EDITORIAL NOTES.

Lord Lytton made his public entry into Delhi through a double line of troops six miles in length. The Bank of England held £35,017,529 in bullion on the 20th of last September, which is the largest amount ever known. Beecher, speaking on Vanderbilt, concluded that it was not exactly the thing to give God the tag end only of our lives. The Methodist believes that in the present season of political excitement Christian men are under the strongest bonds not only to keep the peace but to create an atmosphere of peace for other people to breathe. The New Haven Palladium says that Governor Chamberlain of South Carolina is one of the most brilliant men that ever graduated from Yale. The London Telegraph says, "At Glasgow a terrible panic has lately arisen, due to a whispered popular belief that hydrophobia had broken out there in something like an epidemic, or perhaps we should say, epioptic form. Straightway the police proceeded to slay all dogs they found in the streets unmuzzled and without responsible guardians. It would appear, however, that the alarm has been somewhat exaggerated," imagination having much to do with generating such fearful maladies. The Rev. William Gray, pastor of a Baptist church in Lexington, is accused of rifling his collection basket. Peter Larkin was hung in Virginia City, Nevada, Jan. 19, for the murder of Daniel Corcoran Aug. 4, 1875. Both were Irishmen. This was the second case of hanging known in Storey County. At Verdun's sail manufactory, Dublin, is the largest sail in the world, being 180 by 60 feet. It has been produced to aid, by a new method, the raising of sunken vessels. Miss Ellen L. Fletcher, having served an apprenticeship of three years to the watch-making and jewelry business, and pursued it for five years, has set up for herself in Charleston, New Hampshire.

NO PROSPECT FOR UTAH.

A SHORT TIME ago a dispatch stated that strong hopes were entertained of the passage of an enabling act the present session for the admission of Utah into the Union as a State. Yesterday we published a dispatch to the effect that there was no chance whatever of the bill being reported from the committee this session, as a majority of the House Committee on the Territories was opposed to it. Which of these statements is correct, is a matter of conjecture. But there are a great many people, aware of the way Utah has been treated for many years, who probably never will have any strong expectation of seeing this Territory admitted as a State until that long delayed fact shall actually have occurred. Why Utah should be so persistently kept out of the Union does not very clearly appear. That is, a valid reason is not clearly apparent. Reasons are advanced, but they are of such a flimsy nature that they have no inherent strength or substance pertaining to them, not a bit. In asking for admission, Utah asks for nothing but what is her just right by fair implication. She presents a republican and liberal form of government. She has sufficient care, population, development, progress, resources, industry, and intelligence, while she is unsurpassed by any commonwealth in the Union in the important matters of morality, patriotism, high regard for law and good order, and efforts to keep out of debt and promote the general peace and welfare. The common objection in regard to the domestic institutions of the people of this Territory amounts to nothing, being entirely irrelevant. There is no adequate justification for lugging that question into the discussion of admission. Not the least, it is entirely foreign to the main question. The objection of a small State having as many senators in Congress as a large State, is no great objection, and has no special application to Utah. Senators represent States, and representatives represent the people. That is the form and fashion of the representative government of this republic, and is hardly a proper matter upon which to base an objection to the admission of any one State, after having been acted upon in the admission of all the States during the existence of the federation. There were reasons for adopting that form of representation, and those reasons exist now. It was in the interest of equal rights. The States as States have equal rights in the senatorial representation, and the people as citizens have equal rights in the representative representation. Utah asks nothing but what is fair and right, and she desires nothing more, but that she does desire, and she thinks it should be freely, ungrudgingly accorded her. Nevertheless, she can live and prosper either as a Territory or as a State, and whatever Congress may do or not do respecting her, Providence will override all for the best, and she will enter the Union as a State when the fitting time comes, in spite of all liberal and carping opposition.

TO-DAY'S DISPATCHES.

THE NEW PLAN APPROVED.
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., 23.—The Board of Trade has adopted a resolution approving the congressional committee's plan for settling the presidential question.

WOOL MARKET.
Wool is firm and in fair demand. Colorado, washed 13 @ 22, unwashed 16 @ 17; extra and merino washed 25 @ 28; No. 1 and extra pulled 25 @ 28; Texas, fine and medium 20 @ 23; coarse 16 @ 20; California, fine and medium 12 @ 23, coarse 15 @ 25.

THE SURRENDER PLAN.
NEW YORK, 23.—The Times, in its editorial, says the senatorial advocates of the surrender plan show a natural anxiety to rush it through with as little delay as possible. The people are beginning to have a clearer perception of the untenability, and of the heritage of confusion and mischief which its adoption would entail.

NO TIME TO LOSE.
The Tribune's Washington special says the republicans recognize the importance of immediately securing the passage of the bill, and the ablest lawyers in their party to prepare evidence and argument upon their side to prevent the proposed triple commission. The national committee will no doubt move in this matter. There is no time to lose.

W. H. VANDERBILT'S FIRST IMPORTANT ACT.
The World says W. H. Vanderbilt's first public act of importance since his father's death will meet with general approval. He has practically given a quarter of a million dollars towards the construction of the St. Lawrence project of a grand opera house.

