

JAPANESE MINISTER AT WHITE HOUSE

Object of Visit Unknown, but Probably Was for Purpose of Talking Peace Negotiations.

PRESIDENT MUCH INTERESTED.

Mr. Takahira Says: "Ask Russia, Not
Japan, if the Hour of Peace
Has Arrived."

Washington, May 29.—Quick to realize the far-reaching effect of Admiral Rojdestvensky's disastrous defeat in the Korean straits and in keeping with his promise announced a long time ago to do all in his power to bring the belligerents in the war to direct negotiations at the proper time, President Roosevelt tonight received by special appointment Mr. Takahira, the Japanese minister, and a conference followed for the greater part of the evening.

Mr. Takahira called at the White House shortly after 9 o'clock this evening and was immediately received. Earlier in the day the minister had called and left for the president the report of the battle later given out at the legation.

Mr. Mortimer Dandridge, the British ambassador, who is just back from London, where he was received by the king, May 15, will lunch with the president on Wednesday, when the whole situation will be thoroughly discussed. Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, said tonight that he expected to see the president before the week is over, and Baron Stenberg, the German ambassador, who was early at the Russian embassy today, where he remained for some time in conference with the ambassador, is constantly in touch with the president. Through his intimate acquaintance with Mr. Roosevelt he is at liberty to call at any time.

The German ambassador is observing a discreet silence, but is thoroughly posted in both the Russian and Japanese points of view as represented here, and stands ready to give the president all the assistance possible. The result of the conference at the White House tonight could not be obtained at a late hour, but it is understood the minister has been fully apprised of the president's official advice of the overwhelming character of the Japanese victory.

The promptness with which Washington has been able to furnish the world with the first news of the great battle is due primarily to the information conveyed to the American diplomatic, consular and naval officials abroad that the president desired prompt and full details of the impending naval battle at the earliest possible moment.

The conference of Mr. Takahira at the White House tonight was not generally known here. At the White House the conference was held in the evening, the minister was only expressed that President Roosevelt would undoubtedly lead the neutral nations in the effort to bring about peace. In tonight's conference it is thought that the president's first object will be to ascertain on what basis Japan can discuss the question of peace.

THE AMERICAN GIRL.

How She Keeps Beautiful.

Like a flower that blooms in the spring the young girl just budding into womanhood is an inspiring sight and she is usually beautiful if she is perfectly healthy. She stays beautiful just so long as her health and constitution remain good. Let her be nervous, have backache, sleepless nights, and how soon does it take for wrinkles, crow's feet and dark circles to appear in the face? Her cheeks were rosy until she began to suffer from woman's weaknesses and the constantly recurring pains and drains brought her quickly from the beautiful age to the premature middle age. It was not meant for women to suffer so—it is due to our unnatural, but civilized methods of living, and to the fact that so many neglect those small ills which soon lead up to larger ones. Nothing so drags a woman down as those constantly recurring periods when she suffers more from a chronic condition that can be easily cured. No woman should take an alcoholic compound for that will disturb digestion, and the food is quickly compacted and becomes hard and tough in contact with alcohol, rendering the food indigestible. She must go to nature for a cure. The native Indians of early times were far from wrong when they called a marvellously effective medicinal plant "Squaw root"—what the physicians of our day called Caulophyllum or Blue Cohosh. This root, and another, which the Indians called "Rattlesnake root," are important ingredients of a wonderfully successful remedy in modern times, namely, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Having made a specialty of the diseases of women in the early sixties Dr. Pierce soon found that a non-alcoholic extract of these roots with hyaloid or Golden Seal and Lady's Slipper root, combined in just the right proportions, made the very best tonic and cure for the distressing complaint of women. Where women suffered from backache, nervousness and lack of sleep, it was usually due to functional trouble, therefore this prescription directed at the cause cured 98 per cent. of such cases. That is why Dr. Pierce soon put it up in a form easily to be procured all over the United States.

