IMPORTANT TO THE TRAVELING PUBLIC.

It is the duty of all persons before starting on a journey to ascertain by what route they can reach their destination with the least trouble, and if there are two or more roads leading to the same point, to decide which is the safest and pleasantest to travel.

We take pleasure in stating that the CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY is the oldest, shortest, and safest route between Omaha and Chicago. Within the last two years the road bed has been put in admirable condition, and almost the entire line has been graded with steel rails.

The depot in Chicago is centrally located, and as their trains arrive there thirty minutes in advance of all other lines, passengers can always be sure of making Eastern connections.

Close connections are made at Chicago with the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, Michigan Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, Kanaboe Line, and Pan Handle Routes, at points EAST and SOUTH.

If you are going to Chicago, or East, you should, by all means, purchase your tickets the Old Pioneer Route.

The Chicago and North-Western.

You will find on all Western trains Pullman Sleepers, new and magnificent Day Coaches, and the best Smoking and Second-Class Cars now on any road in the United States.

Particular information with maps, time tables, etc., may be had at any of the Through Ticket Offices in the West, or upon request, written application to J. W. Irons, Ticket Agent, Salt Lake City, A. E. Earl, Ticket Agent at Ogden, or to J. H. Mountain, Western Traveling Agent, Omaha, Neb., or to W. H. Bennett, General Passenger Agent, Chicago. d154

EVENING NEWS.

Wednesday, August 15, 1878.

Local and Other Matters.

Thermometer 52 degrees F. in the shade at 1 p.m. to-day. Fine.

Latest messages at the Western Union Telegraph Office for Ida M. Peterson, F. N. Whittey and the Rev. Bishop Haven.

A Sample Lie.—"The Indians when alone say they are instigated to visit Corinne." That is a sample lie of the Corinne telegraphers. It's too thin to deceive the most bigoted hater of Mormons in the country.—Omaha Herald.

Severe Accident.—About noon to-day Mr. Al. Patrick was on his way home, on First South Street, near the Theatre, when the animal he was riding suddenly commenced "bucking," and kicking, and Mr. Patrick was thrown to the ground with such violence, being a large man, that his right leg was broken. He was picked up by a number of bystanders, placed in a vehicle and conveyed to his home, near the Walker House, where he was surgically attended by Dr. Hamilton.

A Real Gem for the Babies in the self-reflecting cot with self-acting fan to drive off the flies, on exhibition at Dinwoody's furniture store, a few doors from Z. C. M. I. Wholesale Department. In a country like Utah where babies are so numerous it is certainly one of the most convenient pieces of furniture ever invented. It winds up like a clock, and then runs steadily for two hours. Mothers with cross babies would find the self-reflecting cot positively invaluable.

Another Veteran Departed.—At five o'clock this morning Elder Horace Gibbs, of the 17th Ward, who had nearly reached his ninetieth year, departed this life, from general debility superinduced by old age. The deceased was a staunch member of the Church, with which he became identified in its early rise. He came to Utah shortly after the "Pioneers," with the latter returned here after pioneering the way to this region and going out again for his family and other companies of Saints.

An Unwelcome Visitor.—The other night David Heaps was sleeping on the porch of his house, in Butcher's Alley, and his wife, hearing a peculiar noise, induced him to search around for the cause, but he made no discovery. In the morning, on removing his pillow, he discovered a genuine specimen of a rattlesnake curled under it, which he straightway proceeded to chop up. It was a three year old rattlesnake, and it is a wonder that his close proximity to David Heaps' head did not cause that gentleman to have the nightmare or something of the sort.

An Angler's Paradise.—The Fish Farm, at Mr. Rockwood's place, Sugar House Ward, may be appropriately termed an angler's paradise, and for the benefit of the lovers of the piscatorial art Mr. Rockwood purposes opening one of his ponds at 2 o'clock on Saturday afternoon. In this particular pond there are in the vicinity of 350 of the speckled beauties, ranging from one to four pounds each.

The usual price charged pisciculturists for this kind of sport is a dollar a pound to anglers for all the trout caught by them, but the price charged by Mr. Rockwood will be 75 cents a pound.

