

MORE UNCONSTITUTIONAL LAW.

A TELEGRAM from Washington indicates that an attempt at more special legislation for Utah is to be made in the Senate. When Congress undertakes to deprive men of their constitutional rights, because of their belief, whether it be religious, political or otherwise, or to make a religious test as a qualification to serve on a jury, it is placing itself on the low level of those despotic governments in opposition to which American institutions are supposed to stand. The passage of this character is utterly hostile to the spirit and the letter of the supreme law of the land, but when the highest judicial power of the country commences to treat with contempt that sacred instrument, no wonder if Congress, following its example, proceeds to trample upon it as a thing of nought. But all the powers of earth are in the hands of the Mighty One, and He will overrule everything for good to them who fear and obey Him.

POISONED SUGAR AND SYRUP.

There has been a great deal of discussion in the East on the sugar question. It is claimed that the revenue department has been the victim of wholesale fraud, perpetrated by the dealers and importers, and Congress contemplates the passage of a law to remedy this evil. But there is another phase of the subject, possessed of greater interest to the masses, as it bears upon the general health and the general pocket. This is the great adulteration of sugars and syrups, and particularly of the latter. In respect to sugar, it is alleged that glucose—or starch sugar, enters largely into the substance of much that is sold as pure sugar, and that it is impregnated to an injurious extent with muriate of tin and other deleterious ingredients, used in the process of refining. On the other hand there are refiners in a large way of business, who explain that while some of the cheap sugars do contain some glucose, it is perfectly harmless, and that what muriate of tin is used in refining is either entirely eliminated in the process, or, if any remains at all, it is in such infinitesimal quantities as to be entirely innocuous to the consumer.

In regard to the syrups which are placed upon the market, great quantities of which find their way into this Territory, analysis shows that many of them are heavily adulterated, and that they are, in consequence, calculated to produce very ill effects when used to any considerable amount. The papers have recently mentioned several families who have been poisoned by partaking of such syrups.

A can of syrup of which a family named Doty, at Hudson, Michigan, had eaten, and all of whom were poisoned, was submitted to Prof. Kedzie, of the Michigan State Board of Health, and following is his report:

"The syrup was of a light, yellowish-brown color, and looked like a very respectable syrup. It had a decidedly acid reaction with blue litmus paper, turned black when sulphate of ammonium was added to it, and gave a heavy precipitate with iron sulphate.

On analysis I found that the body of the syrup was made of starch sugar (glucose) instead of true sugar. The free sulphuric acid (of 100) the sulphate of iron (copper) and sulpho-saccharate of lime were probably the cause of the sickness in the Doty family."

Professor Kedzie was led by this result to make an examination of several samples of syrups, and the result we give below.

No. 1.—Pure cane sugar syrup.
No. 2.—Starch sugar syrup, contains some sulphate of iron (copper), and contains in each gallon 10.75 grains of lime.

No. 3.—The grocer called it "poor stuff." I have seldom seen an article that better sustained its recommendation; made of starch sugar, contains plenty of copper and 297 grains of lime in a gallon.

No. 4.—Nearly pure cane sugar syrup.
No. 5.—Starch sugar syrup, contains copper and 100 grains of lime in a gallon.

No. 6, 7, 8.—All made of starch sugar, contain sulphate of iron and plenty of lime.

No. 9.—This is the specimen from Hudson which caused the sickness in the Doty family. It contains starch sugar, contains in the gallon 71.33 grains of free sulphuric acid, 23 grains of sulphate of iron, and 363 grains of lime.

No. 10.—Contains starch sugar, copper and lime—amount not estimated.

No. 11.—A starch sugar syrup. Contains in the gallon 141.9 grains of free sulphuric acid, 23 grains sulphate of iron, and 724.33 grains of lime.

No. 12.—Contains starch sugar, seasoned with sulphate of iron and lime.

No. 13.—Starch sugar. Contains in the gallon 55.55 grains of sulphuric acid, 33.14 grains of sulphate of iron, and 440.13 grains of lime.

No. 14.—Starch sugar. Contains in a gallon 59 grains of free sulphuric acid, 69 grains of iron, and 332.45 grains of lime.

No. 15, 16.—Contains starch sugar, sulphate of iron, and lime.

will do well to return to the culture of sorghum and manufacture their own syrup, and also take measures to prove the practicability of making sugar from the beet. Tests will be applied to samples sent to the Agricultural Department at Washington, of beets raised in various localities and on different kinds of soil. By availing themselves of this opportunity, our farmers may learn whether the sugar beet can be cultivated in Utah, containing moisture, a matter of the proper kind for manufacture into sugar, and also whether bench land or bottom land, light soil or heavy soil, is best adapted to the production of this reliable root.