The best known remedy in all America for the following symptoms: Aching from head to foot—that is the condition that afflicts some women at stated periods—backache, dizziness, and pains almost unbearable is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—a honest and a safe remedy which no woman can afford to lose the opportunity of trying for the cure of those distressing complaints which weaken a woman's vitality. Dr. Pierce not only assures you that his "Favorite Prescription" is honestly made, but he lets you know just what it contains. It is now nearly Count Cassini, while naturally greatly depressed at the loss of life, expressed belief that when fuller details came in it would be found that Admiral Rojdestvensky's defeat will be the heaviest of defeat. Much as I should welcome an end of the war for some reasons, my belief is that the effect of Rojdestvensky's defeat will be the heaviest of defeat. Fruit Standard Commission.

Chicago, May 29.—The United States fruit standard commission, created by an act of Congress to work in conjunction with the commission on food standards and to promote the sale of pure food products, held a meeting here today. An attempt is being made to define adulteration in relation to the various fruits and fruit products placed on sale in the United States. Several large fruit growers of California, among them Philo Harvey of San Jose, were before the commission the greater part of today's session.

International Agricultural Congress.

Rome, May 29.—The first working session of the international congress called to discuss the proposal of the king, made at the instigation of David Lubin of Sacramento, Cal., to establish an international chamber of agriculture, took place this afternoon at the Cornelia palace in the presence of the diplomatic corps and all the delegates. Foreign Minister Tittoni delivered a speech, welcoming the delegates and outlining the object of the congress. The congress adjourned until Tuesday, when the discussion of the king's proposition will begin.

Mr. Lubin was not present at today's session of the congress, as he is not a delegate.

No Ball for Burton.

Goldfield, Nev., May 29.—Justice of the Peace Reed today refused to accept Messrs. Redmond and Stein on the bail of Francis Burton, who is accused of being connected with the collapse of the justice fixed Burton's bail at $15,000 and that of J. B. Young, former president of the bank, at $5,000.

forty years since he put up this prescription in a form to be easily obtained at every drug store. Previous to that time Dr. Pierce practiced medicine. HOW TOGO WENT INTO ACTION.

Informed of Approach of Russian
Fleet by Wireless Signals
From His scouts.

ATTACKED FLANK PORT COLUMN

Then Repeated Torpedo Attacks Were Made—He Gives a Modest Account.

London, May 29.—According to the correspondent of the Daily Mail at Seoul, Korea, today, early on Saturday morning Vice Admiral Togo, with practically all the powerful fighting ships of the Japanese navy, was at Masanpoh, Korea, when wireless signals from his scouts between Togo and Quelpart islands announced the approach of the Russian fleet in full force.

A few hours later the scouts reported that the Russians were not ascending the western channel, as had been anticipated, but that they were coming up the eastern channel, which caused some surprise. Admiral Togo immediately steamed at full speed around the north of Taido, and when he doubled the island he saw the Russians coming in two columns. He then brought a terrific fire to bear on the flank of the port column, and as the Russians fell into disorder he forced them steadily eastward toward the Japanese coast, where they were attacked by every vessel that flew the Japanese flag.

Repeated torpedo attacks were directed at the Russian fleet with great success. The vessels which escaped the correspondent says, probably will be able to reach Vladivostok, and he adds that other operations of the fleet must be proceeding.

TOGO'S STORY OF FIGHT.

Tokyo, May 29, 3:30 a. m.—Admiral Togo's brief report thus far received by wireless is as follows: "The first report, received on the morning of May 27, immediately on receipt of the report that the Russian fleet had been sighted, was: 'Our combined fleet is now going into action. The weather is clear, but the sea is rough.'"

The second report, received on the night of May 27, was: "Today, near Okinoshima (southeast of Tsushima), we attacked the enemy's squadron, causing it heavy damage. At least four Russian ships were sunk and others were heavily damaged. Our damage is slight. Our destroyer and torpedo boat flotillas commenced an attack after sunset."

Third report, received Monday morning, May 28: "The main strength of our combined fleet continued the attack since the 27th, and on the 28th, near Liancourt Rocks, encountered the enemy, consisting of the Nikolai I, Orel, Senyavin, Apraxine, Chatschepin, and the Liancourt (cruiser). We attacked. The Liancourt fled the line of battle and all the others soon surrendered. We suffered no damage."

