OMAHA BOYS BUNCOED.

Two young men giving their names as Samuel Bales and S. Christensen, from Compha arrived in Ogden yesterday,hav-Ing gained considerable more experi-ence than they possessed when leaving home a few days ago. When leaving Omaha they went to an employment office and arranged as they thought to be sent through to the coast, depositing $10 with the agency for their railroad fares, and were given a ticket to Green fares, and were given a ticket to Green river. At the latter place the agent told them to buy tickets for Ogden, returning them $5.00 to purchase them. He told them to go to a Mr. White at Ogden, giving his address, and White would forward them to the coast. To their sorrow they found no such person in this city as the one to whom they have addressed as they returned the were addressed, so they reported the matter to the pelice station, deciding that they had been buncoed. The po-lice are now looking the matter up, and trying to find some trace of the Omaha employment agency. In the meantime the boys will take in Ogden.
