

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY, NOV. 3.

REMITTED.—To-day the police force of this City remitted a donation of $50 to the police force of Memphis, Tennessee.

BREAKING AN ORDINANCE.—Yesterday a party was discharging firearms in a thickly populated part of the north bench. Some people appear to forget the existence of either municipal or religious ordinances.

WANTED TO SHOOT.—On Saturday night, Henry Simcox, a printer, while in a state of inebriation, fired a couple of shots from a revolver, in the vicinity of the Herald office, for which he was lodged in the city jail, pending a trial before Justice Clinton this afternoon.

FUNERAL.—The funeral services of Elder Albert Merrill, Senr., were held in the 17th Ward to-day. The remains of deceased were followed to the cemetery by a numerous cortege, in which were fourteen carriages and other vehicles.

THE EUROPEAN MISSION.—The following is from the Millennial Star of Oct. 14—

RELEASED.—Elders John I. Hart, John Neff and W. K. Barton are released to return to Utah with the 22nd of October company, which will be in charge of Elder Hart, assisted, as he may require, by his brethren.

BAD.—Tom Pepper, a hostler, so far forgot himself on Saturday night as to get intoxicated, and to threaten to season anybody that crossed his path. Pepper was taken to the city box by the police, and gave security for his appearance this afternoon. Pepper shouldn't get so peppery, nor so much on the box.

OBSEQUIES.—The funeral services of the late Elder Isaac Laney, held yesterday morning in the Tenth Ward school house, were largely attended by the relatives and friends of the deceased. Instructive addresses, in which the character and career of the deceased were reviewed and eulogized, were delivered by Presidents Brigham Young and George A. Smith; remarks were also made by Bishop Proctor and Elder George Q. Cannon.

WESTON.—S. Jensen wrote from Weston, Oct. 25, that general health and prosperity prevailed there. An abundant harvest had been gathered, notwithstanding the ravages of the crickets, which had done considerable damage in some parts of fields.

An interesting fair was held at Weston, Oct. 22, closing up with a dance in the evening. The officers of the society are W. Austin, President; S. Preston, Vice-President; and S. Jensen, Secretary and Treasurer.

FULFILL YOUR ENGAGEMENTS.—As usual in the Fall this is a busy time with mechanics. Cash is scarce and some are under the necessity of making arrangements to have work done for other kinds of pay. When mechanics engage to do work in the latter way, they should not set such engagements aside for the sake of a few greenbacks. A character for the faithful discharge of duty is worth a good deal of money and will always pay best in the end.

INFURIATED.—In Commercial street, on Saturday night, a dispute arose between husband and wife, and there was a blowing up on both sides for a while, when blows of a physical character were resorted to. The husband finally arranged himself into single column and retreated in good order. The wife pursued hotly, endeavoring to break in upon him with a soda water bottle. A female interposed as a peace-maker, when she got the benefit of a blow from the bottle. The belligerent female was arrested and was to have a trial at four o'clock to-day.

THE BUMMERS' PETITION.—We are informed two individuals, one of whom is distinguishable principally on account of his "Mormon eating" proclivities, his generally unkempt and uninviting appearance and his passion for a few drops of "the crayther," and the other for little more than his strong Hibernian vernacular, are making the round of the mining camps, drumming up for signers to that petition. Some people say that those stumblers fairly represent the character of the document. Whether this conclusion should be taken as reflecting on the petition, the stumblers or both, everybody can decide for himself.

St. GEORGE.—Elder A. F. McDonald wrote from St. George, Oct. 25, that notwithstanding the general impression in the Southern part of the Territory that potatoes could not be successfully cultivated in the "Dixie" settlement, he had seen as good a sample of Early Rose potatoes, grown in St. George, as could be grown in any part of the Territory. They were planted in the middle of July by Wm. Lang, he having previously grown the seed on his city lot from a few sent to him from Beaver. He thus raised two crops in a year, equal in quality and yield to any our correspondent had seen in Utah. The last crop was only watered once.

HIS PISTOL WENT OFF.—There was quite an excitement in front of the Herald office to-day, caused by the accidental discharge of a pistol in the hands of a man who was in a wagon from which the team had been unhitched. The bullet passed downwards between a couple of mules and struck the ground. On being remonstrated with for his carelessness, the man in whose hands the pistol was denied it, although the party who addressed him saw him putting the pistol into a trunk in the wagon after the shot was fired. A crowd of over a hundred people gathered on the spot, being attracted by the sound of the report of the pistol, the impression being made that somebody had been shot.

CONTEMPTIBLE SNEAK THIEVING.—On Saturday night Mrs. Thomas Scott, Twentieth Ward, hung out a quantity of under clothing, &c., to dry. Yesterday morning she discovered that a miserable sneak-thief had been around the premises during the night and stolen all the articles, excepting a pair of baby's stockings. Mrs. Scott thinks the thief might as well have made a clean sweep, and if the party who did the stealing will call at the house, or send around he can get those stockings, Mrs. S. reserving the privilege of asking some "questions."

A gentle dose of unrefined salt in the posterior region, of such contemptible thieves might act as an alternative, in causing them to alter their course. Any how when such are caught in the act that kind of medicine would probably do to give by way of experiment.

Moral.—don't leave your clothes out to dry at night in these "regeneration" times, when there is so much of the "Mormon problem" solving civilization lying around loose.

