SAVE YOUR HAIR | TO LEARN HOW TO DO IT READ AND HEED WHAT FOLLOWS.
SAVE YOUR HAIR.—The laws of Health and Longevity demand it, the customs of social life require it. The matter is of great importance in every way.
BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR.—It is the surpassing crown of glory, and for the loss of it there is no compensation.
CULTIVATE YOUR HAIR.—For by no other means can it be saved and beautified.
LYON'S
KATHAIRON,
Discovered thirty-five years ago by Prof. Lyon, of Yale, is the most perfect preparation in the world for preserving and beautifying the hair.
Besides being the best hair dressing ever produced, Lyon's Kathairon will positively prevent grayness, and will restore new hair to bald heads, if the roots and follicles are not destroyed.
It actually performs these seeming miracles, of which the following is A FAIR SPECIMEN
I had been entirely bald for several years, constitutional, I suppose. I used a few bottles of Kathairon, and, to my great surprise, I have a thick growth of young hair.
COL. JOHN L. DORRANCE, U. S. A.
In every important respect the Kathairon is absolutely incomparable. It is unequaled.
1. To Cure Baldness.
2. To Restore Gray Hair.
3. To Remove Dandruff.
4. To Dress and Beautify the Hair.
BEAR IN MIND.—The Kathairon is no sticky paste of sulphur and sugar-of-lead, to paint and daub the hair and paralyze the brain. It is a pure and limpid vegetable lotion, intended to restore the hair by natural growth and reinvigoration. It is splendidly perfumed, and the most delightful toilet dressing known. No lady's or gentleman's toilet outfit is complete without Lyon's Kathairon.

FORTY-FIFTH CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 12.—The Senate bill to regulate applications for restoration to the active list in the navy passed.

The Senate bill authorizing the establishment of a naval station and depot at Port Royal, S. C., was indefinitely postponed.

Sargent reported back the memorial of the citizens of Kentucky, praying that Americus Symms be enabled to accompany the Howgate expedition, and the committee was discharged from its further consideration.

Anthony presented the memorial of the Colonization Society, asking an appropriation of $25,000 for explorations and surveys on the west coast of Africa with a view to promoting commerce. Ordered printed and referred.

The Vice-President then laid before the Senate unfinished business for a library of Congress, the pending question being on the motion of Conkling to recommit the bill to the library committee, with instructions.

Edmunds submitted an amendment that the bill be recommitted to the library committee, with instructions to report a bill providing for a commission of skilled persons to examine and report to Congress, at its next session, touching the practical changes which may be made in the capitol building adapted to the accommodation of the two houses of Congress and the library. After some discussion, the amendment was agreed to—yeas 49, nays 11—and the resolution was adopted.

The House bill to restrict the immigration of Chinese into the United States was then taken up so it should be unfinished business tomorrow. The motion was agreed to by a rising vote—29 to 25. Adjourned.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 12.—The conference report on the bill to abolish the volunteer navy of the United States was agreed to.

The testimony taken by the judiciary committee in the matter of Judge Blodgett, of Chicago, was ordered printed.

The House then went into committee of the whole on the legislative appropriation bill. The item in regard to public printing gave rise to a discussion of the management of the government printing office.

Calkins, Hanna, Fort and Luttrell eulogized Superintendent Defrees, alleging that the recent investigation was a star chamber inquiry. The allegation was strenuously denied by Finley, chairman of the committee.

Cabell moved to reduce the appropriation for detecting and bringing to trial persons guilty of violating the internal revenue law, from $100,000 to $75,000.

Durham said it was due to honest distillers that a sufficient sum should be appropriated to abolish moonshiners.

Davis said the law in regard to detecting frauds was a dead letter in Chicago and St. Louis. Large whiskey corporations owned the internal revenue collectors, and the corruption was not as much in the distillery as in the detective.

Baker called attention to the fact that 2,700 violators of the law in the southern states who had pleaded guilty, had never suffered imprisonment for their fault. After some further discussion the amendment was rejected.

