Arrived This Afternoon After Attending Philadelphia Convention.

Is Full of Enthusiasm for McKinley and "Teddy"—Called Upon the President.

Gov. H. M. Wells returned home at 2 o'clock this afternoon, after attending the Republican national convention, calling upon President McKinley at Washington, and transacting some official business in New York.

The Governor is very enthusiastic over the work of the Philadelphia convention and does not think a stronger ticket could have been named. He gives it as his opinion that it will "sweep the country" and be triumphantly elected.

"Teddy is the greatest vice presidential candidate we have had," he said to the "News" representative, "and a fitting running mate for McKinley."

Thomas Kearns and Looze, the other delegates, are expected home shortly.

THE STORM APPRECIATED.

People's Spirits Went Up as Temperature Went Down.

The storm this morning, though of short duration, had the effect of bringing the temperature down with a rush, and the precipitation, light as it was, will be of much benefit to the farmers.

Weather Prophet Murdoch came down from his eyrie on top of the Dooley block, looking as though the storm belonged to him, and no one disputed it. The Salt Palace officials were somewhat worried at first, but when the clouds lifted, they set to work and soon had the saucer track in better shape than ever. All the seats were swept, and will be "dry as a bone" tonight.

B. W. ASHTON NOMINATED

Choice of Republicans for County Superintendent of Schools.

All Other Candidates Withdrew in His Favor—Platform Adopted at the Convention this Morning.

The Republican convention to nominate a candidate for county superintendent of schools was held at Murray this morning.

Wm. W. Wilson, of Sandy, was elected permanent chairman and the business was proceeded with.

Geo. M. Cannon made chairman of the committee on platform, and presented the following, which was adopted:

The Republicans of Salt Lake County in convention assembled for the nomination of a county superintendent of district schools do hereby adopt the following platform of principles and present same for the careful consideration of our fellow-citizens in the approaching election:

1st. We are in favor of absolute separation of all partisanship from all school questions of school trustees and superintendents because of their qualifications for the office, and without regard to the political or religious views of the respective candidates.

2nd. While the refusal of the Democratic county committee to favorably consider the proposition made by the Republicans to call primaries in the respective school districts and to send representative citizens to a non-partisan convention has left the Republicans no alternative but to nominate a candidate on the Republican ticket, we pledge ourselves to the principle of non-partisanship above set forth, and ask all fair minded citizens irrespective of party, who believe that the school should be kept out of politics to unite with us in the approaching election and to vote for our candidate.

3rd. We pledge ourselves to maintain a high and uniform standard of the schools of this county both in regard to teachers and pupils, and we favor the best modern equipment for our schools.

4th. Section 8, article 10 of the State Constitution as interpreted by the courts is in harmony with the spirit of our school law, and should be amended as proposed by amendment to be submitted to the people in the approaching November election, and we recommend that the school trustees in the various districts see to it that the matter is properly presented to the people at the election named.

5th. We believe that where other qualifications are equal preference should be given to teachers who are residents of Utah.

When it came to the nominations all the other candidates declined in favor of Brigham W. Ashton, of West Dale, who was nominated by acclamation.

Mr. Foster traveled with the same company last year and made quite a hit in character sketches.

D. P. Felt of North Salt Lake is busily engaged in moving house—not the furniture thereof, but the entire house. It is not an ordinary move, either. Dave has his domicile on skids and jacks, and stills, and with them succeeded in lifting and sliding it over three railroad tracks this afternoon between the ringing of bells, tooting of whistles and running of trains. The house is a large, seven room shelter, and the distance of moving a mile and a half. The feat, while quite common in large eastern cities, is not undertaken in Salt Lake.

The Humane society held its monthly meeting in the Telephone building last evening, with good attendance. Among various reports of different members, it was reported that the society is in urgent need of money with which to continue prosecution against those who mistreat animals. Of the various plans of raising means suggested, none was definitely adopted, although the general sentiment appeared to be in favor of making an appeal to the interested portion of the public. Much discussion was had over the project of organizing bands of mercy among the public school children and it is expected that such bands will be organized at the opening of the schools in the fall. F. L. N. De Bricey, an active member of the society at Murray, was appointed a special agent.

Chambers & Whitney carried off one of the fat prize at the range cattle show in this city in 1899, and they are quite likely to send a carload or two to Chicago next December to show the country, what kind of Whiteface feeders are raised on the other side of the Rockies.

