In the Golden Age of Girlhood

Preserve the beauty of the teeth with SOZODONT, and then when the hair is silvered and the eyes dimmed with years, the mouth will still reveal two glittering rows of unsullied ivory.

IT is suicide in the third degree, if not worse, to suffer a cough and cold to culminate in consumption, when a single bottle of HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR, taken in time, would effect a perfect and permanent cure.

THE RESURRECTION.—To accomodate the public and meet the great demand for President Young's discourse on the "Resurrection" it has been determined to issue an authorized edition, in pamphlet form, neatly got up, in paper covers, and sold at ten cents a copy. It is now ready, and can be obtained at the NEWS office.

The most thoroughly complete stock of general merchandise ever displayed in Utah can be found in the various departments of Z. C. M. I.

IMPORTANT TO THE TRAVELING PUBLIC.

It is the duty of all persons before starting on a journey to ascertain by what route they can reach their destination with the least trouble, and if there are two or more roads leading to the same point, to decide which is the safest and pleasantest to travel.

We take pleasure in stating, that the CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY is the oldest, and several miles the shortest, route between Omaha and Chicago. Within the past two years the road bed has been put in admirable condition, and almost the entire line has been re-laid with steel rails.

The Depot in Chicago is centrally located, and as their trains arrive there thirty minutes in advance of all other lines, passengers can always be sure of making East ern connections.

Close connections are made at Chicago with the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, Michigan Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago, Kankakee Line and Pan Handle Routes, for all points EAST and SOUTH-EAST.

If you are going to Chicago, or East, you should, by all means, purchase your tickets on the Old Pioneer Route—

The Chicago and North-Western.

You will find on all through trains Pullman Sleepers, new and magnificent Day Coaches, and the best Smoking and Second Class Cars now on any road in the United States.

Particular information with maps, time tables, etc., may be had at any of the Through Ticket Offices in the West, or upon personal or written application to J. W. Irons, Ticket Agent, Salt Lake City, A. H. Earl, Ticket Agent at Ogden, or to J. H. Mountain, Western Traveling Agent, Omaha, Neb. or to W. H. Stennett, General Passenger Agent, Chicago. d54

JOHN H. STOTT,
Sexton.

Accident.—Last Sunday afternoon an adopted daughter of John Buzzardo, the Gunnison (Sanpete) herdsman, a girl about fourteen years old, was playing among the cattle, at Willow Creek, when one of the cows ran over her, severely injuring her knee and tearing open the scalp behind the right ear, making a wound several inches in length. Fortunately Dr. Higgins Davis was passing, about the time, and he promptly rendered the necessary surgical aid, and the patient is expected soon to recover.

Scribner's Monthly for January contains "New York in the Revolution," "Cupid and Mars," "House Building," "Beds and Tables, Stools and Candlesticks," "Childhood's Fancies," "Hooks and Eyes," "Gabriel Conroy," "The King's Christmas," "Pictures of the French Renaissance," "Elementary Education in England," "Phillip Nolan's Friends," "Norwegian Traits," "Revolutionary Letters," and a number of other articles, with many excellent illustrations.

The American Agriculturist.—This old established, standard, and favorite agricultural monthly, in the January number, 35th volume, comes with its edges cut, ready for opening and immediate perusal, which is a great convenience. There are a noticeable composite frontispiece and over fifty other engravings in a superior style of art; the usual "basket" items, many of them answers to correspondents; bee notes; humbug exposures; elevation and plans of a farmhouse; how to use a file properly; extricating a mired cow; water-cresses in pots; catching fish in winter; and many other useful and interesting articles. The best agricultural monthly published in the country.

Brighton Brightening.—The County is assisting in the matter of obtaining a bountiful supply of water for the land over Jordan, and for this purpose is applying the taxes of the residents of Brighton Precint, the people being expected to do the balance. The County, with this end in view, has put in a thirty-five feet wide headgate, northeast of Taylorsville, at the head of the old canal made by the Jordan Irrigation Company, and the canal itself is being made sixteen feet wide and placed in thorough repair, sufficient for the purpose for which it was intended, about half a mile of the work having been already done. Besides this the canal is being tapped by another to go around a reservoir heretofore used but insufficient, which piece of work, when finished, will provide an ample supply of water for the Brighton folks. This presents an excellent chance for people who own land in that locality, but who do not at present use it, to supply somebody with employment in working out their share in this needed improvement. At all events they should assist in the work if they anticipate sharing in its benefits.