Hewitt, Alabama, submitted an amendment requiring the marshal or officer making the arrest of any person charged with violation of the revenue law to carry his prisoners before the nearest official who is authorized to take bail.

Throckmorton cited a case where a marshal had brought a prisoner 125 miles, although there was a commissioner near where he made the arrest and Herbert stated a commissioner sat all last winter in Montgomery issuing warrants for the arrest of persons all over the State who were carried 100 miles to Montgomery, at great expense to the government and to their great inconvenience and injury. Finally the amendment was adopted—yeas 91, nays 84.

After progressing as far as the 55th page of the bill, the committee rose and a simultaneous struggle took place between those favoring and those opposed to a night session for the business of the committee on public lands. The opponents prevailed. Adjourned.

EASTERN.

The Chinese Bill in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, 12.—By good management and persistent efforts, the bill for the restriction of Chinese immigration has, to day, been brought to a position from which there is only a short step to its passage by the Senate and its final enactment.

At the urgent request of Sargent, Blaine and others, Dorsey agreed to abstain from calling up the post-office appropriation bill to-day. Saunders, who, by senatorial courtesy, was entitled to the floor, at 1.30 o'clock, to deliver his speech on the Indian question, was given part of the morning hour by an arrangement effected by Sargent with various Senators, who otherwise would have insisted upon the regular order of business, and a large amount of other work was privately done to clear the way for the Chinese bill, the results of which were subsequently manifest. The morning hour was extended on Saunders' account about fifteen minutes, and the library bill came up as unfinished business. So many prominent senators were interested in it that Sargent prudently refrained from making any attempt to put it aside, but renewed his notice that he would move to take up the House bill to restrict Chinese immigration the moment it should be disposed of. This did not occur till 4.30, and Sargent thereupon coupled his motion with the remark that he desired to simply make the bill unfinished business for consideration to-morrow.

McMillan, evidently thinking that the intention was to force immediate action upon it, called for the yeas and nays on Sargent's motion.

Bayard said it would be remembered that to-morrow was the day he proposed to call up the House bill amendatory of internal revenue laws recently reported by him from the finance committee, and he trusted a measure of that importance would not be displaced by any other.

Sargent said he did not undervalue the importance of the bill referred to by the senator from Delaware, and neither would that senator undervalue the importance of the Chinese question. Although he (Sargent) was suffering in bodily health, he was ready to stay there and debate this matter to-night and dispose of it. It was of immense importance to the Pacific Coast. He did not desire to prolong the debate. He would allow a vote to be taken upon the measure without saying a word, if he thought it would be right to do so, or if he thought all the senators understood the bill. At all events, it would not consume much time, and he earnestly appealed to the Senate to allow it to be taken up for consideration and action, as a measure in which every Pacific Coast Senator took the deepest personal interest, and as a matter, not only of paramount importance to the Pacific Coast, but of great concern to the whole country.

McMillan said if the senator desired to call it up merely for the purpose of submitting remarks upon it, he would withdraw his call for yeas and nays.

Sargent—No; I do not want to make any display of oratory upon this matter; I want a vote of the Senate; I have already spoken twice upon this subject. Continuing his remarks he said it was no vain request to ask sanction upon this bill now, for it came from the House of Representatives and required action only by the Senate.

McMillan then withdrew his demand for the yeas and nays, but the opposition to Sargent's motion was renewed by Kernan, of New York, who said that, judging from letters which he had received, the internal revenue bill for a reduction of the tax on tobacco was of such importance that it should be acted upon without delay.

Mitchell said if there were no disposition to antagonize the Chinese bill by any other, he had nothing to say, but if there was such a disposition he would certainly have to repeat some of the reasons he had heretofore presented to show that action upon the Chinese question was of paramount importance.

Booth then took the floor, and with great earnestness remarked that he desired to emphasize everything that his colleague, Sargent, had said. In his own opinion there was no more important subject ever submitted to this or any other congress. If it should not be considered now, he feared it would not be at this session of Congress. He believed it could be decided by one day's earnest discussion.

