CRITICAL ANALYSIS.

UNIVERSITY OF DESERET,
Salt Lake City, June 8th, 1887.

By carefully examining DeLand's Chemical Baking Powder with the microscope and with chemical reagents, I find that it is free from Alum, Starch, Flour, Bone Ash, Ammonia and White Earth; and that it consists essentially of Cream of Tartar and Bi-carbonate of Soda.

The Baking Powder examined I purchased of Barnes & Davis, in this city.

J. T. KINGSBURY, Chemist.

MANUFACTURERS, CHEMISTS, GOVERNMENTS, PRINCIPALITIES OR POWERS

are unable to disprove the statement on every can of DeLand's Chemical Baking Powder: "Sale of Pure Grape Cream Tartar and Bi-Carb Soda only. No filling whatever."

CAUTION—Use one fourth less of this Baking Powder, and one half less shortening with all recipes than with other brands. d

CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND & PACIFIC R'Y

By reason of its central position, close relation to principal lines East of Chicago and continuous lines at terminal points West, Northwest and Southwest—is the only true middle-link in that transcontinental system which invites and facilitates travel and traffic in either direction between the Atlantic and Pacific.

The Rock Island main line and branches include Chicago, Joliet, Ottawa, La Salle, Peoria, Geneseo, Moline and Rock Island, in Illinois; Davenport, Muscatine, Washington, Fairfield, Ottumwa, Oskaloosa, West Liberty, Iowa City, Des Moines, Indianola, Winterset, Atlantic, Knoxville, Audubon, Harlan, Guthrie Centre and Council Bluffs, in Iowa; Gallatin, Trenton, St. Joseph, Cameron and Kansas City, in Missouri; Leavenworth and Atchison, in Kansas; Albert Lea, Minneapolis and St. Paul, in Minnesota; Watertown in Dakota, and hundreds of intermediate cities, towns and villages.

THE GREAT ROCK ISLAND ROUTE

Guarantees Speed, Comfort and Safety to those who travel over it. Its roadbed is thoroughly ballasted. Its track is of heavy steel. Its bridges are solid structures of stone and iron. Its rolling stock is perfect as human skill can make it. It has all the safety appliances that mechanical genius has invented and experience proved valuable. Its practical operation is conservative and methodical—its discipline strict and exacting. The luxury of its passenger accommodations is unequaled in the West—unsurpassed in the world.

ALL EXPRESS TRAINS between Chicago and the Missouri River consist of comfortable DAY COACHES, magnificent PULLMAN PALACE PARLOR and SLEEPING CARS, elegant DINING CARS providing excellent meals, and between Chicago, St. Joseph, Atchison and Kansas City—restful RECLINING CHAIR CARS.

THE FAMOUS ALBERT LEA ROUTE

Is the direct, favorite line between Chicago and Minneapolis and St. Paul. Over this route solid Fast Express Trains run daily to the summer resorts, picturesque localities and hunting and fishing grounds of Iowa and Minnesota. The rich wheat fields and grazing lands of interior Dakota are reached via Watertown.

A short desirable route, via Seneca and Kankakee, offers superior inducements to travelers between Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Council Bluffs, St. Joseph, Atchison, Leavenworth, Kansas City, Minneapolis, St. Paul and intermediate points.

All classes of patrons, especially families, ladies and children, receive from officials and employes of Rock Island trains protection, respectful courtesy and kindly attention.

A SURE CURE FOR THE PILES—You need not suffer from this most distressing disease again in all your life. Email's Balm acts as a poultice and lubricator, absorbs the tumors and allays the intense itching at once. No caustic, no acid, no pain. A. McGibbons Esq., 19 Poplar street, Allegheny, Pa., writes: "I had itching and bleeding piles so bad I could not sit, stand or walk without intense suffering. I doctored with many physicians, and tried all the (so called) cures that I ever heard of, in vain (paying out hundreds of dollars), until I used Email's Magic Balm, or Ointment. After the first application I enjoyed the best night's sleep I had for ten years, and two boxes have cured me completely." Wherever introduced Dr. Email's Balm takes the lead, and has the largest sale of any Pile remedy in the world. Sold by druggists everywhere or sent by mail. 50 cent boxes. EVENING NEWS.

