Brain this morning, who returned last evening from a mission to North Carolina, where he has been laboring for nearly two years. Elder Brain, in company with four others, left this city on January 24th, 1881, for the Southern States Mission, and on his arrival there was Garroting Case.-Owen J. assigned to labor in Burke, N.C., and Morgan states that he was passing adjacent Counties. During the first Schrough the winter the Elders suc. and in baptising a few, which wa? the cause of quite a deal of opposition, resulting, however, in the baptism of about sixty persons and the organization ed until from present appearances a a great amount of good is likely to be done in that locality. A short time since a small company emigrated from Burke County and a few others of the Saints arrived with Elder Brain last evening. During the past summer the clergy in the vicinity where the Elders were laboring called indignation meetings, at one of which resolutions were adopted directed to the brethren demanding that they should leave the county before the expiration of twenty days. In case they did not go they were to be ridden out on a rail. Through instructions from Prest. John Morgan public meetings among the Saints were suspended for a short time till Interesting to Deer Hunters .- the virulent spirits of the pious Large quantities of deer are being Pharisees were somewhat cooled off, of this fact it may be well for all Eider Brain is pleased to return parties interested to take notice of home, and is feeling and looking the following extract from the well, after having accomplished a satisfactory mission and gaining