P. Crogan was at the yards with a carload of heavy mules raised in Utah that he is taking to Memphis, Tenn., for sale. Mr. Crogan says that Idaho, Oregon and Washington have sent more horses to market than in two years past that the quality has been better than had been expected and that good prices were realized. Improvement in the order of the day in these States is a fact. Horses will go to market in a few days.

CHANGE IN FOOD

Works Wonders in Health.

It is now known that a change in food can cure dyspepsia. "I deem it my duty to let you know how Grape-Nuts food has cured me of indigestion."

"I had been troubled with it for years, until last year my doctor recommended Grape-Nuts food to be used every morning, followed instructions and now I am entirely well."

"The whole family like Grape-Nuts. We use four packages a week. You are welcome to use this testimonial as you see fit. I am willing to give any information to anyone who desires to see or write me regarding Grape-Nuts." Respectfully, Mrs. C. H. Lowe, 651 Parker St., Roxbury, Mass.

The reason Mrs. Lowe was helped by the use of Grape-Nuts food, is that the food is predigested by natural processes and therefore does not tax the stomach as the food she had been using; it also contains the elements required for building up the nervous system. If that part of the human body is in perfect working order, there can be no dyspepsia, for nervous energy represents the steam that drives the engine.

When the nervous system is run down, the machinery of the body works badly. Grape-Nuts food can be used by small children as well as adults. It is perfectly cooked and ready for instant use.

ABE MAJORS RESENTENCED

The Youthful Murderer Has Not Long to Live.

Will Be Shot To Death at the State Prison by the Sheriff of Box Elder County on August 17.

Special Correspondence.
Brigham, Utah, July 2. Young Jas. Morgan alias Abe Majors was brought into the district court this afternoon and re-sentenced to be executed August 17th, 1900.

The prisoner appeared neatly dressed in a light colored suit of clothes. He bore himself in his usual calm, quiet, and apparently unconcerned manner.

The sentence of the court was as follows: "It is by the court ordered that heretofore re-sentenced on the 12th day of May, A. D. 1899, you were duly convicted in this court of the crime of murder in the first degree, as charged in the information, that afterwards to-wit: on the 15th day of May, 1899 the court duly and legally passed upon you the following judgment and sentence: 'That whereas said defendant James Morgan having been duly convicted in this court of the crime of murder in the first degree, and

Whereas it appearing to the court that the defendant has elected to be shot, it is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that you the said defendant James Morgan be taken hence by the Sheriff of Boxelder County and safely kept until the 7th day of July, 1899, and on that day within the exterior walls of the State Prison of Utah, between the hours of 9 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m., that you, the said James Morgan be shot by the sheriff of Boxelder County, Utah, until dead."

"And it appearing further to the court that an appeal was taken by you to the Supreme Court of the State of Utah, on the said sentence and judgment, and the remittitur has come down and it further appearing to the court that the judgment and sentence of the court was and is affirmed by the Supreme Court with direction to this court to proceed in accordance with law and execute said judgment, and it appearing that upon application of B. H. Jones, Esq., County Prosecuting attorney you were brought before this court and the time set for you to show cause for the court to enquire into the facts and it further appearing to this court that there are no legal reasons existing against the execution of the sentence and judgment heretofore entered."

"It is therefore ordered that the sheriff of Boxelder County, Utah, execute said judgment and sentence within the exterior walls of the State Prison of Utah, on the 17th day of August, A. D. 1900, between the hours of 9 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m., by shooting you until dead."

FIRES ON THE FOURTH.

Manager Jolly of the Underwriters Board Sounds a Note of Warning.

Manager E. J. Jolly of the board of fire underwriters of the Pacific coast, writes to the "News" sounding this timely note of warning about Fourth of July pyrotechnics:

The extra hazard caused by the burning of fireworks on the glorious Fourth of July can be greatly reduced if the citizens will take the necessary interest and remove the cause.

Rubbish has been allowed to accumulate in the rear of many of the business houses, and recent inspections by the fire department and board of fire underwriters reveal many places where paper, excelsior, old boxes, packing material, shavings and other inflammable substances are strewn around inviting the sky-rocket and firecracker to start a conflagration; it is not necessary to call attention to the particular places where this is in evidence as every proprietor knows that all rubbish should be cleaned up and burned at once to insure comparative safety to his premises and if this is delayed until after the 4th may result in a general conflagration.

