

TO BE OR NOT TO BE

Shall Advertising Wagons Continue Their Work or Shall They Not?

— Justice Weaver vs. Doolittle in a Test

—
Nine months ago, since that time streets was principal thoroughfare of this city a new feature in the shape of an advertising wagon carrying glow-two-column in order to make the attention of the public to the passing vehicle.

throughout the city, and quite a number of them fitted up signs of their own to call attention to special sales, extra values and bargains. See "Lithographs in the

... however, than did the merchants and
... on their way to a ... when from the heart of the play the was on suffer that particular week.

This sign was the most glaring of all, magnified in all the courts of the

For a time all went well in this line and this mode of working appeared essential to bring no trouble but those of simple construction. The machine and they crowded with glee beside of seeing Ellen on in this new and profitable way of advertising. But according to the envelope, she could be made in such cases. They failed to find an ordinance, however, which was treated as such.

[illegible]

On a recent call on until a few days ago, when Chief Pratt suddenly came to the conclusion that something would have to be done to bring the matter to a close.

the effect that on and after that date the effects were to accrue at double he sworn out against them. The order directed under which they were to be tried was left to the prosecution; he could please himself what he did to who has helped, in fact as much as that he always tries to meet the emergencies of every case. It has been suggested that a conviction might be had against the witnesses involved.

through digest of that passage, however, Mr. Shoup came to the conclusion that it seems a convincing and ordinance relating to signs and sign boards. This he found to be wanting also, as it did not fully meet the requirements of such cases. Not to be The first that fell a victim to the "chillier" struggle in" was the wagoner, who was killed by the hands of the was taken in charge by the postmaster while his employees were notified of their men, having been arrested. Manager Gates and his colleagues he-they gave it out that they would let the case, as they were satisfied that there was not an existing ordinance under which they could be convicted.

No signs nor signs posts of any design or character shall be placed on any building or structure in the city of Lake City, which comply as follows:

any-in y.

will the case, the bank committee had tried to convince it's not the primary of the moment, while Mr. Nixon blame the defense and his remarks Mr. Ellsworth stated that the court had not anticipated the penalty of a fine in this case, but he felt that a fine should be made as

Justice Wagner took up the volume of law and evidence, and after a thorough digest of the complaint above quoted he declared in favor of the defendants and

Wagner says it but that the real remedy at hand was to make application to the City Council requesting that it could be withdrawn.

dragons used for that purpose.