

A SHOT STARTLES ROYAL PROCESSION

A Crank Fires at Carriage of Duke of Sotomayor.

BULLET WENT VERY WILD.

King Alfonso and His Mother Were Returning From Church—Assault on Sotomayor.

Madrid, Jan. 10.—As King Alfonso, Dowager Queen Christina and the court were returning from church this afternoon, a man, who afterward gave his name as Feito, fired a pistol at one of the carriages in the royal procession. The bullet went wild and no one was injured. The king heard the shot and turned back to see what had happened. The escort of civil guards then threw themselves upon the would-be assassin and overpowered him.

Feito was taken to the police station, where he said he did not desire to kill the king but the grand chamberlain, the Duke of Sotomayor, at whose carriage he had aimed. He was searched and in his pockets were found unmailed letters marked "registered," and addressed to President Roosevelt, King Edward, the superior of Germany and the president of the high court of justice at Mexico, and also receipts for a number of registered letters and a visiting card of the mayor of Madrid.

He was searched and in his pockets were found unmailed letters marked "registered," and addressed to President Roosevelt, King Edward, the superior of Germany and the president of the high court of justice at Mexico, and also receipts for a number of registered letters and a visiting card of the mayor of Madrid.

"After the king's carriage had passed, Feito, who was standing in front of the king, raised a pistol and fired at the second carriage in the procession. Because he could fire a second time, I struck him with my sword. He cried: 'You wish to kill me, but I wish the life of the Duke of Sotomayor, who is the cause of all my troubles.' The Duke of Sotomayor, however, was not in the second carriage. It was occupied by the Marquis de Laminia, the court grand equerry, and two palace officials.

It is the custom of the Spanish court to attend divine service every Saturday at the church of Atocha. This church, which is being rebuilt and the king now goes to the church of Buen Suceso. On these occasions the court rides in state, preceded and followed by mounted detachments of the royal bodyguard accompanied by carriages containing the court dignitaries and grandees of Spain.

After the shooting incident the people gathered along the route from the church to the palace and gave the king a great ovation as the carriage proceeded slowly toward the royal residence. The prefect of Madrid, who was in the last carriage, left the procession and gave orders for Feito to be taken to the police station.

Feito is 34 years of age and was born at Madrid. He returned to Spain from Mexico last June. He was slightly hurt in the head by the police sergeant's sword.

Questioned as to what reason he had for wishing to kill the king, Feito said the Duke of Sotomayor had offered him a position at the palace, but had failed to fulfill his promise.

FEITO A MONOMANIAC. Madrid, Jan. 11.—Feito, the man who fired a pistol yesterday at the carriage of the royal procession in the Duke of Sotomayor, the grand chamberlain, was supposed to be riding, was examined again today. His bearing during the questioning confirmed the reports that he is suffering from monomania. A careful official inquiry has shown that Feito is not connected with anarchists. It was first reported that Feito had attempted to assassinate King Alfonso, the king's majesty has received a host of royal orders and congratulations upon his escape.

A dynamite bomb which was sent him in a box from Barcelona has been found and the railroad officials have been found for using the passage of the funeral cortege.

When Feito fired at the carriage of the Duke of Sotomayor yesterday the queen mother and the king were very much alarmed. The king was very cool, however, and inquired if any one had been hurt. After being informed to the contrary he chatted with the civil guard, who walked alongside the royal carriage, giving his majesty the details of the outrage. Upon arriving at the palace the king immediately repaired to a balcony to watch the excited populace. The queen, in the meanwhile, was so upset that physicians had to be called to attend her.

The pistol used by Feito was an old double-barreled weapon. It now transpires that Feito was confined in a madhouse for nearly a year in a lunatic asylum at Buenos Aires. Since his return to Spain last June he has lived chiefly in Madrid, vainly seeking employment, often changing his abode, and always attracting notice by his reticence and high position for protection, and wrote to the king to be employed as a secretary in the royal household. He was several times employed as a secretary in aristocratic houses, but was always dismissed as crazy. Feito also suffered from dyspepsia, and symptoms of dyspepsia, manifesting themselves. His daughter, a slight one, administered some domestic remedy, and Mr. Tongue is now recovering. He failed to get relief, however. An effort was made to get a physician, but before any of the half-dozen doctors who had been telephoned or reached the house Mr. Tongue had passed away. His death came as a great shock to his colleagues in the house, as he had been in unusual good health during the present session. At his bedside when the end came was his daughter, Miss Bertha, and an adopted daughter, Miss Rane. Mr. Beresford is in Hillsboro, Mr. Tongue's Oregon home, and to that place the remains will be taken for interment, leaving here at 7:45 o'clock tomorrow night, via the Pennsylvania. They are expected to reach Hillsboro probably Sunday.