Withers (Va.) sympathized with the senator from California, but thought it best to dispose of the internal revenue bill first.

Dorsey (Ark.) gave notice that if the proposition of the senator from California should not be concurred in, he would move to take up the post office appropriation bill to-morrow.

Eaton, of Connecticut, said the senators remained on this floor the other night until nearly 12 o'clock, discussing a matter of no earthly importance. Let the Senate take up this Chinese bill and go on with it to-night. He thought it was of consequence.

Thurman said he was as much in favor of a reduction of the tax on tobacco as any other senator, but the Chinese bill was a subject that the Senate ought to dispose of every year. Delay made the solution of the problem more difficult. He favored the motion of the senator from California and thought the matter could be disposed of to-morrow.

Sargent's motion to take up the bill was then agreed to by a rising vote, ayes 29, noes 25. The negative votes, with two or three exceptions, being given by the democrats.

Sargent suggested that as there were other measures of importance pending, and it might be arranged by unanimous consent that the Senate should remain in session, to-morrow, until a final vote could be reached on the bill.

Hamlin, of Maine, objected, and he said he did not think the Senate should agree to crowd a decision on a measure of this importance into a single day. The bill, therefore, went over as unfinished business, without any limitation of the debate, but nevertheless there is little reason to doubt that its consideration will be concluded to-morrow, nor does there seem to be any room for apprehension that it will fail of passage. On the contrary, from present indications it is likely to obtain a handsome majority without being amended in any particular affecting its usefulness.

The Potter and Teller Committees.

The Potter committee has summoned Coyle of New York, Wooley of Cincinnati, Solomon of South Carolina, and Dunn of Florida.

The Teller committee, to-day, examined Gen. Reuben E. Davis, of Mississippi, who testified that he was a candidate for Congress in the late election from the First district. He had been informed privately of threats to prevent him from being heard. The idea prevailed that he was endeavoring to reorganize the negroes in opposition to the democrats. After the election, heard he had been hung in effigy and then burned; he was a greenback candidate, having been nominated by that party in opposition to his own wishes, and voted for by the colored people, who understood their interests on that question. He was at first informed that he had been elected, but was afterwards told that Muldrow was successful. Senator Garland, of the committee, asked the witness whether he did not once make a speech in Congress about hanging northern men. Witness replied that he did, in December, 1859. It was during the consideration of the election case. In that speech he arraigned the republicans as rebels, and said if Seward would come south and utter such sentiments as he entertained and had frequently expressed, he (witness) thought the people would hang him before he returned north. Witness added: I was kicked out of the democratic party when a boy, in 1835. I have since been kicked out on the currency question, and I am now out of the party by force.

Diseased Cattle.

NEW YORK, 12.—The board of health to-day, ordered the arrest of Jacob Hechs and Abraham Stein, charged with bringing diseased cattle into the city. A herd of 11 cows, which they shipped here from Connecticut, has been slaughtered and disposed of as offal.

Suit Against Mrs. Bell for Wages.

Charles Dean has brought suit against Mrs. Theresa Bell, represented to be the wife of Thomas Bell, of San Francisco, in the Supreme Court, King's County, for $5,000 salary alleged to be due. The complaint alleges that in January, '78, the defendant employed the plaintiff at San Francisco to travel with her as an escort, One of his duties was to carry on his person a quarter of a million dollars worth of jewelry, the defendant refusing to deposit it in a place of safety, but making the plaintiff carry it, and insisting that he should be armed to guard against robbery. The plaintiff alleges that at the end of six months, in Paris, he was discharged without compensation. The judge granted an order, and some of Mrs. Bell's property at the Hoffman House in this city, where the lady is residing, has been attached. It is reported that when Mrs. Bell arrived from Europe recently her jewelry was seized by the customs officers, but was subsequently released.

Ejected from a Polling Room.

