of freight and risks of transportation.

Notwithstanding the Mason and Hamlin Organs come highly recommended by the best judges in Europe and America, we think that the testimony of Joseph H. Ridges, the builder of our Great Organ, and such musicians as Professors C. J. Thomas, George Careless, John Tullidge and O. Pratt, Jr., as well as that of many of our Leading Citizens in different parts of the Territory, who have thoroughly tested the merits of these organs, and who, after six years constant use in this one of the most severe climates, pronounce them to be in as perfect condition as when they purchased them, is a crowning triumph, and much more satisfactory to intendingp urchasers in this Territory.

Calder Bro's have a system of selling their pianos and organs on such easy terms, that persons of ordinary circumstances can come into immediate possession of one of these instruments in such a way that the cost will hardly be felt.

In addition to their stock of Musical Goods, they have a large and well selected Stock of Fancy and Domestic Stationery, Office and School Furnishing.

Send for their new descriptive circular.

NEW REFORM.—The introduction of Soda Water and Sarsapartilla, by Day & Co., has done more in the way of a Temperance Reform than all the lectures that have been delivered in the country. The natural condition of man is a thirsty one, and it has long been an established fact that water will not quench thirst. The question then arises, can we find a substitute as harmless in its effects, and more delicious in taste than anything yet discovered? We find it in Day & Co.'s Soda and Sarsapartilla. If every one would sign the Pledge and drink nothing but this Celebrated Beverage, much degradation, misery, shame and crime would be prevented in the world. If any one doubts the truth of our remarks let them step into the first place they come to and try it. It will vouch for itself. en(170)tf