Several of the business houses have added large quantities of fireworks to their stock, and do not seem to know or appreciate the fact that they have "voided" the insurance both on the building and their entire stock, if they have not asked for and received permission from the insurance companies to deal in fireworks other than firecrackers, torpedoes and paper caps.

The rule of the board of fire underwriters in this regard reads as follows: "For the privilege of keeping fireworks for sale on storage or as samples, a charge of one-half of one per cent additional premium shall be made for each month or portion of a month."

Without this permit the policies are void, and a fire caused by the fireworks would cause the assured trouble in the event of an effort to collect from the insurance companies.

Dry grass in yards of many of the residences is a serious danger to the property and should be cut and watered or the yards thoroughly wet during the 4th to prevent fires being started on the premises.

"An ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure," and the parties to whom this warning applies, will feel much safer and take more interest in the celebration if they devote a few hours during the first days of this week to cleaning up their premises.

SENATOR BROWN'S CONDITION

It is Now Said to be Most Encouraging.

Word received from Washington is to the effect that the condition of ex-Senator Arthur Brown, whose eyes were operated upon at a hospital there a few days ago, is very encouraging. The many friends of the senator hope to see him here soon, fully restored to health.

THE MURRAY CONVENTION

Daniel W. Moffat Nominated for Superintendent of County Schools.

Oscar Van Cott, the Present Incumbent, Defeated by One Vote—Political Points.

After one of the closest contests ever witnessed in a convention in Utah, Daniel W. Moffat was last evening nominated at Murray as superintendent of county schools.

There were but two candidates, Mr. Moffat and Oscar Van Cott, the present incumbent. The fact that the latter has served two terms probably prevented his re-nomination. The sentiment against a third term was rather strong and the Moffat men encouraged it.

The permanent officers were C. M. Sorenson, chairman, Mrs. D. O. Rideout, vice chairman, Harry Ballard secretary, Mrs. Albert Spencer, assistant secretary, James E. Moss, recording clerk, and Michael Manne, sergeant-at-arms. When the vote was taken, it showed a difference of just one in favor of Moffat. That was sufficient, however, and he was declared the nominee. The vote in detail was as follows:

FUN COST HIM $10.

W. D. Smith Endeavors to Elevate a Shoemaker by the Use of Fireworks.

An individual named W. D. Smith has his name on the register at the police station. It was put there last evening. Opposite his name appears the charge, "shooting firecrackers," and thereby hangs a tale. It is not known "why Smith left home." He has a penchant for big firecrackers and a premature Fourth of July celebration. Smith is not a kid, either; but he likes his "fun" just the same. So securing a monster cracker, he placed it under the chair of one Carlson, a shoemaker, who drives a stage at 340 south State street. The firecracker went off with such a shock that for a few minutes the shoemaker was so badly scared that he thought in paragon, while he kneeled made an effort to circle around each other, and cruel Smith just "laughed."

Officer Chase happened along and hauled Smith jailward. The desk sergeant has Smith's $10.

FRIENDS CONGRATULATE.

All Speak Well of Young Le Compton and Dunford.

The friends of Edward B. Le Compton of Park City and Rupert A. Dunford of Salt Lake, the young men who yesterday successfully passed examinations that will qualify them to enter West Point, were today congratulating them on the manner in which they had come through the trying ordeal. The test this year was probably the most severe ever conducted in Utah, which speaks well for the successful candidates. It is a fact, however, that there were many young men who could have taken the examination and passed muster with flying colors who did not enter the race at all.

Mr. Le Compton, like Mr. Dunford, is but eighteen years of age. He was born at Fort Meeker, Colorado, while his father was serving post surgeon at that place. Dr. Le Compton and his family came to Fort Douglas in 1885 and later moved to Park City, where the doctor practiced medicine and where his son graduated from the common schools before entering the preparatory department of the University of Utah in which institution he is now enrolled as a member of the freshman class. He is known as a careful and conscientious student and is much respected by those who know him.

Mr. Dunford is a native of Salt Lake City. He was born September 10, 1882. His father is the late George Dunford, the well known shoe man, and his mother, Mrs. Eliza Dunford, a daughter of President Lorenzo Snow.
