

THE AMERICAN OFFICERS HONORED

King Edward Formally Receives Admiral Cotton

AND HIS SHIPS' CAPTAINS.

Also Twenty-two Juniors—Queen Alexandra Later Gave Them the Same Distinction.

London, July 8.—King Edward signally honored the officers of the American squadron tonight at the state ball given at Buckingham palace—the climax of the visit of President Loubet, his majesty formally received Admiral Cotton, the captain of the American ship, and the junior American officers, and Queen Alexandra later gave them the same distinction. The ball—the first since the accession of King Edward—was a brilliant function, 2,200 guests being present, including President Loubet and his suite, practically all the ambassadors and ministers in London, the majority of the members of the royal family, prominent representatives of the nobility and the officers of the American and French squadrons now in British waters.

Before the arrival of President Loubet United States Ambassador Choate, with Secy. White attending, presented to his majesty the following invited officers of the American squadron: Rear Admiral Cotton, Capt. Hemphill, Kravitz, Staff Lieut. Charles L. Huse, Cleary, Capt. Cromwell, Chicago; Capt. Walker, San Francisco; Capt. Mott, of the American ship, Chicago; Capt. Thorpe, of the American ship, Chicago, and 22 others of lower rank.

To Rear Admiral Cotton the king expressed his gratification at the visit of the squadron and inquired if all arrangements had been made for the comfort of the American officers and sailors. Admiral Cotton replied that he had taken among friends every care had been taken of himself and the others. His majesty had a pleasant word to say to each of the officers present. The admiral, his captain and Staff Lieut. Huse were then presented to Queen Alexandra. During the supper several American officers were also introduced to the Prince of Wales, the Duke of Devonshire and a number of distinguished guests. Before the ball Admiral Cotton, the American captain and Staff Lieut. Huse, dined with the Earl of Selborne, first lord of the admiralty, at Whitehall. The dinner was attended by naval officials, Lady Selborne being the only woman present.

The king and queen led the royal quadrille which opened the ball and in which participated President Loubet, the Duke of Devonshire and a number of distinguished guests. Before the ball Admiral Cotton, the American captain and Staff Lieut. Huse, dined with the Earl of Selborne, first lord of the admiralty, at Whitehall. The dinner was attended by naval officials, Lady Selborne being the only woman present.

Farley Gets the Pallium.

New York, July 8.—Monksong Farley, who brought the pallium to Archbishop Farley from the pope, has conferred it upon the archbishop in his private chamber of the summer retreat at Dunwoodie, and in the presence of one witness. This private investiture will not interfere with the public and formal one at the cathedral in this city July 22, and it was merely made to complete the bestowal during the reign of Leo XIII.

The investiture was made in the evening. The archbishop had sent away the lights which had been taken to his room, and when the ceremony was announced, the ceremony was lighted only by the moon. The circumstances surrounding it are believed to be without precedent.

Wakes Up from a Long Sleep.

Long Branch, N. J., July 8.—For the first time in five weeks C. Endicott Allen has stood up and talked to his doctor. Allen, who is a Harvard graduate, has been asleep during that time except for intervals of a few moments. He is supposed to be suffering from hysteria. His waking, well did not last long, but the doctors now believe he will recover.

Irish Land Bill Clauses.

London, July 8.—All the regular clauses of the Irish land bill being adopted, the house of commons today took up the newly proposed clauses on which the government showed the smallest majority of the whole vote. Irish Secy. Wyndham proposed appropriating $25,000 annually out of the development grant to indemnify Trinity college, Dublin, for any loss of income arising from the sale of lands owned by the college. The new clause was vigorously opposed by the Nationalists, but after a long debate it was adopted by a government majority of 62.

Philippines Opium Bill.

Chinese and Evangelical Alliance Both Oppose It.

