INNOCENT MAN KILLED IN AUSTRIAN FEUD WAR.

Chicago, June 25 .- A feud in the Aus trian colony at Thornton, IL, resulted yesterday in a fight which waged up and down the main sirest of the town for an hour and ended in the killing of one man and the injury of many others.

Peter Hendricks, a laborer on the town roadway, was the innocent victim of the race war. The man who shot him gave the name of John Stienucz, a laborer in a stonequarry. Ed-ward Goening, a nightwatchman in the guarry works, was probably fatally in-

The fight started in a saloon, headquarters of the Austrians employed n the stone works. There had been a strife among these men and an outbreak was expected.

Goening, it is expected, started the immediate trouble by trying to break up a celebration which the Austrian-were having in the saloon.

The men were seated in crowls around the tables, drinking and singing. The entrance of Geening was the signal for an uprising. Bottles cracked overhead and knives were drawn. The fighters surged into the back yard of the saloon, and then spread into the street. Stienucz secured a revolver and ed a small hand of men down the main streat.

The street of people had gathered and Stiencer began shooling at them. Hen-dricks was in the front rank of the spectators, and fell dead at the first velley. This so enraged the crowd that an immediate attempt was made to lynch Steinucz. He was surrounded and beaten on the head with beer hot-ties. When the police rescued him he was unconscious. He and four of the rioters were looked up.
