We have received an invitation to the "time" party in the Social Hall, to be given on Friday evening.

It is the Third Ward of Ogden that is going to build a new meeting house, not the Second as heretofore stated in error.

To-day we give an account of the killing of David L. Blizard, by his brother-in-law, J. G. Snyder, at Ashley's Park, Emery County.

The performance by the orchestra of Mr. Cliver's new composition was enthusiastically applauded by the large audience at the Theatre last evening.

An old farmer, who is reputed to be an intelligent man for the first time, is reported to have remarked: "I liked the song pretty well, but I didn't like them jolly wags."

Cure for Corns.—Wet common cooking soda with water, so that it will spread easily on a bit of cloth, and hold it on the corn. Keep it on till the corn has softened and comes out. It is simple and sure.

Gossip is a patent sign of vulgarity in heart and mind. Intellect that goes beyond the small mean facts of personal history, fluidity which cannot keep to itself what has been told even in confidence, and without swelling into a loud, unbecoming boast, is a sign of a noble mind. It is a sign of a noble mind. It is a sign of a noble mind.

The other morning a terrible shooting affair took place in Eureka, Nevada. The persons involved were George Hill and Dick Gulberson. Gulberson was killed and Hill severely wounded. Sunday morning they had a dispute at the far table separated without violence. At the table Gulberson was sitting alone, and before bystanders realized what was going on, drew pistols and began firing. Gulberson fired one shot, which took effect in Hill's leg, just above the knee, shattering the bone. Hill fired six times, inflicting a mortal wound in Gulberson's right breast, the ball lodging in his spine at a distance of death in about six hours.

WHAT AND OTHER MATTERS.

Home Mission.—The Home Missionaries of the Stake will meet in the Council House to-morrow evening, the 25th inst., at seven o'clock.

Issue.—Last night an assayer by the name of Russell, was brought in from Bingham, having become apparently hopelessly insane. He was placed in the city jail temporarily.

The Address.—We have been requested, for the benefit of parties having friends in the old countries for whom they wish to make deposits in the P. E. Fund, to publish the address of the proper party to do the business with. The address of the clerk of the P. E. Fund is W. C. Spence, Box B, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Register.—Perhaps it may not occur to quite a number of the native born young people who have only recently reached their majority that it is their privilege to be placed on the registration lists. They can have the matter attended to by calling at No. 7, City Hall, where registration of electors is in progress, and will continue every day this week.

Frozen Foot.—Charles Wilson, an inmate of the city jail, who was sent up for 100 days, a short time ago, for stealing clothing and blankets, is under medical treatment for a frozen foot, which got badly bitten last November. A portion of the under part of the big toe and ball of the foot is quite black, and will probably slough off.

Education of Indian Children.—Brother Charles I. Robinson writes to inform Pima, Arizona, at which place he, President MacDonald and other brethren were on a visit. He gives some details about the education of Indian children there, which are of considerable interest. He says: "At this place great interest is taken in the education of the natives. We visited the school-rooms, where Mr. Cook was delivering a lecture to the young on the Ten Commandments, which were very good. The scholars sang three pieces, accompanied by the organ, which was very creditable. After which about 31 young Indians met in the kitchen and entertained us by singing several pieces in their original tongue (Pima) pronounced Pema, which surprised us all, the time and tune being excellent. They have 62 children in school who are making rapid progress. The school at present is taught by Mrs. Wheeler and two of our young sisters, Miss Gertrude Pomroy and Miss Mary Beazee, who are not only doing a great deal of good by example, but they are acquiring a knowledge of the language which will be of great benefit in the future."

Brother Robinson encloses a couple of letters, which he procured, written by a fourteen-year-old Indian boy. They are in a clear, legible, round hand.

SHOT AND KILLED.

DAVID L. BLIZARD OF ASHLEY KILLED BY HIS BROTHER-IN-LAW.

Last night Sheriff Johnson, of Emery County, arrived in this city, bringing with him a young man named J. G. Snyder, charged with the killing of David L. Blizard, at the settlement of Ashley, two weeks ago to-day. The prisoner was placed for temporary safe keeping, in the city hall, until this afternoon, when the officer having him in custody intended taking him to Provo, where he will be confined pending his trial.

A reporter of the News visited Snyder in the city prison to-day and interviewed him on the subject of the killing. He stated that Blizard was his brother-in-law. On the day on which the killing occurred, he was passing his house, and was called in to quell a disturbance that was going on. On entering his brother-in-law with a drawn six-shooter in his hand, conducting him in a very violent manner, causing great alarm to his wife (Snyder's sister) and children. He leveled the pistol upon Snyder, bringing the muzzle to within six inches of his face. To save himself from being killed he clung to Blizard, when the latter fired one shot. Snyder then took the weapon from him and shot him, inflicting a mortal wound.

