Hannibal, Mo., Oct. 9 .--- Closing up in this city tonight the biggest day of his campaign, William J. Bryan, Demo-cratic candidate for president, was the center of the greatest Democratic demonstration in the history of this city. His train was an hour late in arriving but the enormous crowd was kept in Food humor by speakers of state prominence, including representatives of the various factions of the Democratic party of Missouri. A mighty crowd Greeted the Bryan special as it pulled into the station, and the police were compelled to resort to force to make way to the automobile which was in readiness to carry the candidate to city park, where the meeting was in pro-

The great crowd fell in line behind the paraders and cheered loudly and with great fervor. great fervor.

Mr. Bryan's speech was along the line of his various addresses throughout the day. He retired to the car immedi-ately upon the conclusion of his remark

Under the direction of Missouri Dem-ocratic committee, Mr. Bryan will make his first tour of the campaign in Missouri tomorrow, proceeding arross the state to St. Joseph, making set speech-es at Paris, Moberly and Kansas City. He will leave here at 7 o'clock and is due in St. Joseph at 7 o'clock in the eventor.

PANIC OF LAST FALL.

Fresh from his conference in Chicago with hundreds of business men, whom he also especially addressed, William J. Bryan today, traveling for 12 hours through the state of Illinois and mak-ing numerous stops, held himself up as the "advance agent of prosperity." The panic of last fall was his prin-cipal theme, and from early morning until his last word was uttered tonight. the harmered away at the Republican charge that his election meant busi-ness depression and failures. He quoted statistics, showing the number of fail-ures in the last nine months to have exceeded those for the period in 1893, and in fact, that the panle of 1903 was under a Republican administration.

Attention was called to the statement recently appearing in a Chicago Re-publican paper that 15,000 children went to school hungry every morning. A Democratic administration this year, he associed, furnished the only hope of a cure for the hard times from which he said the people are suffering, and for a restoration of prosperity.

ASSAILS PRESIDENT.

ASSAILS PRESIDENT. He assailed Mr. Taft for running on a platform which he did not endorse, iftched into Speaker Cannon and Mt. Sherman, the Republican vice presi-dential nominee, as being responsible for stifting legislation in behalf of tem-perance, and finally bitterly attacked the president again for taking a hand in the campaign. For the first time he referred to Mr. Longworth's alleged statement at Moline, Illinois, that Mr. Taft should be elected and hold office for eight years and then be succeeded for eight years and then be succeeded by his father-in-law, President Roose-

Speaker Cannon and Mr. Sherman, the Republican vice presidential nominee, for, as he said, stifting in the house of representatives legislation that would representatives legislation that would benefit the people, he took up the labor question. The crowd was moved to rousing cheers when he declared that the Democratic party insisted upon justice to those who toil.

LABOR LEGISLATION.

LABOR LEGISLATION. "The Republican party," he said, "has allowed the lobbyists of great corporation interests to stiffe labor legislation." And he informed his hearers that the Democratic party's remedy was to handle the laboring man as a human being, and not as a mere piece of merchandise. "We are not willing." he said, "that a man made in the image of his Creator, with heart and brain and soul, shall be degraded to the level of dollars and cents, That great stateman who was engaged in debate in this place in 1858, Abraham Lincoln, a year hight on the political issues. Mr. Bryan made fun of the Repub-lican platform, basing his remarks principally on the recent editorial in the Omah Bee, which criticized a part of the Republican tariff plank un-der the supposition that it was an ex-tract from some speech of his. ## Whitney's History of Utah at Half Price.

The Deseret News takes pleasure in announcing that it has secured the sole rights to the HISTORY OF UTAH, by Orson F. Whitney, originally published by the George Q. Cannon & Sons Co.

This work, which was begun in 1890, and printed in three large volumes (the fourth volume issued being biographical, and not a part of the direct history of Utah), is one of the largest and most exhaustive histories ever compiled of any western state. The three volumes bring the history of the state from the foundation down to the year 1890, at the time of the issuance of the manifesto, and includes the history of the Church from its organization in New York. The first ten chapters are devoted to this subject.

In the three volumes are included 235 full page steel plates, mostly portraits of leading figures in the history of the State, originally obtained at a cost of many thousand dollars. The volumes each contain approximately 800 pages, a total of 2,351 pages in the three. The binding is quarto size, full morocco with gilt edges, no other style of binding being issued.

The three volumes were originally sold at $30.00, and several thousand sets were placed throughout the state at that figure. The "News" having obtained the unsold copies of the edition, will place them on the market at the coming October Conference and sell to the first comers at HALF THE ORIGINAL PRICE, OR $15.00 FOR THE THREE VOLUMES. NO single volumes will be sold. Without doubt many libraries throughout the country will avail themselves of this rare opportunity, and Utah people who desire to add this work to their libraries are urged to call at the Deseret News book store and inspect the work during Conference.

The low price at which this rare work is offered will undoubtedly exhaust the edition in a short time. The work will then be OUT OF PRINT, so that every book-lover should avail himself of this last chance.

The original subscribers, who already have the first three volumes of the History of Utah are entitled to the fourth volume (containing individual biographies) free, by addressing George Q. Cannon & Sons Association.

The "News" has no interest in the fourth volume, the work being complete as above stated, in the three volumes, now offered at $15.00.