THAT ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING.—Owing to the lateness of the hour on Saturday afternoon, when the accidental shooting of the eldest son of Captain Burt occurred, we were unable to give particulars. The weapon was a Colt's five-shooter. The lad was sitting on a hay-rick with the pistol in his hand, lifting and letting the hammer gently down, to see if the cylinder revolved all right. Once the hammer went down too suddenly, when the pistol went off, and, as the muzzle was pointed downwards, the ball entered the left leg, a few inches above the ankle and glancing around lodged in the ankle or somewhere in the foot. Dr. Anderson was called in to attend the wound, but as he was unable to locate the bullet, and as it is in a somewhat delicate part he chose rather to wait for further developments than to cut in and search for it.

DISCREDITABLE.—The road leading westward from this City, the bad condition of which was before alluded to in the NEWS, still remains in a most disgraceful state. About a mile and a half west of Jordan Bridge is a mud hole, in which teams from Dry Canyon, Stockton and Ophir, loaded with ore and bullion, are constantly being mired. A few days ago a couple of wagons traveling westward stuck there, the teamsters having to return to town and get assistance before they could be released. We have also heard of parties who have had to throw off loads of hay before they could get through with their teams and wagons. We understand that the miry condition of the road is caused by water from a reservoir belonging to the people of Brighton. The road should be at once put in passable condition. We are told that a bridge, which would cost about $30, would help the matter greatly.

PITTSBURG, 27.—At a meeting on Saturday, at which all the furnaces in the city and vicinity were represented, it was voted unanimously to reduce wages 10 per cent. on and after to-day; it was the opinion of the majority that it would be very difficult to keep the furnaces in blast, and that a further reduction might be necessary to prevent entire suspension.

WASHINGTON, 27.—The war department has received a dispatch from Fort Jefferson, Florida, giving an account of a severe hurricane there on the 16th inst. 19 beef cattle were washed to sea and drowned; the cattle yard was damaged and the slaughter house undermined. Roofs were carried away, and windows broken, and many rooms were flooded, doing great damage to clothing and stores, and making necessary the removal of the sick. One hundred thousand dollars will be required to put the quarters, barracks and store house in good repair, and make the fort inhabitable for troops.

The Ute delegation had a final interview with the commissioner of the Indian bureau to-day, when the Brunot treaty was acquiesced in, and the Ute chiefs promised that the Utes now in New Mexico, some 500 or 600 in number, should be moved to the Los Pinos reservations, Colorado. The Utes were loth to consent to this arrangement, but the commissioner assured them if they did not move to Colorado the Government would compel them to do so.

A fire broke out in Canastota last night, which was quenched this morning, after burning over six acres of territory, destroying two hotels, thirty-two dwellings, and between forty and fifty places of business. The total loss was estimated by insurance agents at $150,000, the total insurance at $90,000. The fire was undoubtedly incendiary. The business portion of the town is all destroyed, except the Beecher block. The citizens held a meeting to-night, and passed a resolution inviting the pecuniary aid of the charitable everywhere, and appointing D. H. Rasbacht, cashier of the Canastota bank, to receive any contributions. Two hours before the discovery of this fire, a barn belonging to the Central railroad, used for storing hay, was burned with a hundred tons of hay and several cars. This was also the work of an incendiary. This is the third disastrous conflagration there has been in six months, involving an aggregate loss of $300,000. The only hotel left standing is a temporary structure erected on the site of the April fire. All the fires have doubtless been the work of incendiaries. The inhabitants contemplate the appointment of a vigilance committee to preserve what is left of the village.

Up to a late hour last night cable dispatches failed to bring intelligence of the missing steamer Ismaia, due at Liverpool from New York twenty-eight days ago. Inquiries have been made of steamers and sailing vessels arriving here and at English ports, but none have seen or heard anything of the missing craft. She may have become disabled and put into some place for repairs, but even in that event sufficient time has elapsed for word to reach those interested, and the conviction is becoming general that she has gone down. She was of a large class, and had a valuable cargo. Some passengers were on board, but how many has not yet been learned. Her crew numbered something like thirty-five persons, all told.

The Republican has a special from Dennison, Texas, which says that Lieut. Quinby, from Fort Richardson, had arrived there. He reports that the Indians in that region are very hostile, and that several murders were committed by them during the past week, and stock run off. A family living near Wichita were butchered. The settlers fled to a rancho in that vicinity, where they were beseged by large bands of Indians. Two companies of soldiers left Fort Richardson on Monday in pursuit of the savages. There was the greatest alarm among the frontier settlers. The Indians are believed to be Comanches.

The judge's charge in the Stokes trial terminated at 4.45 p. m., having lasted exactly three hours. Tremaine then took special exception to his honor's condemnation of what is called emotional insanity. Judge Davis said he used the very language of the Court of Appeals. Tremaine said he specially objected to the expression that the evidence of insanity was very meagre, and asked to have the question submitted to the jury. Judge Davis said he had submitted it to them within the law. Tremaine also took exception to the remark that insanity, as a rule, involves delusion, and that the prisoner's idea seemed to have been based upon reality, and to his honor saying that the other holes inside the cloak besides the four in the breast were not particularly material, and that it was claimed that the fatal wound was made through any of them. At the conclusion of Tremaine's exceptions the case was given to the jury, who retired, and at 10.25 sent for Judge Davis to repeat the definitions of the various degrees of crime in taking human life, after receiving which they again retired.

Later.—The jury have returned a verdict of manslaughter in the third degree, and Stokes has been sentenced to four years in the States prison with hard labor.

After a parley the deputies surrendered conditionally. Thirty men will occupy the jail to-night, when another attack, by a large party, with cannon from Cambridge city is expected. Richmond is threatened with an attack for the purpose of taking the county records back to Centerville.