City Council.—The regular meeting of the City Council was held last evening. Alderman Pyper was elected to the chair.

C. R. Savage was granted the privilege of using a portion of the sidewalk and street in front of his art gallery during the erection by him of a new building.

Petition of John Evans, asking the remission of his city taxes, for the reason that he is sixty-nine years old, infirm and unable to work at his trade, laid over to come up for consideration at a special meeting for the disposal of that class of business.

Bill for police services in July $1,025; allowed and appropriated.

Bill of City Surveyor Fox, for services since January, 1878, $250; referred to committee on claims.

Burglary.—Last night, or rather early this morning, Mr. Albert P. Rockwood had a visit from burglars at his residence in the 12th Ward. Shortly after twelve o'clock Mr. Rockwood heard a noise in his bedroom and endeavored to awaken Mr. R. by nudging him, but did not succeed. Thinking the noise might not proceed from an unusual cause, he left the matter rest until she saw a man at the window, who called Mr. Rockwood, who awoke just in time to see the legs of a man under the curtain, passing out of the south window. Before he could spring from bed and gain the outside with his pistol the fellow was gone.

The robber had cut through the gauze on the outside of the window, raised the sash and blind, entered the house and rifled the pockets of Mr. Rockwood's clothing, from which he took his wallet, in which was a $20 bill, a $5 bill, an order on J. W. Small for $11, and some other articles, all of which the thief carried away, together with a pocket knife.

There were evidences of the burglar having tried to gain an entrance by a front window before going to the south one.

The Corinne Collapse.—The Corinne telegrapher surrendered as gracefully as he could yesterday on the Corinne conspiracy. That interesting individual and the gang of which he is the mouthpiece would do well to go and hang themselves. We deny the whole indictment against the Mormons, and we have no doubts that the Indians are an innocent of hostile intentions against the people of Corinne or any other white people, as though they were unborn. Exactly what the explanation of the Corinne affair will be when those capable of telling the truth about the Mormons and Indians do this, we do not know, but the collapse of the conspiracy to create armed conflict in Utah was inevitable from the outset. That the army should have been ejected into giving countenance to the scheme is to be regretted, but we do not believe there is an officer at Camp Douglas with a thimbleful of brains who believes that there was a least foundation for the organized scare at Corinne.—Omaha Herald, Aug. 14.

Montana.—William Wheatley was hung at Helena, Montana, Aug. 13, for the murder of Frans West.

The Helena Herald says, "What is most wanted in Montana is troops." That is exactly how Corinne felt a few days ago.

Theatre.—Last evening the performance was for the benefit of Miss Jennie Lee, the young and talented actress.

This evening there will be no performance.

The next grand treat theatrical will be the three performances on Friday and Saturday by Daly's New York Fifth Avenue Company, a troupe of most accomplished artists.

Two Days' Meetings.—Two days' meetings were held at Brigham City on Saturday and Sunday, August 7th and 8th, which were presided over by this city, D. H. Wells, of the First Presidency, Wilford Woodruff and Geo. Q. Cannon, of the quorum of the Twelve Apostles, and Elders A. M. Musser, R. T. Burton and George Giddard. On Saturday forenoon the people were addressed by Elders George Q. Cannon and George Giddard, and in the afternoon by President D. H. Wells and Elder A. M. Musser.

On Sunday forenoon the speakers were Elders Wilford Woodruff and R. T. Burton, and in the afternoon Elder George Q. Cannon and President D. H. Wells.

The congregations were very large and the Spirit of God was poured out abundantly upon the speakers and the assemblies. The instructions were of a practical and pointed character and the rules of the United Order were read to the congregation.

The visitors named returned to this city on Sunday evening.

On Monday, August 9th, Elders John Taylor and George Q. Cannon, Bishops Edward Hunter and R. T. Burton and Elder A. M. Musser, the cars for Evanston, via Ogden, at which point they were met by Bishop William Budge and other brethren from Bear Lake. On the same evening they held a meeting at Alna, where a large assemblage of Saints convened and were addressed by Elder George Q. Cannon, Bishop Edward Hunter, Elders R. T. Burton, John Taylor and Wilford Woodruff.

