Widow Named as Executrix but the Value of the Estate is Not Given.

New York, July 11 .- Harry R. Thaw's attitude toward the press and public underwent a striking change between morning and evening today. Immediately after breakfast he secured permission to have a delegation of newspapernen i raight to him at the Tombs prison, telling them after a friendly interview that to talk with any one besides the lawyers, doctors and prison officiats was "like getting a whift of tresh air from the outside world," fresh air from the outside world." This evening it was different. When the newspoperment sent Thaw a noise asking if 'te wished to add anything to his formal statement of Tuesday, he sent a reply, which said: "I have said all that I wish to say, In future I shall be guided by the ad-vice of my counsel." At his menting interview with the newspaperment Thaw asked them to give the widest publicity to his state-ment of protectady which denied that he was cosane and he said there was to be no amacy commission appointed to inquirs into his state of mind. The will of Stanford White, for whose murder Thaw is awaiting trial, was filed for probate today. The widow, Mrz, Bessie S, White, is named as executrix, but the value of the re-tate is not given. The petition for probate states that White left no real estate and the value of the pre-mail. estate and the value of the personality is not known. After provisions for White's brother, Richard M. White, and for his mother, Alexina B. White, the entire residuary estate is left to White's widow.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Garvan said today that his detectives had succeeded in serving a subpoens upon Mrs. Beatrice Schwartz, the woman in whose bome at a dinner party Thaw is alleged in have made threats against the life of Stanford White. Mrs. Schwartz will be called before the grand jury tomorrow.

May McKenzie, an actress, was questioned by Mr. Garvan for nearly an hour today concerning her knowledge of Stanford White's friendship for Evelyn Neshit Thew. Miss McKenzis is one of the friends of Mrs. Thew who have heretofore refused to furnish the district attorney's office with any mformation, but it is understood she told Mr. Garvan what she knew,