Snyder further asserts that he at once took the children to the house of a neighbor, while others took charge of Mrs. Blizard, and as soon as practicable he went to the residence of the justice of the peace to give himself up, but that functionary not being at home, he went in search of the sheriff, whom he met and to whom he surrendered himself. He states that had he had any desire to escape he could have done so, but had no wish in that direction. He says he was not armed when he went to Blizard's house.

Of course we merely give the foregoing as the prisoner's own version of the affair.

Snyder is twenty-five years old, of medium height and fair complexion, with pointed features, the nose being particularly sharp. His manner appears somewhat hesitating and embarrassed. In answer to a question as to his occupation he replied he was "a dealer in horses," and owned a ranch about fifteen miles distant from Ashley, to which settlement he was in the habit of paying frequent visits. He is the son of the late Mr. Samuel Snyder, who formerly lived in the Fourteenth Ward of this city.

Blizard was about thirty-six years old, and the father of five children. Young Snyder was examined by the justice of the peace of the precinct where the deed was done, and committed to jail, to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of murder.

What to Teach Them.—In view of the interest taken in the training of the juvenile portion of the community, the following excellent hints regarding what to teach them will, or at least ought to, be read with pleasure and result in profit:

"Teach them to be polite. Teach them that there is nothing, but goodness of heart, of so much desirability as a pleasing disposition. They will lose the idea, after awhile, that it is smart to be pert and boisterous and take pride in being little ladies and gentlemen. Teach them to say 'how do you do,' or 'good morning,' to everybody they meet, with whom they are acquainted; never to contradict, whisper, hum, beat a tattoo with the fingers on the furniture, or loiter round in lounging attitudes in company; to say 'yes ma'am' and 'no sir,' 'what ma'am,' 'if you please,' and 'thank you,' and 'excuse me,' if it is necessary to pass before any one, or leave the table before the rest; and never to do any of the things for which it is necessary to ask to be excused unless it is absolutely unavoidable. Not to toss things instead of handling them; not to eat with the knife, nor to meddle with things which belong to others; not to listen to anything not intended for their ears; not to refuse to give the whole to a little visitor when half will not do."

A polite child is the best of companions; but a rude one is a troublesome nuisance and will find himself learning at 18 or 20, things which should have been taught him when a child."

Legislation.—In the Council this afternoon a petition was presented from 100 citizens of Silver Reef praying for an incorporation. The bill was referred to the committee on municipal corporations, with instructions if they decided favorably to bring in a bill for the incorporation.

A bill for an act in relation to mortgages of personal property was presented by Councilor Cairne, the bill was read and referred to the committee on judiciary.

In the House Mr. Penrose reported in relation to the county reports of Beaver, Box Elder, Iron, Millard, Utah and Weber, which report was accepted. Also upon the claims of H. Holbrook for relief amounting to $65.20 for services, that the committee had examined and approved of the claim and recommended that it be allowed, which report and recommendation were adopted.

The substitute bill amending the fence law, reported back from the committee on agriculture, passed its second reading and was ordered printed.

The special order of the day, a bill granting to incorporated cities certain powers, was taken up on its second reading. The bill relates to the running at large of all kinds of stock and poultry, giving to the various cities power to regulate, restrain and prohibit the running at large of stock, the setting out of shade trees on sidewalks and public grounds, and the sale of liquor.

Slightly Improved.—We were greatly gratified to learn that the condition of Mrs. Elizabeth Cannon at 2:30 o'clock was considered to be rather better than at the same hour yesterday.

Improvements.—The Sixth Ward Meeting-house is being improved. The small handbell and side-lamps of the upper room are being removed, to give way to chandeliers of a larger size, by which the hall will be exclusively lighted. The exterior of the building is being repainted.

Opera Bouffe.—The performance of "La Mascotte" at the theatre last night musically, vocally, artistically, popularly and pecuniarily, was a decided success. In the opening chorus there was a slight misunderstanding owing to the absence of the customary musical director, but the remainder of the piece was well received and frequently applauded by the large audience which crammed the house from pit to dome.

There are some fine voices in the company and we never heard the leading lady excel her efforts last night. In fact she seemed to infuse new life and spirit into every note she sang, and her ease and abandon seemed to satisfy the audience to a dot. The other ladies of the troupe appeared to advantage, and in regard to his Royal Highness, the sentiment of the auditorium seemed to be, "The King can do wrong." Several of the costumes were rich and tasteful and the local allusions were well received.

If the first section of the comic opera is a fair sample of what is coming, the Odeon's company is likely to carry away considerable of our floating capital.

Through a friend he was introduced, as a last resort, to try Hale's Honey of Horsehound and Tar, and using her husband's language, he said: "Before she had used one bottle she could breathe with ease; and by the time she had used six bottles she was up and about the house, able to do her own work." The man took the pains to come in person and thank the present proprietor of this popular article for a perfect cure of his wife's illness.
