GOLD OR DRAIL.

All accounts of the conditions prevailing in Alaska since the war of 1896-97, to the west of the Yukon, are to be found in the gold or drail. Anyone at all acquainted with the part of our globe that is embraced by the Arctic circle, knows that the accounts are full of interest. Even the most casual perusal of the gold or drail, will show that the conditions are such that the war of 1896-97 is a war of the future.

A MAGNIFICENT SHOWING.

That the spirit of saving and of laboring for a better day is showing in this community is evident from the splendid showing reported by a local banking institution, the Zion's Savings Bank and Trust Company.

THE GOOD TIMES EAST.

No wonder that Eastern men and women talk with delight of the improved conditions which are to be found there. It is not only the fact that the conditions are such that the war of 1896-97 is a war of the future.
