"We are finding friends and a few enemies who are ignorant of the mis-sion of Mormonism. We found a lady sion of hormonism. We found a hady this week who, 15 years ago, met an-other young lady in a hospital, and they became close friends. Her chum joined the Mormons and went to Utah, and soon after sent the lady here the Book of Mormon, which she read, was converted and would have followed her friend to the west, but was persuaded not to by her relatives. ### MILLARD STAKE CONFERENCE

The quarterly conference of the Mit-land stake, of Zion was held in the Deseret ward meetinghouse Saturday and Sunday, May 1 and 2, President Alonge A. Hungkley, presiding Alonzo A, Hinckley, presiding.

There were present Presidents An-thon H. Lund, Francis M. Lyman and Elder Rudger Clawson of the general Church authorities, the stake presi-dency, and a good attendance of stake officers and members. The excellent music was furnished by the Deseret ward choir and the visiting choir from

At the opening meeting of the conference, President Hinckley gave a brief report of the stake, showing general improvement, especially in the work of the auxiliary organizations, There was some division of feeling in the stake on the question of the loca-tion of the Millard Stake academy. Most of the day Saturday was occupied in hearing reports from the bish-ops of the several wards, who were followed by President Lyman, who gave instructions to the bishops regarding the regulation and management of their wards, and urged that bishops become better acquainted with their people, offer encouragement and estab-lish unity.

Elder Clawson followed, speaking on damages done to us in Utah by re-cent storms and frosts; while we think our losses heavy, we have much to be thankful for, when we consider the great damage and loss of life by storms, in the eastern and southern states.

At 4 p. m. the visiting elders and stake presidency met with the high council and bishops, and discussed af-fairs of the stake. On Sunday two regular meetings were held, the subjects treated being "fasting and prayer" and the wonderful results accomplished thereby: the great blessing that will come to the people of this stake of Zion in the establishment of a Church high school; the education and the building up of this part of the country, the spirit of work being to educate our children at home, and their
