

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

PRESIDENT AND PARTY.—A dispatch, per Deseret Telegraph line, says that the President and party arrived at St. George at half past ten o'clock this morning. The members of the party were all well.

NOTICE TO FARMERS.—Farmers along the line of the U. C. R. R. are particularly requested to avoid planting grain crops nearer than seventy-five feet from the center of the track. In case this notice be disregarded the company can not be held responsible for any damage that may accrue to individuals through fire from the locomotive.

JOSEPH A. YOUNG, Supt.

INFORMATION WANTED.—By Mary and William Thomas, Mountaineers, South Wales, of Nathaniel Edmunds, who emigrated to Utah in April 1853, from Merthyr, South Wales, and who resided, when last heard from, in Coaltville, Summit County, Utah, Star, March 1st.

WHO FOUND THE SACK.—On Friday, Feb. 23, a large sack, containing a quantity of ladies and children's under clothing, etc., was lost from a wagon between Mendon, Cache County, and Call's Fort, Box Elder County. By returning them to the owner, the finder will do a good action and be well rewarded. Address information to C. W. Penrose, Ogden Junction office, Ogden City.

DISHONESTY.—Last week, some person or persons broke the show cases at the Museum containing coins of foreign countries, and some of them antiquated. Bro. Sangiovanni got on the track of the coins around town and redeemed them, finding that they had been sold by some boys. He also laid a "trap" and found an intruder, who also implicated some others. The perpetrators of this stealing were taken before the Justice, who discharged them upon the agreement to pay the cost of redeeming the coin, and also promising to quit such pursuits for the future.

We withhold the names of the boys, out of respect for their parents, but if these boys do not mend their ways, their names may appear in print in a manner that will cause them to be shunned by all good people, old and young, and will bring them to shame and degradation.

RACE AGAINST TIME.—A fifty mile race, with lively stable stock, for $500, in two hours, came off last Sunday afternoon, on the race course at Carson city, Nevada. About seven hundred persons were on the ground. The rider was Johnny Taylor, and he finished his work in one minute and twenty-three seconds under the two hours. He goes to New York in May to ride 200 miles in ten hours.

GOOD ADVICE.—A few days ago, a man named Fullred was arrested in Ogden for an assault on Mrs. Landt. The prisoner was examined before Judge Richards, and the case was postponed. As the defendant was leaving the court room the plaintiff and her husband each discharged a pistol at him, but each missed him. The Reese River Revue, in noticing the affair, says:

"Utah is a dangerous place for a man of Fullred's propensities. We advise him to swap his name off and be virtuous."

SCANDINAVIA.—Elder Jesse N. Smith, writing to the Millennial Star, from Copenhagen, Jan. 31st, says:

"Baptisms in Stockholm Conference are of frequent occurrence. There are good reports from Christians also, and the work is slowly progressing in the whole mission. A number of strangers visit our meetings here, but they are very cautious about committing themselves. I think it can be truly said that the great majority of the inhabitants of this city do not believe the Bible, nor anything else that is religious." Feb. 11 he writes, "To add to the severity of the weather, almost all kinds of work have ceased, and not more than one half of the Saints in this place have any employment at the present. A day or two since, the brethren here cut the ice, more than a foot thick, to baptize a man, an unusual instance of impatience to join the church on the part of a convert."

WHO SHALL WIN?—Local heard a gentleman talk of the Cullom bill this morning; he said: "The Lord has commanded his servants to marry a plurality of wives. Congress forbids them doing so: it is the Lord and Congress for it, we shall see who comes out best; I'll bet ten to one on the Lord every time."

CHILD KILLED AT VIRGINIA.—The Territorial Enterprise, Virginia, Nev., of the 22nd, says that on the morning previous, a child four years old, named Frank Bondy, while playing with some children at his home and among some timbers in a timber yard in that city, was struck on the back of the head with a stick 8 by 10 inches square, which caused his death in twenty minutes.

TUMOR REMOVED.—Bro. Simeon Atwood, of South Cottonwood, called in this morning, and wished it to be announced in the News that on the 9th instant he had a surgical operation performed upon him by Drs. Ormsby and Son, for the removal of a tumor on the right side of his neck and windpipe. Bro. Atwood had suffered five years from this affliction, and so severe had it become that suffocation would in all probability have resulted if it had not been removed. The operation was successfully performed, the tumor, weighing six ounces, removed and the subject now thinks that all danger is over and his recovery is sure.