Thursday, - November 17, 1887.

WASATCH STAKE CONFERENCE.

The forty-first quarterly conference of Wasatch Stake convened in the Heber Hall, Nov. 11, 1887.

It was called to order by President Hatch. Singing. Prayer by Patriarch Thomas Hicken. Singing.

President Hatch advised all the brethren to take one or more of the papers, and become posted in all the things that are transpiring. He congratulated the Saints in this Stake on the peace and prosperity that prevailed. Wished the Bishops to give correct reports of their wards, the condition of the various institutions, donations, schools, amusements, etc., and not to forget to report themselves.

Patriarch Thomas Hicken made some excellent remarks on the subjects of the mercies of God extended towards us, the introduction of the Gospel in these latter-days, the state and condition of the Christian world, and the proper course the Saints ought to pursue, to retain the Spirit of God, and remain true and faithful in the Church of Christ.

Bishop N. C. Murdock reported the Charleston Ward as doing well, and felt satisfied that the Saints had a desire to live their religion.

2 p.m. After the usual exercises Bishops Fraughton, Van Wagener, Clegg, and Counselor Todd reported their Wards in good condition, peace and health prevailing, and the Saints generally alive to their duties.

Elder Fillingham made some remarks on a variety of subjects, after which the choir sang a beautiful anthem. Benediction by Elder R. Michie.

Sunday 10 a.m. After singing, and prayer by Elder Fillingham, the large audience was addressed by J. M. Murdock, President of the High Priests Quorum. He thought they were doing as well as could be expected. By our works we are known: that is the only way men and women could be judged. The speaker made some excellent remarks on the divine authenticity of the Book of Mormon.

Bishop Moon reported the Woodland Ward as in a satisfactory condition.

Supt. S. J. Wing reported the Sabbath schools as making very encouraging progress.

Elder Wootton made some remarks on education and advised the parents to give their children as good an education as their circumstances would permit.

President Giles felt pleased to see such a large congregation, but sorry so many had to go back, there being no room.

The choir sang "Awake, put on thy strength, O Zion." Benediction by Elder John Watkins.

2 p.m. After the usual exercises the sacrament was administered. Elder Blake (as the Bishop was absent) reported the Center Ward. Thought they were getting along as well as could be expected.

President H. S. Alexander made a few remarks. He believed if the Saints would live their religion, everything would come out all right.

Twelve returned missionaries were called on by President Hatch to speak about five minutes each, which was very interesting and instructive. The general and local authorities were presented by the clerk and unanimously sustained.

The instructions on public amusements, by the First Presidency, as printed in the DESERET NEWS Jan. 6th, 1881, were read to the conference, after which President Hatch told the Saints that it was his mind and that of his counselors, that these instructions be carried out strictly in this Stake of Zion. He gave some instructions on various subjects, which were highly necessary and useful.

The choir sang "The earth is the Lord's." Benediction by Patriarch Hicken.

Our meetings were crowded, and we had a first-class time. The Spirit of God rested richly upon the congregation. The choir sang excellently, and the Heber brass band rendered some fine pieces of music, between meetings, which made things quite lively.

HENRY CLEGG, Clerk.

Senator Jackson's Bloody Duel.

Senator James Jackson of Georgia fought a bloody duel before he came to Washington. He was an Englishman by birth, but he came to Savannah when a lad, studied law, was a leading Freemason, and fought gallantly in the Revolutionary war. He killed Lieutenant Governor Wells in 1780, in a duel, and was engaged in several other "affairs of honor," until he finally determined to accept a challenge on such terms as would make it his last duel. So he prescribed, as the terms, that each party, armed with a double barreled gun loaded with buckshot, and with a hunting knife, should row himself in a skiff to designated points on opposite sides of the Savannah River. When the city clock struck 12 each party should start and row his skiff to a small island in the middle of the river, which was wooded and covered with underbrush. On arriving at the island each party was to moor his skiff, stand by it for ten minutes, and then go about on the island till the meeting took place.