Mr. Tongue was born June 23, 1844; one of whom is in Washington and another in Oregon; three daughters, two of whom are married and live in Oregon, and one adopted daughter.

A congressional committee will be appointed tomorrow to escort the remains to their last resting place. Mr. Tongue was born June 23, 1844; removed with his parents to Washington county, Ore., Nov. 23, 1859, where he has since resided, his home being at Hillsboro, graduated from Pacific university, Forest Grove, Ore., in June, 1885; was admitted to the bar September, 1870, and at once engaged in the active practice of his profession at his home. He was interested in farming and livestock; took little part in political affairs until 1888, when he was elected to the state senate for a term of four years and served as chairman of the judiciary committee. In 1890 was chairman of the state republican convention; from 1892 to 1894 served as president of the state organization of republican clubs; was a delegate to the Republican national convention in Minneapolis in 1892, and was the Oregon vice president of that convention; was a member of the state central committee from 1896 to 1898, and chairman of the congressional committee of his district from the time of its organization until his own nomination; was elected to the Fifty-fifth and Fifty-sixth and Fifty-seventh Congresses and re-elected to the Fifty-eighth Congress.

PHILIPPINE EXPORTS. Two-fifths Credited to the United States. Washington, Jan. 11.—A statement compiled by the bureau of insular affairs of the war department from official returns shows that during the month of September, 1902, the imports of merchandise into the Philippines amounted to $2,785,000, an increase of more than a half-million dollars over the corresponding month of 1901, and considerably above the average monthly value for nine months of the current year.

The export trade of $3,585,535 is the largest of any single month since American occupation, the exportation of hemp alone amounting to over $2,500,000, practically three-fourths of which was sent to the United States. Sugar and tobacco shipments to all countries during the month aggregated $73,670.

The recent legislation favorable to the direct shipment of hemp to this country is apparent, beginning with the month of May, 1902, when the exports amounted to $2,785,000, an increase of more than a half-million dollars over the corresponding month of 1901, and considerably above the average monthly value for nine months of the current year.

WOLCOTT FAVORS RADICAL ACTION

He Would Unseat Certain Democratic Members.

MR. MARK HANNA JUMPS IN

He and Payne Appeal to Colorado Republicans to Consider Above All The Interests of the Party.

Denver, Jan. 11.—The confusion existing in Colorado as a result of the fight over the selection of a successor to United States Senator Henry M. Teller is puzzling even to the most acute political minds. Just what the outcome will be even the most skilled political forecaster will venture to say with certainty. That ex-Senator Edward O. Wolcott has 17 staunch supporters, as well as 17 equally persistent opponents, in the lower house of the legislature, which is the real battleground of the contest, has been proven by events as they transpired up to the present time. Should those who are fighting Mr. Wolcott in his own party remain firm in their opposition to him, there is little doubt that he will be defeated. Mr. Wolcott and his friends insist that action looking to the unseating of certain Democratic members of the house, because of alleged friends in the ballot and returns, be taken before balloting is begun on the senatorship. He charges his Republican opponents with deliberate delay in this matter because of a deal with the Democrats which involved this question. In a statement issued by Senator Wolcott tonight he says: "On the face of the returns, the legislature now stands 45 Republicans, of whom 24 or a majority of three are members of the lower house, and 55 Democrats. Gross frauds, concerning which the evidence is indisputable, should lead to the unseating of 17 fraudulently elected Democrats in the house."

"Before the legislature assembled 17 of the Republican house members asked a caucus to name a speaker. The other 17 Republican members, under the leadership of J. B. Stewart, Mr. Goudy and others, refused a caucus and entered into a combination with the Democrats by the terms of which they were to name four members of the committee on elections and the chairman, a Republican, was to be satisfactory to them, and the organization of the house, including the speaker, the committee and the patronage, given to these 17 Republicans. Some of these 17 Republicans have, it is said, stated that they will refuse to caucus on the election of a senator."