The South.—This morning we had a pleasant visit from Hon. A. K. Thurber, representative to the Legislature from Sanpete and Sevier counties. From him we gather some information concerning matters in the south. He had been on a visit recently to the settlements as far in that direction as Kanab. He reports that the season's labors have been generally prosperous, excellent crops generally having been raised, and stock is doing finely. The greater portion of the people are feeling well with regard to their religion. The interests of the United Order are increasing, and there is a disposition on the part of all connected with it to store up grain, for which purpose good and substantial granaries are being built in most of the settlements.

The Lamanites of Grass Valley raised about one hundred and fifty bushels of wheat last season, and their disposition as regards a desire to ramble about from place to place appears to have undergone a complete revolution, their attention being now absorbed in settling down, making farms, and desiring to erect and inhabit buildings. Kanosh and some other Indians from different parts of the Territory, and some from Nevada, are on a visit there. Brother Thurber held a meeting with the Indians of Grass Valley, about a week ago, on which occasion Kanosh delivered a discourse, in which he told how Lehi, the great progenitor of the Lamanites came over the great waters, with his family, to this land, how they increased and spread abroad, how the Lord poured out his blessings upon them when they were good, and how they were chastised when they did wrong, and he exhorted those Lamanites who were listening to him to do right, that they also might be prospered, according to the predictions of their fathers.

It is reported that no less than seventeen herds of cattle have gone into Castle Valley to winter, and many have been driven to other adjoining localities. From the head of Spanish Fork Cañon east to Green River and south to Kanab the country is full of stock.

There is a prospect for plenty of water for Sanpete the coming season, there being a plentiful deposit of snow in the surrounding mountains already.

Snow is about a foot deep throughout Juab County, and generally throughout Sevier Valley there is a little over an inch, excepting at Richfield, where there is none.

Matters in Sevier County are generally prosperous, and the United Order is doing well.

The Christian Patriot is the title of a new monthly thirty-two page octavo magazine, edited by Rev. Robert T. H. Pollock. Published at 37 Park Row, Room No. 6, New York.

The Patriot justifies its existence by the following view of existing society—

"The tide of evil is too strong to admit of a reduction of the opposing forces; there should rather be greater exertions in recruiting the ranks.

"The social system is full of disorder. The political arena is grossly corrupted, and the Christian Church is extensively infected; thus carrying moral pestilence into every 'nook and corner' of society.

"The fruits of all this are abundant and obvious. The laws of both God and man are ignored. 'Judgment is turned away backward and justice standeth afar off; for truth is fallen in the street and equity cannot enter.' Bargain and sale enter largely into the plans of partisan leaders; members of secret orders secure an undue share of public favors; one 'seet' ignores the divine institution of marriage, another prostitutes it, whilst a third menaces political parties and diverts public funds from their lawful use to promote a system of doctrines inimical to republican government. Rings cut and fit political issues to suit their own purposes; the judicial ermine does not escape the contagion; commercial integrity is too rare a commodity. The laborer and the capitalist are in hostile array; sinful extravagance, leading to bankruptcy and crime, is an order of the day; lawlessness, immorality and infidelity prevail in many places; drunkenness and Sabbath-breaking with their train of results are shocking to contemplate. These evils have a disastrous effect on Christianity and on society at large, and yet how few voices comparatively are lifted up 'declaring the whole counsel of God' on these points, and how few hands are employed in real earnest efforts to stay the tide of abounding evil. Many public journals make little, if any, pretentions to combat all the evils mentioned. Some enter the list in a partial opposition, and others in attempting to grapple with them show, in numerous instances, greater tenderness for the wrong-doers than for the most upright and law-abiding citizen. A few there are who are worthy of a more approving mention; but there is need for still more help in this quarter."

Stealing Clothing.—To-day a transient, named James Harvey, was before Justice Pyper, on a charge of stealing a coat and vest, the property of Mr. Hennah, who has rooms in the Groesbeck Block. It was proved that Harvey offered the articles for sale, and his account of how he came by them being exceedingly lame, he was fined $50, involving fifty days' labor under the direction of the supervisor.

Correction.—In a local paragraph in yesterday's NEWS a statement appeared to the effect that there would be a supper and party of the members of the choir and their friends of the Third Ward, which was all correct enough excepting where it should have read First Ward instead of Third.