This is a matter of considerable importance to the people of this Territory, and we hope that, during the coming season, some steps will be taken towards testing and proving the capabilities of our soil for the production of beets that can be worked up into pure unadulterated sugar for home use, and that a sufficient breadth of land will be put in with the best kinds of beets, to be worked up after the most approved method, so that no one here need be under the necessity of purchasing poison under the name of clear and genuine syrup.

IDAHO LEGISLATURE.

THE Idaho Legislature experienced considerable difficulty in effecting an organization. The following dispatch from Boise, which appears in the Coast papers, shows that at the date of the telegram affairs were at a dead-lock.

"Boise City (Idaho), January 13.—The members of both houses of the Idaho Legislature met here today, but failed to elect even a temporary organization. The members of the Council met in the Council Chamber at 12 m. precisely, when they were organized by Hon. James H. Hawley, Chief Clerk of the Council at the previous session. An effort on the part of the Republican members to proceed to a temporary organization was defeated by the refusal of the chief clerk to call the roll of members claiming seats by virtue of their credentials, which were certificates of election from the County Boards and from the Secretary of the Territory. As there was no other business, the session adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

The Council stands seven Republicans to six Democrats, and the House stands six Democrats to five Republicans. The session of the Council at 12 m. was adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

The House stands seven Republicans to six Democrats, and the session of the House at 12 m. was adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

The House stands seven Republicans to six Democrats, and the session of the House at 12 m. was adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

The House stands seven Republicans to six Democrats, and the session of the House at 12 m. was adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

The House stands seven Republicans to six Democrats, and the session of the House at 12 m. was adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

The House stands seven Republicans to six Democrats, and the session of the House at 12 m. was adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

The House stands seven Republicans to six Democrats, and the session of the House at 12 m. was adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

The House stands seven Republicans to six Democrats, and the session of the House at 12 m. was adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

The House stands seven Republicans to six Democrats, and the session of the House at 12 m. was adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

The House stands seven Republicans to six Democrats, and the session of the House at 12 m. was adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

The House stands seven Republicans to six Democrats, and the session of the House at 12 m. was adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

The House stands seven Republicans to six Democrats, and the session of the House at 12 m. was adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

The House stands seven Republicans to six Democrats, and the session of the House at 12 m. was adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

The House stands seven Republicans to six Democrats, and the session of the House at 12 m. was adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

The House stands seven Republicans to six Democrats, and the session of the House at 12 m. was adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

The House stands seven Republicans to six Democrats, and the session of the House at 12 m. was adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

The House stands seven Republicans to six Democrats, and the session of the House at 12 m. was adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

The House stands seven Republicans to six Democrats, and the session of the House at 12 m. was adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

The House stands seven Republicans to six Democrats, and the session of the House at 12 m. was adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

The House stands seven Republicans to six Democrats, and the session of the House at 12 m. was adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

The House stands seven Republicans to six Democrats, and the session of the House at 12 m. was adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

The House stands seven Republicans to six Democrats, and the session of the House at 12 m. was adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

The House stands seven Republicans to six Democrats, and the session of the House at 12 m. was adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

The House stands seven Republicans to six Democrats, and the session of the House at 12 m. was adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

The House stands seven Republicans to six Democrats, and the session of the House at 12 m. was adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

The House stands seven Republicans to six Democrats, and the session of the House at 12 m. was adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

The House stands seven Republicans to six Democrats, and the session of the House at 12 m. was adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

States Circuit Court. When the process had thus been returned to the State Court, the judge of the latter instantly issued a writ of attachment for the bodies of Mayer and Turner, and directed their commitment for contempt.

The Cottage Committee.

The committee on cottage has agreed upon three bills, which Chairman Stephens is authorized to report to the House when the session is called. The first is to redeem trade dollars at par and recoin them into the standard silver dollar. The second provides for the redemption of subsidiary silver coins and their re-coining into legal tender dollars. The third is intended to equalize the double metal standard by making it 16 oz. of silver to 1 oz. of gold, instead of 15 to 1 as at present. The report on the metric system upon which this committee has been working for some time, will be ready on Wednesday, and will be presented to the House as soon as possible. It is very comprehensive, and is designed not only to give an authentic history of this system, but to furnish the proper and accurate data for reference.

Census of Democratic Senators.

The democratic senators in caucus today agreed upon a substitute for Edmunds' resolution declaring the 13th, 14th and 15th amendments equally valid with the other amendments to the Constitution. The substitute, while recognizing the binding force of the amendments named, regards Senator Edmunds' resolution as proposing legislative action in conflict with decisions of the Supreme Court, particularly in the Crockett case, holding that the Constitution does not confer the right to vote on any one, but simply confers the privilege of being heard in the Senate.

Financial Bill.