Imports of merchandise during the nine months ended Sept. 30, 1902, were valued at $24,339,322, against $21,343,312 for the same period of 1901, and $17,184,991 in 1900. Manufactured articles continue to make up more than half the purchases, although two-fifths of the current nine months' trade (including nearly $5,000,000 worth of rice) consists of foodstuffs, as compared with one-fourth in the corresponding period of the preceding year, in which the value of rice aggregates, approximately, $3,500,000. Reports received show a steady growth.

The total value of exports for nine months ended Sept. 30, 1902, was $19,250,018, as compared with $13,869,798 during the previous year, and $17,383,209 in 1901.

Almost two-fifths, or $7,222,411 worth, of the total export trade for nine months of the current year is credited to the United States, placing this country far in advance as the leading buyer of Philippine products.

He Found Ambergis.

New York, Jan. 12.—William Shepherd, a carpenter of Lynn, while dredging for stray pieces of coal along the water front, says a Press dispatch from Boston, is said to have come across a lump of ambergis valued at nearly $500. While at work with a long handled rake Shepherd caught what he thought was a lump of bituminous coal, but it was not as heavy as coal. A pleasant odor came from it. A sea-faring acquaintance told him he had found ambergis and that it was very valuable. Shepherd returned to the beach where he found several pieces of the mass that he had thrown away. Experts say the pieces are genuine ambergis and that their value will in all probability run up into the thousands.

For Foreign Missionary Work.

Chicago, Jan. 12.—Nearly $5,000 was collected in the Episcopal churches of Chicago Sunday for local and foreign missionary work, at the request of Bishop McLean.

The collection is the first result of the meeting held at the Auditorium last week under the auspices of the Church club. At this meeting the clergymen and laymen of the diocese decided that the work of church extension should be presented this year.

Artilleryman Starts a Row. New York, Jan. 12.—While a cake walk was going on here Sunday night, says a Herald East Chester, N. Y., dispatch, Thos. Evans, a big artilleryman from Fort Slocum, appeared on the floor flourishing a knife, declaring that he could whip any man in the house. Half a dozen dancers made for the soldier; other artillerymen went to his rescue. A row that followed lasted about 10 minutes and several women became mixed up in it. Evans received a thrust in the stomach with a long thin pin. William Smith, another artilleryman, had his ear nearly cut off, and an unidentified man had his hand cut by a razor.

Rockefeller is Buying Land.

New York, Jan. 12.—John D. Rockefeller in purchasing nearly all the land in the Pocantico hills, East View and in the chain of artificial lakes, to be formed by the historic Sleepy Hollow brook, which runs through his large estate near Tarrytown, New York. Several waterfalls have been constructed along the brook. Mr. Rockefeller intends to spend more than $200,000 on this work.

Five miles of private boulevards through the hills will be laid out, while Butterfield hill, which has recently bought, will be lighted by hundreds of electric lights. Work will be started immediately on one of the largest private electric plants in the country on his Pocantico Hills estate.

On the summit of the hill it is proposed to erect an observatory 50 feet high so that an unobstructed view of the Hudson river and Long Island sound for miles can be had. Another improvement planned by Mr. Rockefeller is the construction of a grand plaza on the brow of Kykuit hill near where he will build his new $100,000 mansion during the coming spring and several large conservatories.

Washington, Jan. 11.—The committee on legislation of the Grand Army of the Republic has been in session at the Ebbitt house here since Thursday. It considered mainly pending legislation for the aid of veterans in seeking appointments to the public service. A subcommittee was appointed, consisting of Chairman Joseph W. Kay, New York, and George H. Patrick, Alabama, and they visited the president and postponed their general Friday in the interest of legislation to prefer those who served the Union in the army and navy in the civil war in appointments, relocations or promotions in the public service over other persons. The committee has returned home satisfied with the results of its efforts.

IRISH LAND QUESTION.

Representatives of Tenants and Landlords Agree on It.

