

AT HOME AND ABROAD.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 23.—A special to the Beaumont Osceola says: The Osceola whitecaps, who whipped two girls Saturday night, who were supposed to be of easy virtue, were arraigned this morning and pleaded not guilty. The cases were continued till November 20th, on recognizance of $200 each.

ROANOKE, Va., Oct. 23.—The grand jury summoned to investigate the riot on September 20th and 21st, made a report this afternoon. Nineteen indictments were found.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—Sunday night the Idaho section in the mines and mining building was robbed of a silver brick weighing eighty-six pounds, seven hundred carats of rough opals, thirty-two carats of polished ones, two large cut rubies and seventeen rubies in the rough. The whole was valued at about $8000, and the state is under bonds to the extent of $22,000.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 23.—A prize fight to a finish with bare knuckles, between Charles Johnson of California and Wiley Evans of Indianapolis, occurred several miles out in the country at a late hour tonight. It is not known who won the fight, but the train is on its return trip to this city at 8 a. m. The entire police force is on duty, and will arrest the fighters and all the spectators when they arrive in the city.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 24.—A strike on all the street car lines of the city was precipitated without warning this morning as a result of the discharge of two employees. Police were sent to the car bars to preserve order and many old employees returned to work after two hours' tie up, though two lines are still unmanned.

LANSING, Mich., Oct. 24.—The act of the last legislature permitting women to vote at municipal elections was declared unconstitutional by the supreme court this morning.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich. Oct. 24.—Dr. Sweetland of Edwardsburg, Mich., has identified one of the ladies from the Grand Trunk wreck as that of his sister Mrs. Eveline Eldrich, and the body was shipped to that place last night.

Now J. D. Wood of Catelena, N. Y., telegraphs that the body is that of his wife. Both have identified the body by the clothing and both are equally positive. The remains will be brought back here. It is thought legal proceedings to get possession of it may be necessary.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 24.—At 12:30 Senator Harris, acting for the silver-Democrats, informed the silver-Republicans that the Democrats had concluded, after taking all the circumstances into consideration, that their best course was to drop the fight against repeal and allow it to come to a vote.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—The news of the surrender of the silver men in the Senate was received in Wall street about 2 o'clock. It found the market with a strong upward tendency, which became a rush, resulting in decided advances.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 24.—Almost the final act in the appointment of the receivers of the Union Pacific occurred yesterday in the state court of Texas, when Morgan Jones and John D. Moore were appointed receivers for the Fort Worth & Denver City Railway, the Panhandle Railway company and the Fort Worth & Denver Terminal company.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 24.—The petitions for the pardon of Hugh F. Dempsey and Robert Beatty, convicted of poisoning non-union men at Homestead during the great strike of last year, were taken up by the board of pardons at Harrisburg today, and after considerable consideration were refused. Another effort will be made by the executive board of the Knights of Labor to secure Dempsey's release.

CAPE TOWN, Oct. 24.—The diplomatic side of the Matabele war has been developed in a dispute between the British officials in South Africa. The indications now are that the imperial government will take a vigorous hold of the whole affair.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 24.—At Clayton today the trial was called of the train robbers Pinnock, Ray and Robertson, who held up the 'Frisco train near Pacific. Robertson pleaded not guilty, and was held under $10,000 bonds. Pinnock and Ray entered pleas of guilty, and were sentenced to fourteen years' imprisonment.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 24.—A Tribune special from Lake Crystal, Minn., says: Joseph McCormick, claiming to be one of the slayers of Euter Penrose of Butte, Mont., surrendered himself today. He says he is tired of eluding the authorities.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Governor Hughes, Ariz., who is in Washington, has concluded negotiations with responsible representatives for the establishment in the territory of a large colony of European agriculturists, viti-culturists, fruitgrowers, silk weavers, cotton spinners and mechanics. The agents of the colony will join Governor Hughes at Tucson in November and complete the selection of lands and immediately afterward an advance guard of 200 will be brought on to dig irrigation ditches and prepare quarters for the remainder who will follow as rapidly as they can be utilized.

BELFAST, Oct. 24.—The Ulster parliament assembled today to take measures to resist home rule. The meeting of parliament roused a great deal of interest in the city. The streets were crowded with people and the neighborhood of Ulster hall packed to the utmost by people desirous of witnessing the assembling of the anti-home rule delegates.

The sitting was conducted in private, but it transpired that the duke of Abercorn was unanimously elected president, after which the national anthem was sung amid great enthusiasm.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—A Herald's Valparaiso dispatch says: The volcano on Mount Calbuco has again become active. The streets of Orsano are filled with ashes. Traffic is almost stopped by them. Great alarm exists among the residents.

MADRID, Oct. 24.—A bundle containing dynamite and supposed to be ready for explosion was found today on the train at Logrono, near Burgos, upon which General Campos and son were passengers. The life of General Campos was recently attempted by Pallas, the anarchist, who was afterward executed.

MADRID, Oct. 24.—The United States warship Bennington arrived off Melilla today and exchanged salutes with the batteries. The American commander landed and paid his respects to the Spanish authorities. The Spaniards made a sortie from Melilla today, and destroyed the Moorish trenches.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—Gwinne R. Tompkins, the owner of the Cloverdale stable of race horses, and his wife, Elizabeth, of Washington City, are both well-known turf writers. In fact, Mrs. Tompkins is known on two continents as one of the most effective writers on turf events. Three weeks ago she left Washington with her little son to visit her parents in St. Louis. On the 16th inst. she left there for Chicago to see the Fair. Then she dropped out of sight. The utmost affection existed between the couple and as the days passed without the customary letters from her, Tompkins became alarmed and hastened here to hunt her. His search was unavailing. In the meantime from the tone of letters and telegrams from his mother in Washington he became convinced she had heard from the missing woman and that something was wrong. Sleeplessness and anxiety so preyed on his mind that yesterday in the press club rooms he suffered a paralytic stroke rendering him speechless. He is now lying mute at death's door in the hospital.

A correspondent of a local paper in Washington found Tompkins's mother. She admitted having received a letter from her son's wife dated at Baltimore, but declined to reveal its contents, saying only that Mrs. Tompkins and child are in Baltimore and she intends to keep her address a secret, intimating that she could not be found. The mystery is as deep as ever.

LYONS, Oct. 25.—Over two hundred thousand strangers are in the city to assist in welcoming the Russian sailors on their way to Toulon from Paris. The city is legally decorated. It is expending large sums for the entertainment of the visitors. It was with utmost difficulty that the police kept the way clear for the Russians on the way from the station to the town hall. Many enthusiastic men and women broke through the lines and at the risk of their necks rushed on to the curriages and kissed the hands extended by the Russian officers, while the multitude kept up a continual fire of cheers for the czar of Russia. The visitors were overwhelmed with presents, including twelve most exquisite dresses for the czarina, quantities of French and Russian flags of the finest silk and 500 silk handkerchiefs to be distributed among the Russian sailors.

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 25.—The second section of the Chicago limited on the Pennsylvania railroad was wrecked near Lawrence station shortly after 6 o'clock tonight by running into a derailed freight train. Five unknown tramps who were stealing a ride on the freight train were killed, and another,