FOR THROAT DISEASES and Affections of the Chest, "Brooks' Bronchial Troches" are of value. For Coughs, Irritation of the Throat caused by cold, or Unusual Excitation of the vocal organs, in speaking in public, or singing, they produce beneficial results.

HACK, HACK! COUGH, COUGH! Cough is a symptom by which various diseased conditions of the throat, bronchial tubes and lungs manifest themselves. But whether it arises from the irritation produced in the throat and lungs by taking cold, from an attack of bronchitis, from incipient consumption, or from various other causes, nothing will allay it more speedily nor cure it more permanently than Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It does not matter whether it is a recent attack, or a lingering cough, the Discovery is in either case equally well adapted for its relief and permanent cure. In fact, it will cure a cough in one-half the time necessary to cure it with any other medicine, and it does it without drying it up but by removing the cause, subduing the irritation, and healing the inflamed tissue. No time should be lost in commencing the use of the proper medicine for the relief of a cough, for unless this course is pursued, serious and dangerous disease of the lungs is liable to result.

DOCTORS SOON LEARN ITS VALUE.

Buffalo, N. Y., Dec. 13, 1870. DR. PIERCE.—For the past six months I have used your Golden Medical Discovery in my practice, and in the time I have tested its merits in severe coughs, both acute and chronic, in chronic disease of the throat, severe cases of bronchitis, general derangement of the system, congested condition of the bowels, and where a rough alternative has been indicated. In all cases I have found it to act gently yet thoroughly and effectually in removing the various diseased conditions, and bringing about a healthy action throughout the system. Yours fraternally, H. L. HALL, M. D.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THERMOMETER 21 degrees F. in the shade, at 1 p. m. to-day. Fine day.

Found.—A lady's fur cape. Call at this office.

Frosty.—A hard frost last night. Bright and clear to-day.

Choir Re-Union.—The 16th Ward choir purposes having a party at the school house of that ward on Friday evening, Feb. 27th.

For St. George.—We understand that eleven masons left this City this morning by train for Provo, on their way to St. George to work on the Temple.

Lecture.—"Laws Governing Health," is the subject of a lecture to be delivered at the 10th Ward school house to-night, by Brother George Teasdale.

Fraternal.—This morning our sanctum was brightened by the genial presence of C. W. Penrose, Esq., the characteristically lively and able editor of the Ogden Junction.

Will Meet.—The members of the Horticultural Society will meet to-night at the office of Stout &amp; Burmeister. All interested in the objects of the association are invited to attend.

Assaulting and Battering.—Henry Burnett assaulted and slapped Wm. Stevens. This morning Burnett had to pay $10 for indulging in that kind of pastime, that being the amount of the fine assessed against him in the police court.

Fireman's Ball.—The Fireman's ball, for the benefit of Pioneer Company No. 1, at the 13th Ward Assembly Rooms last night, was a fine affair. The members of the Brigade who attended were in uniform.

Greatest General of the Age.—Elder H. W. Nalsbitt will lecture to-morrow evening in the 16th Ward school rooms, to the members of the Literary Institute of that ward, on "The Greatest General of the Age." Lecture commences at 7 o'clock. Admission free to all.

Afraid of the Result.—George Q. Cannon is pressing a resolution in the House for the appointment of an investigation committee to examine into the truth of affairs in Utah. Governor Woods vetoed a memorial asking for this investigation, passed by the Utah Legislature, because he was afraid of the result.—Omaha Herald.

The Profane Man.—Wm. Pugh, alias Shakespeare, confined in the city jail, and who there underwent the operation of having the toes of one of his feet amputated a few days ago, is doing as well as could be expected. Considerable has been written and said about the "wickedest man," but Pugh has the reputation of being about as good as the profane man that could well be found. He manufactures and strings out expressions of that kind with the most remarkable facility.

Theatre.—Last night was the first night of "Struck Oil" and the second of the "Chinese Invasion," and there was a large house to witness them. "Struck Oil" is a roaring three-act comedy, the "Chinese Invasion" is a roasting farce, and both together, or either singly, will make a roaring audience in spite of themselves. These plays are pieces to laugh at, laugh at consumedly, laugh at reiteration and heartily and without stint, almost all the blessed time the performance lasts. In saying this, we leave no necessity for us to analyze these plays, but we may say, if you enjoy good, side-splitting laughs, plenty of side-splitting laughs, go to the Theatre to-night, when the two pieces above-mentioned will be repeated.

A Novelty.—To-day the citizens were regaled with something of a novelty, so far as Salt Lake is concerned, in the shape of a couple of street singers. They were a couple of sturdy-looking fellows, one short and stout and minus a hand; the other tall and muscular, and looking one leg. They are foreigners, and have pretty good voices, one singing tenor and the other bass. Quite a large crowd of people was attracted around them, which thing led to a little as the taller of the two went around, passing the solicitation hat.

A bystander would say, "That's an old country dandy," another, "That puts us in mind of 'Lord country' another, 'Well, well, who would have thought he has seen a sight in the Cooks of Salt Lake' another, 'Well, I don't know anybody doing so at streetside since I was in Yarmany.'"
