The steamers Yokohama Maru and Genkal Maru were being repaired and the steam launch Hayabusa was sent to take 85 workmen from one steamer to the other. When the launch was near the stern of the Genkal Maru, a strong northwest squall swept over the harbor and capsized the launch, which foundered in a few minutes. Some of the workmen swam to the Genkai Maru, others were rescued by sampans and launches, but between 40 and 50 were drowned. Twenty-eight bodies were recovered. The scene in the dockyard when the relatives of the dead struggled around the company's offices are described as pitlable.

to Pe-ru-na.

Mr. Isaac Brock, of McLennan county, Texas, has attained the great age of 114 years. He is an ardent friend of Peruna and speaks of it in the following terms. Mr. Brock says :

"After a man has lived in the world as long as I have he ought to have found out a great many things by experience. I think I have done so.

" One of the things I have found out to my entire satisfaction is the "I RELY UPON proper remedy for PE-RU-NA FOR ailments dus di-ALL CATARRHAL reatly to the ef-DISEASES." focts of the climate.

"For 114 years I have withstood the changeable climate of the United States. During my long life I have known a great many remedies for coughs, colds, catarrh and dlarrhoea. I had always supposed these affections to be different diseases. For the last ten or fifteen years I have been reading Dr. Hartman's books and have learned from them one thing in particular: That these affections are the same and that they are properly called catarrh.

"As for Dr. Martman's remedy, Peruna, I have found it to be the best, if if not the only reliable remedy for these affections. It has been my stand-by for many years and I attribute my good health and my extreme old age to this remedy.

"It exactly meets all my require ments. I have come to rely upon it almost entirely for the many little things for which I need medicine. I believe it to be especially valuable to old people, although I have no doubt it is just as good for the young."-Isaac Brock.