RICHMOND, 12.—In the case of Adolphus Gillman, on trial for ejecting a deputy United States marshal from a polling room at Petersburg, Judge Hughes ruled that deputy marshals had no right in the election room during the process of voting, unless needed to quell actual disturbance, or the supervisor be in actual need of protection, or fraud be attempted. A nolle prosequi was then entered.

WESTERN.

Fire and Suicide.

SAN FRANCISCO, 12.—At Eureka, Nevada, this afternoon, L. C. Anderson, in a drunken frenzy, set fire to the house of Mrs. Dennis, and standing in front of the door with a razor, threatened death to all who approached. He was overpowered, but not until he had cut his own throat, dying in a few moments.

Strike—Great Excitement.

A Bodie dispatch says: The Mechanics' Union is on strike for an increase of wages and a reduction of hours. The Union paraded the streets and compelled the mines to shut down till their terms were acceded to. The Bodie company and a number of others stopped work. The superintendent of the Mono company barricaded the works. The union gave him two hours to remove the barricades or take the consequences. There is great excitement.

FOREIGN.

GERMANY.

Opening of the Reichstag.

BERLIN, 12.—The German Reichstag was, to-day, opened by the Emperor William in person. In his speech from the throne he thanked the members for assisting in the suppression of the socialist agitation, and hoped they would continue to support the government as far as was necessary for the cure of the socialist evil. He announced the abolition of article 5 of the treaty of Prague, and referred, with pleasure to the friendly relations with Austria, and the results of the Berlin congress. He declared the relations between Germany and all other powers as satisfactory, and that she would continue her influence in behalf of European peace.

The Emperor and the Russian Plague.

BERLIN, 12.—In his speech, to-day, the Emperor referred to the plague in Russia. He said the latest reports justify the hope that the energetic measures of the Russian government will shortly suppress the epidemic, when traffic on the frontier will be restored on the neighborly feeling which befits friendly countries. Referring to the customs policy of the government the Emperor said: Our commerce has a right to claim that protection which legislation regarding customs taxes can afford and which is afforded, perhaps beyond what is necessary, in the countries with which we trade. My duty is to preserve the German market for articles of home production. We should revert to the well-tried principles which we, in our commercial policy since 1865, have abandoned. To put an end to the uncertainty of the people of North Schleswig, respecting their future destiny, the speech closed with the following sentence: The promotion and development of friendly relations with and among the powers is a task to which should be devoted the great power achieved by the German unity.

BRITISH AMERICA.

A Messenger Sentenced.

MONTREAL, 12.—Peter Mulligan, messenger of the United States postoffice department at Washington, was arrested for bringing into Canada money stolen in a foreign country. Expressing a desire for a summary trial, and pleading guilty, he was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary, the lowest penalty. The sum of $1,540, found with Mulligan, was returned to the agents of the Postmaster-General of the United States.

RUSSIA.

Plague Precautions.

ST. PETERSBURG, 12.—Complaint is made of Roumania's neglect to give notice to Russia of her precautions against the plague. The locking of railway carriages containing Russian officers is considered especially unfriendly and unjustifiable. Roumania claims that her action is in accord with the measures adopted by Austria and Germany.

SPAIN.

A Reign of Anarchy.

MADRID, 12.—A letter from Tangier, Morocco, says the Governor of Fez has taken refuge in the sanctuary to escape the populace who have risen against him.

The Sultan has had a stroke of paralysis. Anarchy reigns throughout the empire.

THE ARRAY OF PROOF
of its remarkable power in our possession, we make the two following condensed extracts:
Mr. Samuel H. Mattson, Secretary, Accomac Co., Va., states that his child, when six months old, was attacked with an eruption which covered its head, face, arms, feet and legs, converting them into "near-ly one solid sore," but that two and a-half bottles of Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup effected a complete cure, without a scar.
Martin Robbins, Jr., writes that he suffered from Scrofulous White Swelling with twelve running ulcers on his legs, from which more than 100 pieces of bone sloughed away, but by the time he had finished the twenty-fourth bottle of the Syrup he was completely cured.
THIS GRAND REMEDY
is a compound of vegetable extracts, the chief of which are
