

BAT IS GOOD BOY SAYS HIS FATHER

Sire of Light-weight Champion
Spends a Few Hours in Salt Lake.

FAMILY IS ON EASY STREET.

One Boy Is Studying Medicine at Berkeley, Other in a Military School
In Illinois.

Salt Lake visitors for a few hours today were Niels Nelson and Arthur Nelson, father and brother, respectively, of Battling Nelson, the champion lightweight of the world who would also have been here, but for a telegram that awaited him at Ogden upon arrival of the trio from the west. The dispatch was from Chicago, and in it "Bat" Nelson was requested to be in the Windy City at the earliest possible moment. The recipient took the earliest train east-bound out of Ogden, leaving his father and brother to pay Salt Lake a brief visit.

Mr. Nelson, Sr., is probably 60 years of age, but is very well preserved, looking scarcely more than 50. The natural color of his mustache is light, and through it run occasional streaks of gray. He speaks with a slightly foreign accent.

"Yes, I saw the fight in which my son regained the championship of the world, in his class," said Mr. Nelson today at the Kenyon.

"And I tell you he would have fixed Gans good and plenty had it not been for hurting his hand so early in the fight," broke in Nelson Jr., who is 17 years of age.

Father and son spoke enthusiastically of the last fight engaged in by the son and brother, the elder observing that "Bat" did not get much out of the affair other than glory. He said "Bat's" share was probably not more than $8,000, this sum representing about six-sevenths of the amount taken in at the gates.

BAT IS A GOOD SON.

"Bat" is a good boy," said Mr. Nelson, in answer to a question as to whether it was true that his son used to help his parents, brothers and sisters. "He puts his money to good use, and does the best he can for us all." Mr. Nelson explained that the family consisted of three sons, a daughter and eight children. There are seven boys ranging in age from 21 downward. The eldest is Albert, a machinist in Chicago. "Bat" is next, 17 years of age. June 5 last, Charlie, aged 12, is studying medicine at Berkeley, and was the fourth member of the family present at the late fight in San Francisco.

HARRY NEEDS DISCIPLINE.
Harry, aged 13, was recently placed in a military school at Quincy, Ill., by his father. Asked whether he intended to make a soldier of his son, Mr. Nelson replied: "I don't know as to that, but there is splendid discipline and training at that school, and the boy was running around a little too much. The only daughter of the family is 19 years old, and is at home."

Mr. Nelson, who by the way, spells his name on the hotel register as "Nelson," is a dealer in real estate in his home town, Hegewisch, Ill., a few miles from Chicago. When asked how his name should appear on the hotel card, he replied: "Well, for the hotel clerk, Nelson is proper, but you"—indicating the reporter—"may spell it 'Nelson'."

HOW TO AVOID APPENDICITIS.

Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orin's Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels, and restores the natural action of the bowels. Orin's Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. For sale by F. J. Hill Drug Co., "The Never Substitutors."

DISTANCE WAS DECEPTIVE.

Two Visiting Carpenters Take a Walk To Reach the Mountains.

Two visiting carpenters got lost Tuesday evening. They were deceived by the clear atmosphere into believing that the mountains were only a few steps away, and started up a creek. They walked and walked until they got tired without reaching the mountains, and then started to return. They got mixed up in the darkness, and spent the night in the brush. Yesterday morning they turned up somewhat weary, but very much wiser as to estimating distances in this country. The parties were Thomas E. Flynn and John H. Robinson of north Chicago.

WARD AWARDED DAMAGE

Twenty-second Ecclesiastical Section
Gets $4,000 Judgment on the Oregon Short Line Railroad.

A jury in Judge Ritchie's court has awarded a verdict in favor of plaintiff for $4,000 in the case of the Twenty-second ward corporation of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints against the Oregon Short Line Railroad company. The jury was out three hours. The case has been on trial about two weeks. Plaintiff asked for $10,000 damages, alleging that the building was rendered useless for worshipping purposes by the constant passage of trains, switch engines, etc. The chapel is situated at Third North street near the kind of the Oregon Short Line maintains 14 tracks and spurs running by the meetinghouse, and the noise of passing trains drowned the voice of speakers and made it impossible to hear speaking or singing. The ward Sunday school, it was alleged, was almost broken up by the noise.

MRS. GRANT SEEKS DIVORCE.

Lavinia S. Grant has filed suit in the Third district court to divorce from her husband, J. Grant, who she says has a violent and uncontrollable temper. She asks also for the restoration of her maiden name of Salsbury. Mrs. Grant complains that besides abusing her in various ways, Grant has been in the habit of leaving home and remaining away without letting her know where he was. The last occasion of the kind, July 12, 1908, he left home and said he would never come back. The couple were married in Salt Lake City, March 1, 1904, and there are no children. The complaint is accompanied by a certificate waiving defendant's right to plead or contest the case.

THEY TAKE THE KINKS OUT.

ATTACKED FOREMAN.

Angered because he had been discharged Charles Parpich made a most vicious attack yesterday upon the man responsible for his release, Sidney Hawkins was the victim, and but for the timely arrival of assistance the latter would doubtless have been choked to death. The trouble occurred at Murray, where both men were engaged at a smelter. Hawkins as foreman of one of the floors, and Parpich as laborer. The first part of the evening was devoted to the rendition of a program, consisting of fancy dances, a representation of the Norwegian marriage festival, "Loves Young Dream" was again performed. The entertainment wound up with dancing for all present. Two evening performances are yet to come, with a matinee Saturday afternoon.

HOW TO GET STRONG.

P. J. Daly, 1247 W. Congress St., Chicago, tells of a way to become strong. He says: "My mother, who is old and was very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters, that I feel it my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh has resulted, insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger." Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee at Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept., 112-114 south Main street, 50c.

CURED HAY FEVER AND SUMMER COLD.

A. J. Nusbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and I took several medicines which seemed to only aggravate my condition. I finally resorted to having Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package, and it quickly cured me. I have since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." For sale by F. J. Hill Drug Co., "The Never Substitutors."

AMUSEMENTS.

Theater—Tonight sees the opening of "The Squaw Man" engagement with Mr. Dustin Farnum in the title role. The same bill will run up until Saturday night with the customary matinee.

Orpheum—In spite of the rain last night, a big house was in attendance and the popular features, especially the dance scene, and the singing and dancing by Miss Barry again caught the fancy of the house. One of the features not the least enjoyable, was the "Madam Butterfly" selection by Mr. Velthe's orchestra, which was also greatly applauded.

Grand—The final chances to see the present stock company in "Under Two Flags" will occur tonight, tomorrow night and Saturday afternoon and evening. Miss Keating was indisposed last night and her place in the bill was taken by Miss Slensky, who had a recall for her clever work.

Lyric—A complete change of bill goes on Saturday afternoon. In the meantime the cameraphone is drawing large audiences.

Majestic—The Yellowstone Hold-up continues the popular feature at this house, and will run through the remainder of the week.
