BREVITIES.

The only German poet recognized in Wall street—Korner.

A hotel porter in Springfield, Ohio, wants to toss baggage for the championship.

Mr. Blinks, whose wife presented him with a pair of boys last week, speaks of himself as having been son struck.

Divorces in Terre Haute are quoted dull and declining, with receipts of only 25 applications for the August term.

The Emperor of Morocco is going to arm his troops with the needle gun, and sends his young men to Paris to be educated.

General R. McKee, of Kentucky, has just been married to his first wife the second time. They were divorced twenty-five years ago.

Milwaukee is getting up a grand beer festival. The best brewer is to have a gold medal, and the biggest drinker a silver-handled coffin.

Here is Dr. Mary Walker in her summer dress: "A pair of No. 2 boots, tight pants, a blue-tailed coat, bespangled with brass buttons, and a shawl."

L. G. Curtis, the founder of the Cincinnati Commercial, called it so because he did not know the difference between an adjective and a substantive.

The champion jumper of America is Loomis, of Jacksonville, Ill. This is his score: Single jump, 13 feet 5 inches; three jumps, 40 feet; ten jumps, 149 feet.

One of the longest sentences on record may be found in Lippincott's Magazine for April, in the article on "Florida." It contains eight hundred words.

"Mother," said Johnny, running into the house one Friday afternoon, when the thunder was sounding heavily, "it's going to rain, for don't you hear the pumps going?"

The managers of McVicker's Theatre, Chicago, advertise that they will pay 25 cents each for 100 live cats, to perform in a new sensation, "The Shower of Cats."

A Jew in Monterey, Mexico, has bought for $5,000 in gold one of the finest Jesuit churches in Monterey, and gives it to the Protestants worshipping there.

Nine thousand persons are sheltered in tents by the government since the Constantinople fire. The number who have been out, and furnished with provisions by the government, is 15,000, making an aggregate of 24,000.

Some one was informing a German of a brewer who had married a young lady related to a peer, when the German remarked: "Ah, yes, a very proper match. Of course a brewer ought to be connected with the beverage."

"No one would take you for what you are," said an old-fashioned gentleman, a day or two ago, to a dandy who had more hair than brains. "Why?" was immediately asked. "Because they cannot see your ears."

A Newark (N.J.) lady has applied for a divorce, just because her husband has an unpleasant and eccentric habit of sleeping with a knife under his pillow. As he is a somnambulist, she fears he will do something rash.

A man in Linden, Vt., has been on his bed 21 years, unable to move or bend a single joint of his body. Every joint has been affected by a rheumatic difficulty, and all the bones appear to have grown into one.

A beautiful waterfall, 225 feet of sheer descent, is attracting attention on the head waters of the San Diego river, Cal. It is known as Transit Falls, and the neighboring scenery is said to almost equal the Yosemite.

There is now before the British Parliament a Married Woman's Property bill, the essential principle of which is, that whenever property is acquired by the bodily or mental industry of a married woman, she shall be entitled to it for her separate use. The bill has already passed to a second reading and been referred to a select committee.

The New York Times says: "Now that Charles Dickens has left us, Charles Reade is to be accounted the foremost living English novelist. Lord Lytton may write more romantic stories, and Wilkie Collins more elaborate ones; George Eliot may have more of austere strength, and Mr. Disraeli of aristocratic splendor, but as a weaver of ingenious and absorbingly interesting fiction, Mr. Reade will, by consent of a large majority, bear off the palm."

EARTH CLOSETS!

ARE the modern improvements which take the place of and supersede the Water

Closets in houses, and dispense with cesspools and other repulsive features of the out-door Privy.

ENTIRELY dispense with the use of Water,

Employing Dry Earth in its stead. They enable nature's waste to be attended to in comfort, instead of with the usual disgusting surroundings. Are especially adapted to the use of invalids and of the sick room.

FREE from offensive odor, at all times,

whether in or out of use, can always remain where most needed.

Commodious, which may be used in any room, and fixtures, by which an Earth

Closet may be set in any convenient place in the house, are sold so cheaply that they are within the reach of all.