New York, Jan. 12.—The most notable event that has occurred in Ireland for several generations has been the agreement on the land question by representatives of landlords and tenants, according to a dispatch to the Tribune from London. Extreme landowners, who at the outset did their utmost to make the Dublin Mansion House conference futile, realize that the representatives of the tenants are more than willing to go half way in an endeavor to bring about permanent peace in agrarian Ireland. Chief Secretary Wyndham is anxious to make the most of the opportunity, and it is believed, indeed, that Premier Balfour and the majority of the cabinet agree with the king that a great effort should now be made to settle the whole question. What is feared that the treasury may face the situation in a haggling spirit. The tenants are now full of expectation, and are looking forward to obtaining holdings on the terms laid down in the report, but if the treasury fails to give the necessary financial assistance the whole scheme will most assuredly collapse.

CHILD LABOR.

Remarkable Revelation of It in New York City.

New York, Jan. 12.—A remarkable revelation of child labor in this city is about to be made, which many who have studied the matter declare, says the Tribune, will show that more child labor exists in New York than in all the states of the south combined. The facts on which this revelation is based, have been gathered in the last six months by the child labor committee of New York. Since May 1,000 cases of child labor in the tenement regions have been investigated by skilled workers. These thousands of cases in no way are singular, but representing thousands of others, have been classified and tabulated on blanks containing names, dates, addresses and sources of information furnishing a mass of original material for references and publication. Public schoolteachers, factory inspectors, keepers of boys' lodging-houses, and the children and parents themselves have furnished the facts.

Hunt of the Stoy Family.

New York, Jan. 12.—Members of the Stoy family all over the United States including Mayor Frank P. Stoy, have been interested in finding the possessor of a certain revolutionary musket.

Ownership of which may carry with it the inheritance of an estate in Troy, Pa., worth, it is said, $7,000,000, says an Atlantic City, N. J., dispatch to the Tribune. A letter received by Mayor Stoy probably settles the question of ownership of the gun, Isaac Stoy, of Sherwood, stating that he is its possessor.

In twenty years ago, the property in question was leased to John Stoy, the father of Isaac. At that time it was found that, inserted in the grant to the original lessee, was a clause which provided that any dispute in regard to the succession of the property was to be settled by the possession of a revolutionary musket.

FILIPINOS LIKE TAFT.

They Express Regret at His Probable Departure.

Manila, Jan. 11.—The general regret of the Filipino people at the possible departure of Gov. Taft resulted today in a popular demonstration for the purpose of urging the governor to remain in the islands. The streets of Manila have been placarded with signs saying: "We Want Gov. Taft," in English, Tagalog and Spanish.

A crowd of 8,000 men marched to Malacanang palace, the governor's residence, today. Upon reaching the palace speeches were made by representatives of the Federal, Liberal and Nationalist parties, in which the governor was urged to remain.

The speakers said Mr. Taft's presence was necessary to preserve order, for the prevention of political disruption, and to insure the maintenance of the present policy. The speakers paid personal tributes to the governor, the crowd cheering its approval.

In replying to the addresses, Gov. Taft said it would not be decided at present whether he would leave the islands or remain until next August. He assured the people that if he did leave the present policy of the American government would suffer no change, it being not a question in individual, but of national policy.

After the speeches the thousands of natives who filled the grounds of the palace broke into a cheer for the governor.

Overcome by Coal Gas.

Providence, R. I., Jan. 11.—Eleven Chinese were overcome by coal gas in a Chinese boardinghouse in the Chinatown of Providence today. One of them, Don Doe, the proprietor of a Chinese grocery, was dead when found. Two others are in a critical condition at the Rhode Island hospital. The others will recover. Don Doe was overcome by the gas, which came from a furnace in the basement, while sitting at his desk making up his accounts.

A Weak Stomach

Indigestion is often caused by over-eating. An eminent authority says the harm done thus exceeds that from the excessive use of alcohol. Eat all the good food you want but don't overload the stomach. A weak stomach may refuse to digest what you eat. Then you need a good digestant like Kodol, which digests your food without the stomach's aid. This rest and the wholesome tonics Kodol contains soon restore health. Distinctly unnecessary. Kodol quickly relieves the feeling of fullness and bloating, from which some people suffer after meals. Absolutely cures indigestion.