SCHOOL EXAMINATION.—We understand that R. L. Campbell, County Superintendent of Schools, on the 20th and 21st insts., visited the schools of South Willow Creek and West Jordan. The examination of the former, taught by Bishop Stewart's son, was highly creditable; and the advanced pupils in arithmetic reflected much credit on their youthful teacher. The school during the winter has numbered over 100 pupils. The West Jordan school taught by Mr. Cutler was more primary in its character; some of the pupils however read well, and their readiness, in noting the grammatical pauses, showed that attention had been paid to this important branch of education. The Trustees of West Jordan have made the necessary arrangements to furnish the school room with a full set of Monteth's maps costing only $17.50. This school has 123 enrolled scholars. The Willow Creek school is perhaps the best furnished school room in the Territory.

AURORAL DISPLAY.—On the night of the 21st, at Austin, Nevada, there was a grand "auroral display" in which the sky to the northward was lighted up as if by a wide spread conflagration. The display of colors was fine.

MILITARY.—The Virginia, (Ma., Capital, Times, of the 19th inst., says: "General Fremont will leave our city in a few days to take command of the Department of Utah."

REFUGES FROM JUSTICE—DESSERTERS FROM CAMP DOUGLAS.—Sometime in the month of February an attack was made one evening upon a tame Indian boy by four soldiers from Camp Douglas. The boy reported the attack to the police, who followed the men and undertook to arrest them, but were fired upon by them. The officers were unarmed, and were then unable to effect their capture; but being reinforced by Captain Burt and officer Wm. Hyde, who had heard the shooting, they followed the men on to the bench, and after some little difficulty, succeeded in capturing them. They brought them back to the city, and they were tried before the Police Justice and two of them were bound over, under $800 bonds, to appear before the Probate Court. In the meantime Major General Gibbon had heard of the difficulty, and as the men were arrested on the Military Reservation, he made a demand on the civil authorities for them; and they were turned over to him, as they would have been in the first place had the matter been fully understood by the officers making the arrest. At the time they were delivered to the military authorities there was an understanding between General Gibbon and the Prosecuting Attorney that they would be forthcoming whenever wanted for trial.

The Grand Jury has been in session and these men have doubtless been aware of it, and suspicious that their case would be likely to receive attention, and they probably being indicted, they have watched their opportunity and run away. They succeeded in making their escape on yesterday. We had a call this morning from Lieutenant Jacob and Wright, of Camp Douglas, who, by request of the General commanding, brought the names and descriptions of the deserters for publication. Their names are: Edward Artee and Thomas Hill.

Artee's description is, hair very short, heavy whiskers, blue eyes, fair complexion; five feet eight inches high, heavy built; has a scar on chin, to be seen when shaved close.

Hill's description is, hair black, cut short, eyes hazel, complexion dark, face closely shaven, height 5.8, age twenty-three years, thick neck, low forehead, and lower part of face dark and dirty looking.

We understand that Hill is a native of Ireland, and when he speaks his place of nativity is discernible in the brogue.

A reward of $50 is offered by General Gibbon for the arrest of these deserters; or $20 for either of them. A sharp look-out should be kept for them, as they are desperate men.

GUY FAWKES IN SAN FRANCISCO.—The Morning Call, of the 20th inst., says: "Last night, about a quarter to 8 o'clock, a most dastardly attempt to take the lives of six well known gentlemen of this city was made by some parties, who fired off a quantity of powder under a dwelling-house on Powell street, between Vallejo and Green. The building, which is known as No. 1,517 Powell street, is a two-story frame, with a porch in front. It is the dwelling-house of Mr. Emil Grisar, Consul for Belgium, who is at present absent from the city with his family. During his absence it was occupied by Messrs. S. Lazard, E. Dewey, Raphael Weill, Henry Weill, J. Weill, and T. LeRoy. Last night these gentlemen had just concluded their supper, and had retired to a smoking-room in the rear part of the house, when they were startled by the report of an explosion and the crashing of articles of furniture in the front part of the house. Upon entering, to ascertain what had occurred, they found the heavy oak dining-table from which they had arisen shattered, the door leading from the parlor to the dining-room blown from its position, the floor in the parlor torn up in several places, the parlor furniture broken up, the marble mantel-piece broken, and the ceiling in both rooms cracked in many places. Further investigation led to the discovery that the porch in front of the building had been blown away. The police were notified, and in a few minutes the Chief of Police, with several detectives and street officers, proceeded to the place mentioned, where they made an examination of the premises, and discovered that a can containing ten pounds of gunpowder had been placed under the northwest by means of a slow-match leading from the powder to the front part of the building. It is presumed that the powder was fired by some person or persons having feelings of animosity toward the gentlemen named, and in this manner sought to obtain revenge. The perpetrator or perpetrators are unknown, and made their escape."

