Ogden, April 20 .- One of the largest aftended and most enthusiastic quarterly conferences held in the Weber stake in a number of years was that which was held at the tabernacle and the Weber Stake academy assembly hall yesterday. It was well that the conference was divided into two meet ing places for the attendance at each taxed the capacity of the buildings in which they were held and hundreds which they were held and hundreds gathered around the entrances.

One of the principal matters considered was the naming of Bishop John Watson of the Fifth ward as second counselor to Prest. Shurtliff, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Nils C. Flygare. The quarterly report of the priesthood meetings held in the Weber stake for the three months ending March 31, 1998, also reports from the officers of the various wards in the stake showing them to be in first class. showing them to be in first class

At the afternoon session in the tabernable the quarterly report was sub-nitted by John V. Bluth, the stake clerk and showed that 78 per cent of the people of the stake had been visitthe ward teachers each monti during the quarter, although no visit-ing had been done in those wards in which all public gatherings and meetwhich all public gatherings and meetings had been stopped because of contagious diseases. The statistics for the quarter showed the following: Baptisms, 18; children blessed, 144; members received, 293; members removed, 266; births, 128, deaths, 58; members married in the temple, 30; members married by civil law, 20; missionaries departed, 5; missionaries returned, 8, Ordinations: high priests, 30; seventles, 3; elders, 43; priests, 77; teachers, 130; deacons, 130; a total of 413, the largest number of ordinations for any quarter in the history of the stake. The fast offerings received for the assistance of the poor during the quarter of the poor during the quarter sistance of the poor during the quarter was $949.33.

Presidents Shurtliff and Middleton reported the Weber stake to be in splendid condition. Bishop James Wortherspoon of the Third ward reported that ward in fine shape. Elder David O. McKay preached a sermon on the resurrection and overcoming the world. He was followed briefly by Elder Rudger Clawson.

At the afternoon session the authorities were presented and the quarterly report was read. President Joseph F. Smith spoke on the "Eternity of Man," followed by a short address from President Anthon H. Lund.

Hon. Joseph Parry Celebrates 83rd

Birthday Anniversary. Hon. Joseph Parry, one of Ogden's pioneers, on April 4. celebrated his eighty-third birthday, with his family and ffriends at his home, corner Eighteenth street and Washington avenue, It was a festive occasion long to be remembered by all present. The honored sire was hale and hearty, and no one present enjoyed the occasion more than did he and his wife Olive.

Congratulatory speeches were made

Congratulatory speeches were made by President C. F. Middleton, Hon. Lorin Farr, Patriarch George W. Lar-kin, Bishop Jumes Taylor, Miles Jones and Joseph Parry. Recitations were given by his daughter, Mrs. Annie Greenwood, Mrs. Minerva Shaw, and Mrs. Caroline Fry. Vocal and instrumental music was rendered by Miss Lizzie Parry and Miss Mana Fry. A bounteous repast was served in the din-ing room.

Mr. Parry has a posterity consisting of 14 children, 44 grandchildren and 23 great-grandchildren, who live to honor his name. He came to Utah in the pioneer days, facing heroically the hard-ships endured, and has been prospered, so that in later years of his life he has plenty and can enjoy himself with his family and friends. He has always been a public spirited man and exembeen a public spirited man and exem-plary citizen, and has been an active and faithful Church worker for some 60

REHEARSALS ARE ON.

Ogden Press Club Show Assuming Shape Amid Wondrous Enthusiasm.

Ogden, April 20.—With the arrival yesterday of another (and the last) act of the Press club show to be given May i, hard study and lets of it was on. The play is now completed and rehearsals have commenced. Enthusiasm runs high in the club as the show has every ear mark of being a prize winner. It will bubble with wit and brim over with fun; from curtain to curtain there will be no end of dialogue and "business" to play upon varied emotions. Anyone with an idea the affair is to be "slap-stick" is badly mistaken; the show will be funny but it will be clever, clean, crisp fun. Committees to arrange for the program, advertising and other publicity; costumes, special scenery, music, properties, and a host of other things have been appointed and other things have been appointed and are hard at work.

A meeting was held in the clubrooms yesterday afternoon, attended by F. Moore, G. L. Geiger of Geiger & Evans, playwrights. Fine details were gone over thoroughly and at the conclusion of the meeting the club was more than eager to begin work immediately.

BANDMEN ON STRIKE. Because they would not wear starch members of the Nichols Military band went on strike and organized an "insurgent" band, and will go through the season with soft collared shirts. The action of the insurgents did not interfere with Prof. Nichols getting a 25 piece band out last Saturday and furnishing music for the Carpeaters union, who entertained national officers at the Carpeater library auditorium aft. at the Carnegie library auditorium aft er a parade about the city.