The seconds waited on the mainland until after 1 o'clock, when they heard three gunshots and loud and angry cries. Then all was still. At daylight, as had been agreed upon, the seconds went to the island and found Jackson lying on the ground, insensible from the loss of blood, and his antagonist lying across him, dead. Jackson recovered, but would never relate his experience on that night, nor was he ever challenged again. He died in Washington while serving his second term as United States Senator, March 19, 1809.—Ben: Perley Poore's Letter.

Bear Traps for Burglars.

When we were among the Laramie mountains we ran across an old fellow who had a little ranch in one of the parks, but who appeared to give 'most of his time to hunting and trapping.

"I hear there's been another safe robbery down at Cheyenne," he said.

"Yes. I heard something about one," I replied.

"It beats all them fellows down there can't protect their money. You bet the burglars wouldn't grow rich carryin' off my money if I lived there and had packloads of it."

"What's your plan?"

"Bear traps; bin, new bear traps, every time! Nothing like 'em! Sock your money into a box, set your bear trap in front of it, cover it up carefully with newspapers or something, and there you have it. You never seen a burglar carryin' off anybody's money with an 80 pound bear trap bitin' onto his leg, nor nobody else ever did. After a man has shoved his leg into a double-spring bear trap up to the knee, you bet he's mighty glad to see even a sheriff comin'. If these 'ere business men would put less money into time locks an' combinations an' cast iron safes, an' jes' get a good bear and mountain lion trap inside the door every night, you'd see fewer busted storekeepers and more one-legged burglars."—Chicago Tribune.

The president of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, of Dakota, appointed Tuesday, Nov. 1st, as "a day of prayer for God's blessing upon the efforts to carry the counties of Dakota for God and home." She also asks the pastors of churches to offer special prayer, Nov. 6th for the success of prohibition.

It is computed that the death-rate of the world is 67 a minute, and the birth-rate 70 a minute, and this seemingly light percentage of gain is sufficient to give a net increase of population each year of almost 1,200,000 souls.

NAUVOO LEGION! ATTENTION!!

GENERAL ORDERS No. 1:

READ THE PROSPECTUS OF THE CONTRIBUTOR--VOL. NINE.

The NINTH VOLUME of the CONTRIBUTOR commences with the November number, and will present to its readers a variety of ORIGINAL HOME LITERATURE unsurpassed by any previous volume. The leading historical series will be a carefully prepared History of the Nauvoo Legion, by Lieut. Richard W. Young, U. S. A. This military history of our people will include an account of the origin of the Legion, its services in Nauvoo, in the early days of Utah, during the Echo Canyon War, and the Indian troubles; its famous musters and drills, collisions with Federal authorities, disbandment and final repeal of its charter by act of Congress. Numerous and costly engravings of its conspicuous officers will adorn the volume. In addition to which we have had an elegant portrait made of LIEUT.-GENL. JOSEPH SMITH, mounted on his favorite horse "Joe Duncan." This drawing by Mr. John Hafen, is twenty by twenty-five inches and will be beautifully engraved. It is designed to accompany the volume as a memento of the Legion.

The aim of the CONTRIBUTOR has always been to encourage and improve our Home Literature. The new volume will contain matter from the pens of many old friends, including Presidents Wilford Woodruff, Joseph F. Smith, Moses Thatcher, F. M. Lyman, Geo. Reynolds, O. F. Whitney, B. H. Roberts, J. M. Tanner, J. E. Talmage, Emmeline B. Wells, A. J. Crocheron, M. M. Johnson (Ruby Lamont), and others, besides introducing the names of a large number of new writers.

The usual Prizes and Souvenir Medal will be given for a Christmas Story and Poem, and also a Prize for the best Serial Story based upon incidents in the Book of Mormon.

The Association Intelligence Department, under the immediate direction of the General Officers of the Y. M. M. I. A. will receive particular attention and be made as useful as possible to the Associations. Officers are requested to contribute to this department.

Every endeavor will be made to make the Ninth a superior volume, and we confidently hope for its favorable reception by the young men and women of Zion, in whose interests it is especially published and all of whom are invited to write for its columns.

Subscription, per year, $2.00. Subscribers paying $2.50 in advance will receive a copy of the engraving of Lieut.-Genl. Joseph Smith, and may have their volumes bound at the end of the year FREE. Back Volumes for sale $2.50 each.
