Miss Annie Armitage. The supreme court has held, in a case brought by Mrs. Hilton against the executor of Dr. Park's estate, that the marriage was a common law marriage and that Mrs. Hilton is Dr. Park's legal widow and as such entitled to a one-third interest in his estate. MRS. WELLS' DEPOSITION. The session of court this morning was taken up in reading the deposition of Mrs. Hannah C. Wells, who was un-able to attend court. It was at her home that the alleged ceremony was home that the alleged ceremony was performed and her husband, Daniel H. Wells, officiated. In her deposition Mrs. Wells stated that Miss Armitage. now Mrs. Hilton, was very sick at the time the ceremony was per-formed and expected to die, and that she was desirous of being sealed to some man for eternity. Dr. Park was accordingly sent for and the ceremony performed. Mrs. Wells stated that she was present at the ceremoney, but could not recall what was said by either Dr. Park, Miss Armitage or Mr. Wells. She could not remember the relative positions of the contract ing parties at the time of the ceremony She said that some time afterwards Miss Armitage told her that she had obtained a church divorce from Dr. Park.

Superintendent F. F. Gridley of the Central Coal and Coke company phoned in this morning from Roek Springs, stating that there is no truth in the press report that the men in the No. 2 Rock Springs mine are out on strike. He says that all the miners have been working every day this week, the only men out being a few Italians who were celebrating one of the fiestas. Moreover, there have been no demands made by the pien, and there is no dis-satisfaction that any of the officials know anything about. There continues to be a great short-age in cars, but there is a fair pro-spect for filling orders later on, upon the return of empties from the coast. The men are all making good wages, and while there has been a shortage of men as well as cars, the strike in southers Colorado is likely to enable the Wyoming companies to fill up the maks that have been rather scant for the past few months. The mines at Kemmerer are all at work as usual, and in all southern and western Wyo-ming, no trouble is reported.
