LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS. SPLENDID COMEDY BILL. -The celebrat ed Nathan Juvenile troupe will commence

a six nights' engagement at the Theatre this evening, when a splendid comedy bill will be presented. The Nathan juveniles will appear in "Andy Blake," and "Paddy in India," after which the farce of "Larkin's Love Letters" will be played by the stock company. Lovers of fun, attend the Theatre to-night, and have a feast. A GRM OF AN ALMANACK.-If you want a gem of an almanack for 1872, just examine Frank Leslie's Illustrated, and if that does not meet your taste, it would be very difficult to please you. It is a perfect jewel in the almanack line. Its illustrations are beautiful, and it contains a heap of information and interesting reading matter. It is for sale at Dwyer's Rallway News

BEAR LAKE. . . Frozen Feet. - The Snow-bound Party. PARIS, Dec. 13 .- Wm. Foster, at St.

Charles, froze his feet very severely in coming from Cache Valley, via Soda Springs. There are no tidings yet from the party who went to assist the snow-bound party at Blacksmiths' Fork. The road is broke and good.

OBSEQUES .- The funeral services of Mrs. Alice B. Margetts, mother of Phillip and Richard Margetta, Esqrs., of this city, transpired at 1 p. m. to-day, at the resi-dence of Mr. P. Margetts. Elder James S. Brown officiated.

INFORMATION wanted of David Grundy, who emigrated to Utah from Wigan, Lancashire, in 1853, and was residing in Springville when last heard from. Address-William Sixsmith, Withington Lane, Aspen, near Wigan, Lancashire, - Mill. Star.

IN THE WRONG PLACE, - The sentence at the end of our leader yesterday, by compositoria; inadvertence, was placed where it never was intended to be, and where it had no relevance to the article.

ENGLAND. - We have been favored with the perusal of a letter from Elder George Reynolds to Elder 'A. Carrington, dated Liverpool, Nov. 25th, which states that Elders A. W. Carlson, of the Liverpool office, and Brigham W. Carrington, left Liverpool, per steamer Wisconsin, Nov. 22, for New York. Elder Reynolds says that Elder Haws was well nursed in his sickness, every care was taken of him, and the Saints did all they possibly could for his comfort and recovery. His remains were interred in Darten Churchyard, at 4 p.m., on Wednesday, Nov. 22.

By letter from Elder Carlson to Elder Carrington we learn that he and Elder B. of money and a check on one of the City Banks. W. Carrington arrived at New York, Dec. The owner will find it at this Office 6, both well, but after a rough and cold passage. They expected to leave New York Dec. 9, and to arrive in this city on or about the 18th. Bro. C. Mathews, of Panacca, Meadow Valley, accompanied them across

THE ARRESTS YESTERDAY, -- In our not co of the arrest of Messrs. Toms, Blythe and Burt. upon what we are confident is a trumped up charge of murder, it was a misstatement that the arrests were founded on indictment.

Supper.-Last night, as some soldiers, just arrived here from Ft. Steele, were on their way from the Utah Central depot to Camp Douglas, the wife of one, named John Dorsay, was seized with the pains of maternity. The case was so urgent that the officer in charge deemed it expedient to have the lady conveyed to the City Hall, where assistance was speedily pro-cured, but before doctor and nurse arrived the lady had a daughter born. At last ac-counts mother and child were doing well, LECTURE AT MORGAN COLLEGE. - Mr. Angus M. Cannon will lecture on Friday evening at 7 o'clock. Subject: Resources and Scenery of Southern Utah and Northern Arizona.

OBITUARY.-Again we are called upon to enronicle the death of another of God's servants, whose earthly career has been shortened by the hand of death while Isbering in the cause of redemption.

Elder Caleb W. Haws, like Elder Parry, deceased, was smitten with small-pox, and after a short illness died yester-day morning at 3:15 o'clock, at the resi-dence of Brother Seth Lawton, Barugh Bridge, near Barnsley, Yorkshire. On the 22nd of May last brother Haws, in company with President Carrington and other brethren who were called on missions to Europe, arrived in Liverpool and was appointed to assist Elder George P. Ward in the Manchester Conference, where he labored faithfully and well until the departure of Elder Thomas W. Woolley, when he was appointed to succeed him in the Presidency of the Sheffield Conference, in which capacity he continued him Father to a holler abode, where his sphere of usefulness would be enlarged, and where he can labor more efficiently to hasten the happy future of the righteous and the permanent establishment of the kingdom of God. During the sickness of Elder Haws, he was waited upon by low. Elder Haws, he was waited upon by loving friends who paid him every attention, and who, with us, deeply mourn his loss. -Millennial Star, Nov. 21.

New JERSEY.-The Bridgton Pioneer of Dec. 1st notices a lecture by Elder Lindsey in Groscup's Hall, upon Utah and "Mornonism," The editor says:

"In reference to their present troubles in Utah, he believed that God would over-rule their persecutions for their good. However we may differ with the Mormons in their belief, of their sincerity there is no doubt, if Elder Lindsey is a fair representative."

western correspondent writes to an eastern paper a ludicrous incident, which occurred in Wyoming Territory, and was one of the results of woman suffrage. A Mrs. Morris was elected, at South Pass city, to the office of justice of the peace for Sweetwater County; she was duly qualified and entered upon her duties on the judicial bench. One day while officiating there her husband results of woman suffrage. A Mrs. Morris office of justice of the peace for Sweetwater County; she was duly qualified and entered upon her duties on the judicial bench. One day while officiating there her husband got drunk and committed a breach of the peace. The aggrieved parties applied to her honor, Mrs. Justice Morris, for a warrant for the arrest of her husband; the demand was complied with, and the inebriate was brought to judgment. Being too drunk to fully comprehend the situation, he became to assert his soversign rights in congan to assert his sovereign rights in contempt of the Court, but was brought to by the officer in whose charge he was information that he was exting under the order of the Court, but was brought to by the officer in whose charge he was information that he was exting under the order of the court, but was brought to by the officer in whose charge he was information to the court of ing him that he was acting under the orders of the Court. Mr. Morris indiguantly in-quired "who is the Court," and being informed he looked at the justice with a puz-zled sir, scratched his head with an effort to collect his scattered thoughts, and ejacu-lated: "Her—her—(hic)—she's my wife— (hic)—she is—that's that Esther—my wife me-[hie]-," and he started to go. Her honor ordered the officer to look up Her honor ordered the officer to lock up the prisoner for contempt, and as the functionary was about to comply, when the prisoner, addressing the officer and bench, delivered himself of the fellowing:

"Now, look here, Mr. Officer, don't you be in a hurry. I don't mean anothing "Now, look here, Mr. Officer, don't you be in a hurry. I don't mean anything wrong. I want just to talk with my wife a minute. Now, Esther, what's the use of MRS. W. T. BOWER foolin'; you just get down out o' thare, and go home and behave yourself. I'll tend to this little difficulty myself. Now go right along, the baby wants nursing. I had to give it to Mrs. Winslow to get it to sleep when I came down. He's KIMBALL BLOCK, get it to sleep when I came down. He's hungry, for he won't use that old bottle and I don't blame him either. The dishes aint washed, nor the beds made, neither.
And what's more, I aint goin' to do II any more now. You hear that. Now start
