Gentlemen-The committee on finance, to the inter-state commerce law. Agents bom was referred a communication from b. W. Taylor, Assessor and Collector, ask-g relief from certain delinquent taxes as-ssed in the year 1885, beg seave to report follows:

In May, 1886, the city assessor and collecor addressed a communication to this ouncil, asking that his account be credited with a certain amount for uncollectible taxes, assessed the year previous, and your mmittee, after careful investigation, reconted June 1st last, recommending partial relief; at the same time suggesting, that, as five of the delinquents mentioned in the city assessor and collector's list were also delinquent for county taxes, action in these five narticular cases be deferred homes. mayors these five particular cases be deferred, pending an adjudication from the court on ished. Mileage tickets of every kind, except advertising, are withdrawn. Contracts made with local newspapers the legality of the county assessment, it be-ing understood that salt Lake County pro posed to institute legal proceedings against each of said delinquents with that end in

So far as your committee can learn, the legal proceedings referred to have never been instituted, but relief has been ex-been instituted, but relief has been exlegal proceedings referred to have never been instituted, but relief has been ex-tended to the county collector. As there appears ho probability of the city collector being able to collect the amounts charged against him on account of the above five de-linquents, we recommend that the relief he asks be granted, and that the auditor be authorized to credit the city assessor and collector's account with $528 assessed against the following indi-viduals in 1885: J.