HONEST WORK.

There's no time for idle drivell,
Kissing hands to God and devil;
There is honest work to do
And the laborers are but few:
Work, to conquer wrong by right;
By the weak to conquer might!
There is honest work to do,
Evil passions to subdue;
To do right as man to man;
To work out the Gospel plan;
To keep sacred every vow!
"Deeds, not words," are wanted now.
There is work, to learn the way,
How to watch as well as pray;
How to know a friend from foe;
How a traitor's smile to know;
How our every act will tend;
How to really serve a friend!
No! There is no time for play,
Foes, in earnest, stop the way;
Foes without, and foes within,
Who, if we shall slacken, win!
Yes! There's honest work to do:
If we see that we are true.

BETH.

MARSHAL'S SALE.

The San Domingo Annexation Scheme.

The Senate was engaged this afternoon for four hours and a half, considering the San Domingo treaty. Sumner opened the debate in opposition to ratification, occupying the floor till the session adjourned, but giving way occasionally to Senators who made brief remarks, based on answers to questions which they frequently propounded to him. The Senate will resume the subject to-morrow after the reading of the journal. The time for the exchange of the ratification will expire on the 29th. P. J. O'Sullivan arrived here to-day, direct from San Domingo, bringing important official despatches, including the general result of the vote in favor of annexation.

Secretary Boutwell and Commissioner Delano were before the Senate finance committee to-day, relative to extending the time for keeping whiskey in bond; they agree in recommending the retention of the time allowed by the present law.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Increase of Specie—Big Strike in France—American Bishops Obdurate—Business in the Commons—Bills passed in the Lords—Outrages in Ireland.

LONDON.—The increase of specie in the bank of England, during the week is $35,000.

An eminent London city solicitor has absconded.

The strike of workmen at La Creuzet, France, continues. Several demonstrations have been made by the men, but so far they are harmless. The military and police are active. It is thought that political feeling is involved in this second outbreak at La Creuzet. The strike is confined to that portion of the workmen, who are laboring under political excitement, and it is expected that it will soon be suppressed. Some arrests have already been made.

It is still asserted that the American bishops at Rome refuse to assent to the proclamation of Papal infallibility, and that every effort to conciliate them has proved futile.

In the Commons to-night Mansell, under Secretary of the Colonial department, read dispatches sent to the government of the Canadian dominion; they contained no intimation that England was prepared to concede colonial independence.

The house went into a committee on the bill for enforcing the laws in Ireland. An amendment reducing the term of imprisonment for carrying arms to one year was rejected.

In the House of Lords this evening the consolidated fund bill passed. The habitual criminals' bill was considered, after which the House adjourned.

DUBLIN.—Outrages on property ownership continue. At West Meath yesterday, a clergyman accompanied by several friends was visiting tenants for the purpose of collecting rents when the party was fired on and several wounded.

The Bonaparte Trial.

TOURS.—In the Bonaparte trial, witnesses for the defence were examined to show the previous bad character of Noir and Fourville, and the good character of the accused. The testimony on the first point was not convincing; on the other, witnesses were brought to testify to the good conduct of the Prince, as an officer. While one of the lawyers for the prosecution was conducting a cross examination he used an expression offensive to the Prince, who violently interrupted the prosecution, and turning to the lawyer, he denounced him and his party as a faction. Fourville, terribly excited, rose and called the Prince an assassin, which caused great confusion among spectators and in the court. Fourville was forcibly taken out by gens d'armes and the Procurer General demanded the punishment of Fourville. The court decided to postpone the consideration of the matter till the end of the sitting.

M. Floquet then commenced the argument for the prosecution. He reviewed the lives of Noir, Fourville and the Prince, pointing out the difference in their characters. He dwelt on the reputation of the Prince, as a man of violence, and asserted that he was known to have killed three men. He also related how he left the military service without permission in '49, for which Napoleon dismissed him from the army. At this point the Prince became greatly excited and exclaimed there was a plot to aggravate him. He was severely reprimanded by the court for interrupting the counsel. At the conclusion of the argument for the prosecution Fourville was brought in and the presiding Judge sentenced him to ten days' imprisonment for contempt of court. The closing arguments will be continued to-morrow.
