EASTERN DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, 19.—The failure of G. D. Munroe & Co, was announced on the Stock Exchange to-day.

Two mercantile failures are announced—one in the grocery trade, and the other in the Demarura trade.

PITTSBURG, 19.—Greeley arrived here at 7 p.m. He will speak at the St. Clair Hotel this evening and leave for Cincinnati at 10 o'clock.

INDIANAPOLIS, 19.—The "straight out" Democrats held a meeting in Masonic Hall this evening, and were addressed by Willie Moreau, candidate for Congressman-at-large, in an eloquent and masterly speech, denouncing in the strongest terms the Greeley departure. An attempt was made to break up the meeting by a few Greeley roughs, but through the efforts of the police order was restored and Moreau was permitted to finish his speech.

NEW YORK, 19 —The million of gold sold by the treasury to-day was all taken by the clique, who bid 14 for four millions of the $10,600,000. The announcement of the sale of only a million caused great excitement in the gold room and a rapid rise in price. Larger sales by the treasury, however, would only have resulted to the advantage of the clique.

Stocks were excited and unsettled all day, with frequent fluctuations. Erie continued a special feature, and the corner shows no signs of breaking. Pacific Mail is now the most active.

ST. LOUIS, 19.—Captain Chas. Kragie, clerk in the post office here, was arrested to-day for embezzling $1,100 worth of stamps.

The preparations for the annual fair, in St. Louis, of the agricultural and mechanical association, which commences October 3rd, are nearly completed. It bids fair to surpass any previous one.

INDIANAPOLIS, 19.—The "straight-out" Democratic State convention met in the senate chamber this afternoon, and was called to order by Major W. C. Moreau. Dr. Sherrod was chosen chairman. About one hundred persons were present. The chairman said they had assembled for the purpose of reorganizing and rebaptizing the Democratic party of the State of Indiana, and would at once proceed to business. Committees were then appointed to report candidates for a State ticket and electors at large; and a State central committee to prepare an address to the Democrats of the State. A resolution was unanimously adopted endorsing the candidates for President and vice-President nominated at Louisville. Mr. Smith, claiming to be a Democrat who would not support Greeley, offered a resolution recommending no nominations to be made for a State ticket, and that the convention endorse and support the State ticket nominated on the 10th of June. The chair decided the resolution out of order, the convention having already appointed a committee to report a State ticket. That committee reported the following ticket, which was unanimously concurred in: For governor, A. H. Edgerton; lieut.-governor, Green Durbin; secretary of State, Alfred Parsons; auditor of State, Otto Boetticher; treasurer of State, Dr. McBride; attorney-general, Thos. Bratom, congressmen-at-large Major W. C. Moreau and Dr. F. W Sherrod; electors for the State at-large, Dr. Graham, N. Fitch, C. Reeves, Jos. Milliston and B. F. Foster. A full State central committee was appointed and the convention adjourned.

WESTERN DISPATCHES.

SAN FRANCISCO.—Dr. Lilford was examined in the Fair case. He reiterated his former testimony, and stated that the prisoner had on several occasions threatened to kill him.

Farrey Price was to-day arrested by a United State officer for passing a special mark and held to bail in $1,000.

Positive evidence of the guilt of Yerton, accused of bigamy, has been received by the prosecuting attorney.

Ores of every description are arriving in this city freely. They come from Nevada, Montana, Idaho, and Arizona.

J. C Merrill sues Wells Fargo & Co. for $19,000, because they failed to collect that amount on a bill of exchange entrusted to them. The plea is that they failed to make the demand.

LOS ANGELES, 19.—The corner stone of the German Reformed church was laid this p.m. at the corner of Fort and Second Sts.

WATERVILLE, 19.—Simes, new hotel, recently built on the site of the Nebraska hotel, destroyed by fire, was opened this evening by a grand ball.

Hon. Geo. Gorham is addressing the audience at the skating rink, Hon. S. J. Finney will follow. Bonfires and enthusiasm.

VIRGINIA, 19.—The Republican county convention assembled to-day. The following nominations were made—State Senators, C. C. Stevenson, W. S. Hobart, nominated by acclamation; assemblymen, Jno. Randall, E. L. Stearns, J. W. Fox, Nick Andrews, J. W. Wilson, Richard Arnold, T. Wadams, C. M. Derby, Saml. Owen, W. B. Shepherd, Archie McDonald, by acclamation; for sheriff—A. Comstock, vote 31 to 14 against Tarp; assessor, Thos. Gracey, by acclamation; county clerk, Wm. Henry Deane; county treasurer, H. Crandall; county recorder, Chas. R. Rawsor, by acclamation; district attorney, Jas. Stevens; supt public instruction, J. Flint. Everything passed off quietly.

EUROPEAN.

LONDON, 19.—John Fox & Co., merchants, Mincing Lane, have suspended. Liabilities half a million pounds. They have connections with several American houses. The suspension was caused by the recent failures at Baltimore.