On Tuesday, 10th, the party drove to Woodruff, where meeting was held at 1 p.m., at which Elders A. M. Musser, R. T. Burton, George Q. Cannon and Wilford Woodruff spoke.

At the close of these latter proceedings there was a drive to Randolph, where meeting was held at 7 p.m., addressed by Elders John Taylor, George Q. Cannon and Wilford Woodruff.

The people of Randolph have commenced the erection of a new school meeting house, a creditable building for that new settlement.

On Wednesday, 11th, the party crossed the mountains to Lake Town, Bear Lake Valley, and held meeting in the evening, Elders A. M. Musser and R. T. Burton, Bishop E. Hunter and Elders Geo. Q. Cannon, John Taylor and Wilford Woodruff being the speakers.

Thursday, 12th, a drive was taken to St. Charles, and meeting was held there at 3 p.m., addressed by Elders Wilford Woodruff, Cannon and Taylor.

On Saturday, 14th, the holding of two days' meetings was commenced at Paris. On Saturday forenoon Elders John Taylor, Wilford Woodruff and R. T. Burton were the speakers, and in the afternoon Elders Geo. Q. Cannon and A. M. Musser.

On Sunday at 9 a.m., Bishop Hunter met with Saints twenty miles west of Paris, and addressed them about one hour on the duties of the Atonal Priesthood, and about the same time the Sunday School children were being addressed by Elder Geo. Q. Cannon and others.

At 10 a.m. the general meeting was addressed by Elder John Taylor, and in the afternoon by Elders Wilford Woodruff, Geo. Q. Cannon and John Taylor.

The rules of the United Order were read and a very large vote to sustain them was given. At the close of the meeting the assembly adjourned to the water, where twenty of the leading men, including Elder Charles C. Rich and Bishop Budge, were baptized for a renewal of their covenants. Elder George Q. Cannon administering the baptismal ordinances and the confirmations being done under the hands of Elders John Taylor, Wilford Woodruff and A. M. Musser.

During the whole of the proceedings above referred to, much of the Spirit of God was enjoyed, the speakers having great power and freedom, being able to administer instructions in great plainness, and to do a good work in uniting the people.

At the close of the services at Paris the company drove to Liberty, where they spent the night.

Next day, Monday 16th, the party proceeded to Franklin, Cache Valley, forty-five miles. On Tuesday, meeting was held at nine o'clock a.m., addressed by Elders Wilford Woodruff and R. T. Burton, Bishop Hunter and Elders A. M. Musser and George Q. Cannon, and an excellent time was enjoyed.

A witness minutely one of the same day the company left, on the Utah Northern, for Ogden, being joined on the way at Logan by President Brigham Young, and Brigham Young, Jr., and reached this city yesterday evening's train.

Indiana.—Bro. H. J. Hill writes from Indianapolis, Indiana, Aug. 8. He says that during the late trial at Beaver the papers were furnished with plenty of sensational reports, but very one-sided, being almost wholly unfavorable to the Latter-day Saints; also that the editors thereabout wrote articles calculated to stir up ill-feeling and hatred towards the people here. In consequence of the loss of crops by floods in Indiana, a hard winter had been low for two weeks, from 20 deg. to 75 deg. in the shade. There were heavy rains every night from July 25 to Aug. 3.

Bro. Hill says:—

"I desire very much to return to Zion as soon as the Lord is willing. At present I do not see how I can before next Spring."

"Last Spring myself and wife became acquainted with Sisters Spears and Pfaff, who live three miles west of this city. The former is 75 years of age, has been a faithful Latter-day Saint about 40 years, and is acquainted with Z. S. Snow. She desires very much to come to Zion this fall or next Spring, and has always desired to gather with the Saints, but has been unable to do so. Her husband, Bro. Spears, died last winter, and she is the other lady, Sister Pfaff, is a widow of 50, who lives with and takes care of Sister Spears."