The prisoners taken state that the Russian ships sunk in the battle on the 27th were the Borodino, Alexander III (battleship), Jemchoug (protected cruiser), and three others. The prisoners taken include Rear Admiral Nakhodoff and 2,000 other Russians."

Other official reports received besides Togo's show that two battleships were captured, two sunk, five armored cruisers captured, one sunk, five unarmored cruisers captured, one transport captured, two sunk, one destroyer captured, three sunk.

Whether the three ships that the prisoners report as having been sunk are included in this list, is not yet known. There are a thousand more prisoners besides those taken by the main force of Togo's combined fleet.

NO GRAFT IN JAPAN.

So Says Prest. David Starr Jordan of Stanford.

Chicago, May 29.—"Graft is a thing entirely unknown in Japan," said David Starr Jordan, president of Leland Stanford University, last night, addressed one of the meetings preliminary to the regular sessions of the congress of religion.

Jordan, "that in the present war not $100 of Japanese war funds has been stolen. On the other hand I presume that not one dollar in 10, if one in 100, on the side of the Russians ever reached its proper destination."

Of only one dishonest Japanese while in the country, and he was one whose morals had been contaminated by residence abroad.

Dr. Jordan's lecture was largely upon Shintoism, the chief religion in Japan, which, he said, was not ancestor worship but the spirit of living; that ancestors would not be ashamed of their descendants.

GIFT FOR TOGO.

Will be Made by the Japanese
Of New York.

New York, May 29.—A gift probably in the form of a silver and gold loving cup will be sent Admiral Togo within a few days by the Japanese residents of this city. This has been decided on at a meeting of the admirals' countrymen held in connection with the proposed plan for a big celebration of the sea victory, to take place some night this week. Carnegie hall probably will be chosen for the meeting. A minor celebration will be held Thursday evening at the Japanese clubhouse in Eighty-fifth street, when a reception will be tendered to Baron Kaneko and K. Takahashi. The latter, who floated the recent government loan, will leave soon for Japan.

Business among the Japanese commercial houses is almost suspended, while the victory of Togo is celebrated. "If peace is declared," said Mr. Takahashi, "it is likely another large loan will be floated to take up the present loan at a cheaper rate of interest. The first loans were made on a per centage basis, the second loan at 4 1/2 per cent, and I believe a cheaper rate of interest can be had."

Supreme Court Adjourns.

Washington, May 29.—The United States supreme court has adjourned for the term, all pending cases being continued to the next term, which will begin Oct. 2 next.

BABY'S AWFUL ITCHING ECZEMA

Sores All Over Face and Body—
Could Not Tell What She Looked Like—Unable to Sleep—Grew
Worse Under Doctors.

CURED BY CUTICURA IN ONE MONTH

A grateful mother, in the following letter, tells of another of those marvelous cures by Cuticura: "When my baby was four months old her skin broke out with a humor. I took her to a doctor, who said it was eczema. He gave me medicine to give her, but she kept getting worse all the time. Her little face and body were so covered with sores and large scales you could not tell what she looked like. No child ever had a worse case. Her face was being eaten away, and even her finger nails fell off. Then it itched so she could not sleep, and for many weary nights we could get no rest. At last we got Cuticura Soap and Ointment, first bathing her in warm water with the Soap, and then spreading on the Ointment with soft cloths. I saw a change in a week. The sores began to heal, and she could sleep at night, and in one month she had not one sore on her face or body. Any mother having children with eczema or humors will find a friend in Cuticura Soap and Ointment. (signed) Mrs. Mary Sanders, 709 Spring St., Camden, N. J., Aug. 14, 1904."

The foregoing statement justifies the oft-repeated assertion that Cuticura Soap and Ointment afford instant relief, and permit sleep for baby and rest for tired mothers, and points to a speedy, permanent, and economical cure, when all else fails, in the most torturing, disfiguring, itching, burning, bleeding, scaly, crusted, and pimply skin and scalp humors.

Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are sold throughout the world. Price 25c per box. Sold by Druggists and Dealers.
