MURDEROUS AFFRAY IN COLORADO

Trouble With an Apache Indian—Photographer—New Mexico's Terrible Fair, Etc.

The Albion (Idaho) says: "The says Fremont (Idaho) has been shot to death by his son, who has mysteriously disappeared."

John Sheet, a young man engaged in cutting timber in Tennessee, left Leadville, Colo., was struck by lightning and terribly burned on Saturday. He may die.

J. P. Purvis, a citizen, Colby, Kansas, had his left leg badly broken about a month ago, and the bone was set in a month, and the bone around him and knocked him down, trapping him.

The largest and best crop of potatoes ever produced in the vicinity of Longwood, Colo., was raised last summer. This year not less than 3,000 acres were planted. An average of at least 100 bushels per acre is the return on winter sowing.

The fourteenth annual territorial fair of New Mexico will be held at Alamogordo from September 11 to 15. The remains of the last have been buried. All the departments of agriculture and industry, with mineral prizes. The program of racing events is an attractive one.

Feb 1st, 1894.—The New Mexican (Albuquerque) says: "After making a long and difficult march across the mountains and over the mesas, the Apache Indians have now reached the Colorado River, where they are said to be now camped. Name however says he has been supplied with a full stock of supplies."

John Smith, an Apache squaw, has been captured and is now in custody, and the wife of a man named John Smith, who is accused of kidnapping her, has been released. It is thought officers to handcuff the woman and get her into the police patrol wagon, in which she was conveyed to the police station, there to sleep off the effects of the much drinking.

Almon (Idaho) Hedges—Deputy Sheriff Hedges has caught a man named John Hedges, a Spanish, whom he is accused of being the head of the Hedges gang. The fellow is wanted at Boise, Nevada, for killing another Spaniard, on August 30. He admitted his guilt and willingly accompanied the sheriff without opposition.

John Swanson, a bright young man, was born in the slaves' quarters at Pueblo, Colo., against the city council on account of the refusal of the subdivision to issue him a permit to build a building opposite the city hall in the new city. Swanson has been in conflict with the present property owners, who claim that portion of the city hall residence district.

The church people of Boise City, Idaho, will, it is said, shortly commence the most vigorous and relentless war upon the Mormons in the state. It is expected to begin in Idaho's capital. It is understood that so soon as the war commences revivals are to be commenced in all the leading churches in the city. It will be insisted upon that the church members, at least removed from the prominent positions they now occupy.

The action brought before the United States court at Cheyenne by the attorney employed by Johnson county to assist in the prosecution of the cattle raiders two years ago has been dismissed by the plaintiff in error, the attorney. The action brought was in the nature of quo warrant proceedings asking for an order compelling the county commissioners to levy a special tax to pay the bill for services rendered to that territory.

On Saturday evening a party of Mexicans entered a saloon at Pueblo, Colo., and forced the keeper to give them payment for them that they had paid the keeper three months. The saloon keeper refused to take this as payment and a quarrel ensued. The Mexicans then seized him, but in the struggle he was injured. A man named Manuel Mendoza, police officer on the saloon keeper, threatening to kill him. He grazed his Winchester and shot Mendoza through the stomach, killing him.

Charlottesville (Idaho) Messenger: Charley Morris, who will be remembered as the man who was captured and held by the law at Los Angeles several years ago, is in Charlotta. He had an operation performed on him on the 18th, by Dr. Chambers removing a large tumor that had been growing on the right side of his neck. He has no relatives, and his mind has been gradually growing together, and he doctor will perform the surgical operations of enlarging his mouth—in a few days.

Nevada City (Utah) Star: Parties down from San Juan report that the Indians have been the first to attack the settlers from the south. They will move to the north of the town and will seek cover on the San Juan mine. The Chinese are the same in the same neighborhood and are very rich. It can be easily crushed by Huntington mills. There will likely be four and possibly five miles on the formation which is about forty feet wide. They are now in the town of Silverwood, and will make a heavy stamp.

Douglas, Colo., says a special division of the militia, the state of Colorado, and excitement in Western N. W. which could only be equalled by an approaching Indian raid. Captain Louis Cuyler, of the Ohio river steamboat service, a well known number, was to be an unusual number, was to be an unusual number, having just such a large cinnamon bear on the pasture of town. The report soon spread and the result was a hunting and shooting mad rush of men. One animal was shot and the other the bear finally made enough on his pursuers to gain the safe retreats of a large cave, where he now is under guard and will be kept smokes until started out.