The financial bill introduced in the Senate, to-day, by Cottrell, provides among other things, for the retirement and cancellation of all outstanding legal tender national bank notes, and issue in their place, Treasury notes, redeemable in coin at the pleasure of the United States and receivable in payment of all government dues, and except such obligations as are expressly payable in coin by statute; it also proposes to make these new notes interchangeable with the standard silver dollar, to require the Secretary of the Treasury to pay silver dollars in redemption of government bonds in the exercise of his rightful option for the benefit of the people.

Westminster.

The President has nominated Wm. G. Thompson, of Iowa, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Idaho.

The Census.

The Senate and House sub-committee on the census, in a joint meeting, to-day, substantially agreed upon all the main features in the bill introduced by Representative Wm. G. Thompson, of Iowa, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Idaho.

The Four Per Cent. Loan.

The subscriptions to the four per cent. loan, to-day, was $9,955,350.

Sent to Jail.

BALTIMORE, 20.—Wm. Robinson, judge of the circuit, at the late congressional election, pleaded guilty to assaulting a deputy United States marshal, and Judge Bond fined him $500 and sent him to the City Jail for four months.

Archbishop Purcell's Financial Troubles.

CINCINNATI, 20.—An effort will be made to adjust the financial troubles of Archbishop Purcell, which have been creating considerable excitement among the Catholics of this city by placing a large portion of the church property of the diocese in the hands of five trustees, who will be paid, payable at will, after three years and within twenty, the bonds to bear five per cent. interest. It is expected that these bonds will be taken largely by those who have deposited money with the Archbishop. It is now ascertained that his liabilities will reach half a million dollars. In the meantime strenuous efforts are being made to have the Pope decline to receive his resignation.

The Republican Party.

Platt, of Connecticut, nominated for senator, said, in a speech before his nomination: "My ideas about hard money are that the time is fast approaching when the center of world's trade will be in the United States. We ought to deal in the world's money. I do not know that I can give my financial views in a few minutes, but I believe in hard money. I believe in the republican party because I believe the party has the best interests of the nation at heart, and the people at heart; that is why I am a republican. I believe I ever cast was for Martin Van Buren."

A Tariff Association.

The insurance companies here are endeavoring to establish a tariff association to assure better rates. A similar movement is being made in Boston.

Another Scow.

The Senate committee on Judiciary has agreed to report defining piracy in practicing or believing in polygamy, shall be disqualified from performing jury duty.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.
The U. S. Frigate "Constitution."

LONDON, 20.—Captain Badger, of the United States frigate "Constitution," says: Judging from the time he had sailed, he supposed he was 22 miles from the English coast when his straits. He believes that he must have been carried out of his reckoning by the current. After getting about, the ship had a narrow escape, as the two ropes broke when passing the Needles. One of the Constitution's boats capsized near Cowes, and the two occupants were rescued with difficulty.

Reduction of Wages.

Six cotton mills, at Preston, run by 250,000 spindles, have given notice of a reduction of wages from 5 to 10 per cent.

Aiding Emigrants.

The North Wales Miners' Association has resolved to vote 27 to every member of the union who emigrates to America, and 214 to emigrate to Australia.

tion by the Duke of Cumberland of his right to Hanover in return for the cession of northern Schleswig to him.

Recommending.

A dispatch from Candahar reports that Generals Stewart and Huddell are recommending towards Khelat Ghalzai, on the road to Herat.

A Lock-Out.

Six engineering firms, at Huddersfield, locked-out their workmen for refusing to consent to an extension of three hours' labor.

British Officers Attacked.

CANDAHAR, 20.—Major St. John, of the British army, was fired upon in the streets by a fanatic native, but not wounded. The man was arrested. A lieutenant of the Royal Artillery was severely, and two soldiers slightly, stabbed by a zealot.

Swampish Affairs.

QUEENSTOWN, 20.—The steamship Oberon, from New Orleans for Liverpool, went ashore in a gale in the White Bay, entering this harbor. The vessel had previously lost her proper equipment and cargo.

The Glasgow Bank Directors' Trial.

EDINBURGH, 20.—The trial of the directors of the City of Glasgow Bank is proceeding. The prisoners are charged with fraud and embezzlement. The court room is densely crowded.

Stocks.

Consols, 90; bonds, new five, 108; Erie, 22.

Bank Withdrawals.

Ballion withdrawn from the Bank of England on balance, to-day, is $4,000.

FRANCE.

VEZES, 20.—The public galleries and lobbies of the house are densely crowded. The republican left has prepared two orders of the day, one expressing confidence in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are satisfactory, and the other, expressing want of confidence should the ministerial statement appear insufficient. These orders are entrusted to Jules Ferry. The feeling among the republican majority is that the cabinet must be reformed in the ministry, to be brought forward if the declarations of Dufaure are