CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

Speech by Hamilton.

WASHINGTON, 7.—Hamilton, of Md., addressed the senate at length in reply to a resolution of the House, in favor of Thurman's resolution.

In reply to a remark by Thurman, yesterday, as to what the senate would do in case the President declined to answer, he said that if he should answer, he would not answer.

The army did not belong to the President but to the people, and if the President used the army for improper purposes, congress could disband it. It would be a disgrace to the people if congress should do so.

Every armed soldier in the land, Congress could remove at any time, and it would be a disgrace to the people if congress should do so.

It required no articles of impeachment to do this, no two-thirds vote, but a simple majority of the people's representatives.

He then read a letter from the people of the state of New York, in which they expressed their confidence in the President.

King Kalakaua visited Lowell today.

WASHINGTON, 7.—The House having refused to relieve Irwin from imprisonment in the common jail, sergeant-at-arms Ordway has arranged for him to have a comfortable room in the jail, where he will be removed to-morrow.

Dispatch from Gordon.

General Gordon has sent the following general reply to numerous telegrams received by him from New Orleans:

"To Governor McEnery, Lt. Governor Penn, R. H. Main:

"I congratulate your forbearance for every wrong, and if arrests and handcuffs are resorted to, still for the sake of the people, will be indicated by the American people. You cannot better serve the interests of Louisiana and of the country generally, and of liberty, than by continued forbearance, even unto death."

Sheridan's Charges Repealed.

LITTLE ROCK, 7.—Resolutions were introduced in the house to-day, and referred to a special committee, to inquire into the conduct of the military at New Orleans, and repelling the charge of Sheridan that there is State terrorism in Arkansas, where he has never been, and about which he can only know by hearsay.

Swindlers and Thieves in Office.

VICKSBURG, 8.—The congressional committee, to-day, examined Judge A. H. Arthur, judge of the circuit court relative to the frauds and peculations of Cardozo, Davenport and Crosby. He produced evidence showing that all of them had swindled the county and State, and administered their offices in the most corrupt way.

Chandler Renominated.

LANSING, Mich., 7.—A Republican senatorial caucus was held to-night, at which 37 senators and representatives were present. After an informal ballot, on which Chandler received 52 votes, the caucus nominated him for re-election.

The election will be held on the 19th. It takes sixty-one votes to elect, and there is but little doubt Chandler's election.

Message to the Missouri Legislature.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., 7.—Both houses of the legislature organized to-day. Governor Woodson's message, which he read to the legislature, was devoted almost wholly to State affairs. The State debt is little less than eighteen millions. Referring to the State debt, he said that the English common law asking the people in towns and counties to be responsible for damages when they do not take care to prevent criminals, as a remedy worthy of the consideration of the legislature.

He denounces the Kellogg government, and the interference of the military in the organization of the legislature, and urges the legislature to pass condemnation.

Jury Completed—Indignation Meeting Called.

NEW YORK, 7.—The Tilton-Beecher jury was completed this afternoon. The court gave the usual instructions to the jury, and the case was adjourned till to-morrow.

The following address has been sent to the citizens of New York:

"To-day's associated press dispatches tell us that Kellogg has been placed in our sister city, New Orleans, present the most marked attack upon the rights of American citizenship which has been made since the establishment of our government. The legislative body of a sister State, peaceably assembled, has been broken into pieces by federal troops acting under orders from the President of the U. S. To give expression to the outraged feelings of freedom-loving citizens of New York, we call upon you to assemble, irrespective of party ties, at the Cooper Institute on Monday evening, January 11th, at 7:30 o'clock, to discuss the Kellogg case, and to elect a committee to present a memorial to the President, and to the Congress, and to the people of the United States, in relation to the Kellogg case, and to the rights of American citizenship."

The Kellogg Legislature in Session.

NEW ORLEANS, 7.—Both houses of the Kellogg legislature are in session to-day, and are proceeding with business. The conservatives remain in caucus. Nothing is reported in military circles. Kellogg, in an interview to-day, said he was willing to abide the decision of the congressional committee, if that would arbitrate on the 72 election.

Suspended Payment.

PITTSBURGH, 7.—The Allegheny Trust Company, at Allegheny City, suspended payment to-day; liabilities $125,000; assets, in whole and in part, real estate are said to be $230,000.

Hammill Renominated.

AUGUSTA, 7.—The republican senatorial caucus to-night nominated Hammill, of the first district, by 18 out of 116. Judge Peters, his most prominent opponent, withdrew.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Correspondence between British and the U. S.—Catholics in Louisiana are in the wrong, but think there is no reasonable doubt that the democrats carried the last November election, and the means taken to deprive them of the result is a transparent trick, and an insupportable outrage on the people.

But in the legislature they disregarded the forms of law which, in solemn mockery, the republicans followed, and so they invited and compelled themselves. They have again put the government in a ridiculous attitude of giving support to a military dictatorship.

It is known to be bad, because their opponents have broken the laws. The situation is indeed serious. The Journal doubts if the course of the Willis party justified the summary investment of the whole State with military control. This is a diversion to war times which does not seem necessary by the facts thus far exposed.

Governor Insurrection—Violence.