Manila, July 8.—Representatives of the Chinese chamber of commerce and the Evangelical union argued for six hours today in opposing the opium bill at the public discussion of that measure on the occasion of its third reading. The Chinese advocated that there be no change in the present indiscriminate sale of opium, with additional government supervision of its importation. The Evangelical union delegates urged the prohibition of the sale of opium by the United States commission and exposed the most sensational conditions prevailing, alleging that the Chinese are tampering with the newspapers and falsifying a fund destined to be used in bringing about the defeat of the bill. The object of the opium bill is to create an opium monopoly in the archipelago and sell it to the highest bidder. It is based on the theory that it will restrict the use of the drug to Chinese who have used it all their lives and prevent its indiscriminate sale to Americans and Filipinos, many of whom are falling victims to the use of opium. Sales of the drug are to be controlled by a concessionary, who may acquire the right to sell opium in the islands by bidding for the privilege every three years. There are provisions for licenses and control of the traffic.

B'NAI B'RITH PETITION.

Just How It Shall be Presented to Russian Government Not Determined.

President's Very Much Regrets the Delay in Placing Document in His Hands.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 8.—President Roosevelt and Secy. Hay concluded their conference at a late hour last night. The secretary left Sagamore Hill shortly after 8 o'clock this morning.

It is understood that the exact method of procedure relative to the B'nei B'rith petition to the Russian government has not been determined. The petition itself has not been completed, and it can be said that the president deeply regrets the delay in the placing of the document in his hands. Next week, probably on Tuesday, the president expects to have a conference at Sagamore Hill with three of the Jewish citizens who have promoted the idea of forwarding a petition to the Russian government. On that day Simon Wolf of Washington and Oscar Straus and Leon M. Levy of New York will take luncheon with the president. It is expected that the petition which has been handed carefully by its authors, will be revised to the president at that time. In any event, the subject in all its phases will be considered thoroughly. It is understood that the Jewish citizens who have been persistent in their advocacy of the sending of a petition, desire that matters relating to it should be decided by the president in his private chamber of the summer retreat at Dunwoodie, and in the presence of one witness. This private investiture will not interfere with the public and formal one at the cathedral in this city July 22, and it was merely made to complete the bestowal during the reign of Leo XIII.

TABLES TURNED ON HELENA LADS

Home Team in Better Form While Visitors Were Demoralized.

BROKE BADLY AT 8 TO 14.

Senators Tried Hard to Pull Them selves Together and Turn Defeat Into Victory, but Could Not.

Salt Lake beat Helena yesterday, worse than she was beaten by the same team the day before. Strange isn't it? Yet just such records make up a large portion of the chronicles of baseball. The average fan with a predisposition to knock, would have said yesterday's game was very like a school boy's. But these gentlemen are not always the closest observers. It would hardly do to say that the game was lost by Helena because Weggs was not pitching, although it must be admitted that he had much to do with it. But the main fact to which the victory can be ascribed is simply this: The Salt Lake boys were in the form, very much alive, whereas the Senators were off their feed. Some of them were guilty of inexcusable errors and the entire team was demoralized at times. Nevertheless it was an enjoyable game. Salt Lake got started off right, scoring six times in the first inning and her confidence arose in proportion as Helena's sank. There were some batted breath moments when it looked as if the Senators would pull themselves together and turn defeat into victory but these spirits were sporadic and did not amount to much. Every one of our boys seemed to have a streak of good luck. Those who made a poor showing at the bat the day before, were able yesterday to pick out a spot away out in the suburbs in which to drop the ball.

"Slats" Davis made tremendously good with the fans yesterday. The day before very few knew either him or his methods, and consequently some of the critical fans thought the great comedian was just trying to "show off." The fact is that "Slats" has his quick thinking brain on the game every minute and he is ready to resort to any legitimate thing to put the enemy to rout or encourage his men.

Cook, Stovall and Fuller were their old selves at the bat yesterday, and the fans were generous in acknowledging it. Fuller pitched for the Senators, and there were defects in his work, he was so clearly surprised that no real damage was done to his reputation. He is a great pitcher all right, who, when plainly evident from the way the ball would shoot straight up in the air off the bat.

Putnam tossed for the Senators and the question now is—can he pitch much or are the locals such a rattling good bunch of hitters that they can show any pitcher up.

The game this afternoon promises to be a first class contest. Salt Lake is getting the best ball she ever had in all her days, and she should appreciate it. The time of the game for the Senators landed here today and will probably be in the game this afternoon. Most anyone can see what will happen if the home team is strengthened, and these three lads are would strengthen any team in the country if the truth has been told of them. The summary:

A CHANCE FOR OGDEN.