UNION LEAGUE CLUB PETITION AGAINST THE COMPROMISE BILL.
A petition to Congress in relation to the compromise plan for the election count is in circulation at the Union League Club of New York in this city. The petitioners make substantially the following suggestions:

First.—That the constitutionality of the proposed act should be formally passed upon by the Supreme Court.

Second.—That the judges of the Supreme Court should not be members of the commission if prior adjudication by the courts cannot be obtained.

Third.—That the part assigned to the judges should be performed with the dignity and impartiality of the court, not with the rights of the people, nor with the principles and safety of the country's institutions.

The petitioners ask that Congress will not involve the judges of the Supreme Court in any manner with the pending contest until the question has been judicially decided.

SHOT HIMSELF.
CHICAGO, 23.—Andrew Filbert, under indictment for the murder of William Oldenburg, his son-in-law, but out on bail, shot himself this morning at his residence on 16th street.

MAIL CARRIAGE ATTACKED BY INDIANS.
HAT CREEK, Wyo., 23.—The mail carrier between Hat Creek and Red Cloud was attacked by four Indians on the last trip, but escaped; on the return trip he met fifty friendly Sioux who were en route to treat with Crazy Horse for his surrender. They peacefully parted with him, and on learning their mission dismounted them, necessitating their return to the agency. Small bands have been seen at several points between here and Indian Creek.

AN INDIAN ATTACK AND LONELY LIFE.
STOUT CITY, Iowa, 23.—A telegram has been received here from Fort Randall, stating that news was received there this afternoon through Indian messengers, of the capture of Vail's party by the Sioux on the Little Missouri River last Thursday morning by Crazy Horse's band, and the massacre of twenty men who were with the train coming off of the hills. Particulars of the attack not yet received, but the report is believed to be correct at the Fort. The attack was made at a place about thirty miles east of the hills.

A BILL VETOED.
WASHINGTON, 23.—The President has vetoed the bill abolishing the police board of commissioners. The bill was passed by both houses without opposition.

FOREIGN.

FRANCE.
A Good Understanding.
PARIS, 23.—It is stated in official circles that the German ambassador, the German ambassador, has just been conversing with the Duke de Cazas that Germany regards the attitude of France, in regard to the European complications, with the best feelings, notwithstanding the attacks of the German press. The understanding between the two governments is uninterrupted.

GREAT BRITAIN.
The Eastern Question.
LONDON, 23.—The Times' Vienna

special says, notwithstanding the departure of the ambassadors no apprehensions seem to be felt of an immediate collision. On the contrary, both Turkey and Russia may attempt to initiate a diplomatic communication, Turkey through her ambassador, and Russia through the hope that the failure of the conference might not altogether terminate negotiations. Russia's initiative, on the other hand, would in the first instance aim at ascertaining the positions which the various cabinets mean to take in the face of Turkey's refusal to view to uniting them for a common front against the Porte. Russia will only act independently if common action should prove impossible. As for Russia's acquiescing in the failure of the conference it has never been thought of for one moment.

The Telegraph's Vienna correspondent says it is thought the announcement that the ambassadors of the three northern powers would embark simultaneously is intended to prove the permanency of the alliance of the three emperors.

The Telegraph's Pera correspondent says the Porte has sent telegrams dispatching to its ambassadors at the various capitals, intimating them that while rejecting the proposals of the conference, it undertakes to faithfully extend the new constitutional liberties to all its subjects. The Turkish ministers have given their word not to attack Serbia before the expiration of the armistice.

The Berlin correspondent of the Times remarks that it is not concluded before the end of the armistice, Turkey will probably revert to her original demand that several of the Serbian fortresses be destroyed and others surrendered.

A dispatch to the Times from Semlin mentions reports that a Russian legion is being formed near Grahovo on the Danube, and the Russian volunteers who quitted Serbia are joining it.

Wreck and Loss of Life.
The new American ship George Green, Captain Wilson, was lost with all on board. An inquest has been held at Kingston, Devonshire, on a body which has been identified as that of the captain's wife.

Increase of Military Transportation in Russia.
A special from Vienna reports that the officers of the Russian railways have been ordered to hold the roads in readiness from the end of the present week for a large increase of military transportation.

WIDOWS.—Moore's Rural New Yorker talks about the "charm of the widow in this way." A young widow is, perhaps, the most interesting object in nature—or art. She is too sweet for anything. Like all good things she can only be created at great sacrifice. Mrs. Moore says a man must be pretty thoroughly spoiled before he can leave a widow. This black swan, this mournful Phoenix—rise out of the funeral urn that holds the ashes of a husband's heart. Poets, statesmen, heroes and philosophers, have each felt the undelimited influence of widowhood. Its quality is not strained. It falls upon one just and the unjust. Henry VIII. was fond of them; he took two, and King David was so pleased with Abigail, the widow of Nabal, whom he took to wife, that he turned Bathsheba into a widow on purpose to marry her. Allen Ramsey, who is now telling how to woo a widow, might as well have left directions how to get struck with lightning. "Who wouldn't be a widow?" If one could not be a widow, who wouldn't like to have one?
