Shooting Affray between Colored Men Over a Woman--Wedding-Briefs And Personals.

Ogden, Utah, March 13 .- The last sad rites over the mortal remains of Mrs. Eliza Clough who died March 8 at Riverside, Weber county, in her eightyfirst year, were performed yesterday afternoon and her body was laid to its final rest in the Ogden City cemetery. The funeral services were held at the First ward meetinghouse Sunday afternoon, commencing at 2 o'clock, Pitshop D. H. Ensign presiding. A quartet rendered a beautiful musical selection and appropriate hymns were sung by the ward choir. Elder Samuel W. Richards of Salt Lake, Job Pingree, H. C. Taylor and Patriarch George W. Larkin addressed the large assemblage on the glorious hope of the resurrection, also eulogizing the useful life of the deceased, and related various circumstances showing her true devotion to the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and her kindness and hospitality to the Elders in the Eastern tates mission for many years. Miss Farley sang beautifully "Jeaus States mission for SHOOTING AFFRAY. A colored man named William Wil-liams is confined at the city jail on the charge of assault with intent to commit murder. He was arrested Sat-urday evening by Sergt, Wilson and Of-facer Hadlock, after a long hard hunt. Had it not been for his poor marks-manship he would have no doubt killed the victim of his assault. He fired four shots, two of them at close range, at the body of A. L. Carey, another color-ed man, who is built along such broad lines that he is generally known as "Fatty" Carey. The trouble between the two men was over a woman sup-posed to be the wife of Carey, who is a traveling musician, and who recently a traveling musician, and who recently returned after an absence of some weeks and found Williams apparently permanently installed at his fireside, Carey wanted to bring his clothes back home, and wanted Williams to get out. They had some argument over the mat-ter, and threats passed between them, each one, it is said, promising to have a gun the next time they should meet. a gun the next time they should meet. They met again yesterday noon at the Assembly club, a colored men's club, and had a talk over their difficulties in on of the private rooms. This talk de-veloped into a quarrel, which was re-newed after they got out into the main room. Williams whipped out his pistol and fired two shots at the expansive form of Mrs. Carey's husband. The two men were but little more than the men were but little more than the length of the pool table apart. One of the bullets took effect in the stove, nd other in the floor. Carey immedi-tely started to run, going out of the back door and across a vacant lot in the rear. Williams followed him to the door and took two more shots at the ficeing darkey, who fortunately, meaned unburk escaped unhurt. BRIEFS AND PERSONALS.