Junction City May Lead in Pacific National League.

It now seems that an opportunity is going to be given Ogdin to get into the Pacific League. A telegram has been received by Manager Bluff, in which, it is said, he is offered the Helena franchise for $500. If Ogdin makes the deal that town will control the team; elect the manager, each pin Ogdin on the team. The neighboring town has until July 11 to say what she will do.

BUDDY KING HERE.

On the Way East to Engage in Two Fights—Game Dead in Battle.

Joe Lucas came down from Butte this morning with Buddy King, the speedily colored fighter. King fought Joe Gans in the Copper city on the afternoon of July 4, but lost in the fifth round. However, he is not in the least discouraged as Gans is a champion in his class. King's home address is 2117 Lawrence street, Denver. He is booked to meet Harry Lombard at Hot Springs, Arkansas, the last of this month. After that, some time in August he will have a go with Turner. He would like very much, he says, to meet Mose Lee Fontaine at 140 pounds or George Gibbs at 142. He is sure that he is the superior of both and wants a chance to prove it decisively to the whole sporting profession.

Lucas and King leave here for Denver at 8 o'clock tonight. The former today called on Buddy Bishop who is ill and commiserated with him on his misfortune and offered to assist him in any way that might be necessary.

Water Boy Wins Brighton.

Haggis' Youngster Carries Top Weight and Captures Handicap.

New York, July 8.—J. B. Haggis' Water Boy won the Brighton handicap on one and one-quarter miles today in 2:03.1-5, a world's record, faster by three-fifths of a second than Gold Heel's circular track record time, made in this race last year, and faster than the record time of 2:03.4, made on a straight course by Banquet. Water Boy was the favorite in the betting at 2 to 1.

He had no serious competition in the race after Jockey Odum made his run, except from Roshampton, who served 100 pounds, with Bullman up, and at 12 to 1 in the betting, and who ran a fine race.

Just when they first passed the stand he made up ground rapidly, led for a sixteenth of a mile before entering the stretch, and made a gallant fight for first honors when challenged by Water Boy. River Pirate, 105 pounds, with the colored boy Hicks in the saddle, was third, with as good as 5 to 4 against his chances to finish in the first three. Water Boy won by a length, with Roshampton eight lengths in front of River Pirate.

Little Darron, who rode Artfulude, was brown in front of the stand as the horses passed the first time. His mount was fifth and going well, when Francisco and Herbert bumped him. Artfulude crossed his legs, stumbled, and the boy went over the horse's head. He lay beating his arms on the track and apparently badly hurt, but was found to have no serious injuries.

To a good and prompt start Water Boy was first away and Odum took him over toward the rail, but Cochran was quick with Oom Paul and got the coveted position. Oom Paul led, passing the stand, with Water Boy next and Francisco and Herbert coming strongly. Roshampton was carried wide on the turn, but raced to the front in the back stretch. Though Oom Paul led to the end of the mile many shiftings occurred behind, and Odum, who had Water Boy close to the rail in third place, was nearly cut off when Roshampton dashed into the lead, with Oom Paul and Francisco dropping back.

Herbert had tried and failed, and with Francisco was beaten at the last turn, but Roshampton was in the lead. Roshampton was a terrific speed. Odum got sail and was close to Bullman when they turned into the stretch. Then Water Boy and Roshampton left the race of the lead, drawing together, and the big, long-striding black horse forging shortly ahead. It was Water Boy's race in a sixteenth-mile from home, carried with ease. Odum, who had first in a third, but was disqualified for fouling. He broke a pelvic bone while in preparation for the Belmont, and was laid up for three months. "Jag" Dorney became the trainer last September and backed Water Boy in the winter books at 100 to 1 to win the Suburban. The horse was withdrawn on account of the mud, but won the Suburban recently last week, setting a new track record. He was raced eight times in his life; finished first six times and made two records. To the winner the Brighton handicap was worth $10,000. A new chute has been built for the start, obviating the start on the turn, and this undoubtedly affected the time of the race.

The fractional time of the race was 22.4-5, 34.4-5, 47.1-5, 1:12.5-5, 1:24.4-5, 1:39 and 2:03.1-5. The last mile was run in 1:39.4-5. Articulate riders.