LONDON, 19.—Sir Wilfred Lawson, Liberal member of Parliament for Carlisle, while addressing a meeting in Cumberland last night, warmly praised the conduct of Disraeli during the Alabama claims controversy, and said he rejoiced over the settlement of the differences between England and America without recourse to the sword.

The bark City of Hamilton, from London for Philadelphia, put into Ryde, Isle of Wight, in consequence of a mutiny among the crew.

The congress of the Internationalists closed its session to-day. Previous to adjournment a resolution was passed, condemning the proceedings of the recent congress at the Hague as creating a disruption in the order.

CHRISTIANITY IN DANGER.

AN ENGLISH ARCHBISHOP'S FEAR THAT THE HEATHEN MAY CONVERT THE CHRISTIANS.

The Archbishop of Canterbury in pleading for the Propagation Society, has advanced a rather original argument in favor of the missions to the heathen. He refers to the large number of heathen Burmese, Chinese and Hindoos to be seen permanently or temporarily in London, and suggests that if Christians do not quickly convert the heathen the heathen may convert the Christian. "This," says the Primate, "is not merely an imaginative idea. I am almost afraid to say it; but I cannot help thinking that this great proximity of the East to ourselves has somehow or other infected the philosophy on which the young men feed in our great seminaries of learning, and that men of learning, from rubbing shoulders with men who altogether disbelieve in Christianity, have more toleration for their denial than they had in the olden times; and, that systems which have existed centuries, in the extreme lands of heathenism, are finding some sort of echo, even among the literature and philosophy of this Christian country. I say, then, we are forced by what we see around us, by the proximity with which we are brought with heathen tribes, to exert ourselves."

Two letters in reply to the Archbishop of Canterbury on the danger to Christianity involved in contact with civilized heathenism, appear in the Times. A. B. Kshadia writes: "In these days of insincerity and hypocrisy, when people are paid for declaring opinions and propagating beliefs they themselves do not believe in, it is not a novel thing to see the high priest of the Established Church sending forth from a public platform at Carlisle his opinions regarding the evil consequences attendant on the stay of the heathens in London—opinions remarkable alike for their inaccuracy and want of charity. Let me, with all deference, remind his Grace that the object of the heathen Burmese envoys is not to do homage only, but to put on a more permanent footing the political and commercial relations subsisting between the two countries. These heathen have toleration for their fundamental creed, that no religion can be considered enlightened which is not tolerant. Is truth taught by history? We infer from certain expressions which escaped his Grace, that toleration has no recognized place in the Christian religion. In conclusion I beg to inform his Grace that it is as unlikely a thing for the heathens in London to embrace the belief he inculcates, as it is for Mr. Stuart Mill, or Professor Tyndall, to believe in the commonly received forms of Protestantism."

S. D. Thaker writes: "It will do immense good to his Grace to learn that most of us heathens from India have unmitigated hatred of those who, having it in their power to ascertain the truth, do not study accuracy; who do not care to read the works of heathen writers on religion and philosophy, and yet abuse them and those following them, simply because they are heathens; who have not yet learned the simple lesson of speaking without disrespect of the religious opinions of visitors to their country. In conclusion, let me assure those persons who, like the Archbishop, are disposed to proselytize us, that we cannot too highly compliment ourselves for what we are, especially when we consider the Christian light which the Archbishop is enjoying."—London Times.

How Many it Takes to Run a Newspaper.

Few persons, outside of the business, have any idea of the size of the staff necessary to the conduct of a first-class daily journal, nor of the importance of such a journal as a source of employment, not only in the community where it is published, but in widely separated districts. As an example, we may give a few facts concerning the Record, which probably employs, in its various departments, as many persons as any journal on this coast. Five editors and reporters are constantly employed in collating news, collecting intelligence from all parts of the world, preparing fresh telegraphic dispatches for the printers, writing editorial articles, etc. Eight regularly salaried correspondents watch events in various parts of the Eastern States, Europe and the Pacific States and Territories, and present our readers with intelligent and well written commentaries and narratives. Besides these regular correspondents, at least a dozen occasional contributors supply us with intelligence from all quarters. Six men are employed in the mailing room and counting office, in book-keeping, collecting, canvassing and preparing the editions of the Record for the mails. In the composing-room twenty-two printers, including "subs," proofreaders, foreman and assistant foreman, are busily engaged setting up the matter which passes in until late at night from the editorial rooms. In the press-room three Hoe presses and three smaller power presses require the services of six men. The German office employs four more compositors, and the job office nine. In all no less than sixty-two persons are directly supported by the Record establishment, and if we assume, as we fairly may, that on an average each of these sixty-two has two others depending upon him, it will be seen that the Record supports nearly two hundred souls, in a direct manner. If we come to count our carriers, agents, solicitors, and all who are employed indirectly, and supported partially by their connection with this journal, we could easily show that full three hundred persons have relations, more or less direct, with the Record, and as the business of the paper is steadily increasing, its ramifications become wide, and it is necessary to supply more help in various departments. As it is, however, there are not many newspaper establishments on the coast that employ so extensive a staff.—Sacramento Record.
