The board of county commissioners transacted the following business at its regular weekly meeting:

Commissioner Stanford reported that he had received a communication from Attorney General Breeden on the matter of the burial of the pauper dead at the state insane asylum, in which Mr. Breeden gave it as his opinion that all insane persons sent to the asylum are state charges, and if they died the state is responsible for their funeral expenses. On recommendation of Commissioner Stanford the asylum bill for $64 was disallowed.

Bids for the building of the new cells in the county jail were opened, they are as follows: Van Dorn/Iron company, by their agents, Western Slope Introduc-tion company, bid $2,127; J. L. Richfield, Sevier Co., April 11 .- Two days of a terrific wind has been foilewed by a splendid storm of rain and sleet, which began at ℓ o'clock last right and continued until noon today. Spring wheat which is nearly all in has received a thorough soaking and will now come without being "watered up" We have had but few warm days na yet and it is believed that fruit buds are not far enough advanced to be injured to any great extent should frost follow now for a few nights.

Our farmers are wondering what of fort the cold weather and wet spring will have on the grasshopper eggs. known that the larvae are guite plentiful in some of the precincts, tably, Venice, Annabella and C and are commencing to hatch in and Central most suitable to the hopper industry The farmers are beginning the "war" early with their disks and plows expos-ing the eggs to the sun and frost. Their watchword is "every man take care of his own grasshoppers. If growing weather is delayed much longer we will have a hay famine it Sevier county. It is getting scarce at $10 per ton, which is double the price it has been for years.

MERCUR.

Ward Conference-Eagles Excursion And Grand Banquet.

Special Correspondence. Mercur, Tooele Co., April 13,-The annual ward conference of the Mercur ward was held Sunday, April 12, 1967, a large attendance being present Pres-ident Hugh S. Gowans and Counselor

George F. Richards of the Tooele stake were present and imparted timely in structions. The names of the General Church authorities and all the officers were presented and sustained unanimously.

EAGLES EXCURSION AND BAN-QUET.

Mercur was visited by about 125 Eagles and friends, it being the first excursion of the year, about 18 new members being added to the fraternal order of Eagles. A banquet was given at the Opera house, where about 250 guests were seated, toasts and songs being rendered, and a good feeling existed.

WELLSVILLE.

PRIMARY GIVES OPERETTA. Congressman Bowell to Leave Wells-ville - Heavy Snowfall. Special Correspondence.

Wellsville, Cache Co., April 10 .- Yesterday morning Wellsville was visited by a phenomenal fall of snow, the heavlest while it lasted in a great many years. By actual measurement a shade over eight inches fell in a triffe tess than three hours. Although the season is rather late here, the farmers rejoice ex-ceedingly at this extra bounty of nature, for in this corner of Cache valley we have never yet had all the precipitation necessary.

PRIMARY OPERETTA

The local Primary association gave a very enjoyable entertainment last even-ing to a crowded house. The exhibition consisted of the rendition of the operetta, "King Rudeness." A considerable amount of hitherto unknown vocal tal. ent was developed, the costumes and scenery were in excellent taste and a handsome sum realized. Great credit and praise are due the ladies who went to such pains in producing so pleasing an evening's amusement.

An evening's amusement. A large number of the brethren and sisters went down to conference and have returned full of glowing reports of a feast of good things. Congressman and Mrs. Howell are among those who returned from Salt Lake. They are making preservations the L. D. S. Reilef society gave a splendid surprise party at the meetinghouse to Bishop and Mrs. George Hales. A large crowd of people had assembled when the Bishop and his good wife were sent for, and were greatly surprised to know what was going on, Af. ter words of good cheer the guests sat down to a dainty menu, which had been prepared by the ladies. Mrs. Cropper on behalf of the society presented Mrs. Hales with a handsome dress in rec-ognition of her services for the so-ciety. Mr. and Mrs. Hales have gone to Spanish Fork to reside, and they will be greatly missed from the social circles of Mammoth.

The public school of Mammoth will celebrate Arbor day in an appropriate manner. An excellent program is being prepared for the occusion, after the ren-dition of which trees will be planted.

The public school at Silver City will be closed for the term on next Friday. A grand picule in the mountains is be-ing arranged for on that date, and the various mines in the vicinity of Silver City will be visited. Constable Frank Schooler of Mammoth has been appointed road supervisor by the county commissioners, and has assumed the duties of his office. Benj. E. Long has tendered his res-ignation as constable at Diamond, but
