The Operetta .- Last evening the burlesque operetta, "The Loves of Wolfenstein," was presented to a crowded house, and the frequent and prolonged applause show how well it was appreciated. In fact, persons who know whereof they speak, say It is by far the best juvenile performance ever given in this part of the country. It was put upon the stage with much taste, and the spirit and excellence with box which each part was rendered, as well as the pleasing and prompt execution as a whole, reflect great credit upon the gentlemen who originated and conducted it, and saloon. They were not taken took part in it. not want it. Let us explain. A The Russian and German medi-cal journals state that East Europe is in a state of great alarm at the rapid progress of the plague to-wards the north and/east of Russia, from the Caspian Sea along the course of the Volga. One difficulty in preventing the spread of the plague is want of physicians. About one-third of the Russian doctors died atther doctors The Russian and German medidead canine is, and has been for some weeks, lying in the street in a certain portion of the 14th Ward. While the snow and cold weather lasted the corpse was unnoticed, but now that the thaw has come the odor trom the putrefying carphysicians. About one-third of the Russian doctors died either during the war or from typhoid fever, which followed it, and a large num-ber of young students have been summoned from the hospitals and medical schools to take their places. One medical journal insists on the importance in the interest of all Europe of providing Russis with doctors and helping her keep down the plague. case is too much for sensitive noses. At all times thips of one kind or snother are floating about at sea, abandoned by officers and crew, in what seems a hopeless condition. Seme are dismantled and mere hulks, some are swimming keel up-wards, some are swimming keel up-thilks, but are driven hither and thither as the wind and waves may direct. So people afflicted with ca-tarrh, bronchitis, and consumption, are abandoned by phyaddians and crew in the the chinese steamer Question. The Chinese are discussing the question whether the Chinese are likely to out and run steamers to America and England. Their rapid acqui-starth, bronchitis, and consumption, are abandoned by phyaddians and tarrh, bronchitis, and consumption, are abandoned by physicians and friends as incurable, yet thousands of such are annually restored to perfect health by the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.
