The Semi-Weekly of the West.

Is issued Mondays and Thursdays and contains all the cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

G. C. Hazeltine and wife of Valdez, Alaska, are guests at the Knutsford.

The Elks of this city will hold a special social session Tuesday evening, Jan. 3, in their club house.

Local dealers on Market Row estimate the number of Christmas trees brought into this market this year at 2,500.

Stella Raymond, formerly of this city, while on a drunk at Pocatello, Friday night, mixed carbolic acid and whiskey, and is now dead.

Dana Smith's razor slipped the other evening while he was shaving, and a doctor had to be called in to take several stitches in his chin.

During the vacation of the public schools, City Supt. Christensen will have his office hours from 10 to 12 a. m. on Wednesday and Saturday.

Sheriff Rigby of Logan stopped in the city a few hours yesterday on his way to Provo with a patient for the state mental hospital.

The elevator boys' school at town have harvested quite a crop of shekels, some getting as much as $10 and $12 from patrons of their cages.

A ball will be given this evening, in the new hall of liberty street, Fourth South and Eighth East streets; and a regular Friday evening dance at the same place.

The Salt Lake Real Estate association will hold its annual election of officers on the second Monday in January, when an entire board of governors will be elected to serve for the year.

Mrs. Monroe Salisbury, wife of a brother of O. J. Salisbury of this city, and a society lady on the Pacific coast, died recently at San Francisco. The deceased was once a famous Kentucky beauty.

Engineer C. Tanner of the Reclamation service has returned from a tour of the gauging stations connected with the Bear Lake irrigation project. Mr. Tanner installed a station this trip at Collinston.

W. A. Nelden has been appointed by Judge Morse as guardian of the estate of Paul and Ralph Nelden, minors, who are the beneficiaries in a life insurance policy for $5,000 held by Sarah O. Nelden, deceased.

About 200 persons have notified Manager Harris of the Commercial club that they will be present next Wednesday evening, on the occasion of the annual banquet of the club. A record-breaking time is promised.

Thomas Randi was examined as to his sanity by Judge Lewis and Drs. Mayo and Odell on Saturday afternoon, and was committed to the state mental hospital at Provo. His condition is said to be due to a sunstroke which he received last summer.

Mrs. Clara M. Pierce of Cascade, Mont., a sister of Harry E. Glenn of this city, died on Friday last while visiting with friends at Augusta, Mont. She was a member of the Daughters of Rebekah and of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Mrs. Hanna Lynberg, of 66 east First South street, is convalescent from a severe attack of influenza, which she has been struck by a street car, while near the Street Line depot, going one way, as she was just alighting from a car going in the opposite direction. Mrs. Lynberg was severely cut and bruised.

Mrs. G. H. Knapp and Willard Squires were the soloists at last night's concert in the Grand Theater given by Held's band. The audience was not as large as usual owing to its being Christmas night, but the program was an excellent one, and much enjoyed. Mr. Zimmerman wielded the baton as conductor.

The Women's Republican club give a card party at the residence of Mrs. W. H. Jones, 231 south Third East street, Thursday, Dec. 30, 1904. Instead of at the residence of Mrs. John C. Carter, as previously announced. All Republican ladies are invited to be present.

There was vision by day of the Milky Way at Seventh East and Second South streets this morning, when a broken axle and wheel on a wagon belonging to the Illinois dairy, let the establishment down onto the frozen ground with a crash and a smash that scattered up the sky considerable of nature for considerable of a radius. No other damage done.

The Christmas rush of Saturday broke all local records in postoffice, express and business circles generally. Letters and packages were sent not only to far eastern points and the Pacific coast, but to Europe, Asia and Africa, and South America. Employees of the postoffice and the express companies were greatly rushed Saturday and yesterday, and are now just beginning to recover their normal business gait.

Mayor John Arbuthnot and wife of Winnipeg were at the Kenyon yesterday, en route to Los Angeles to spend the winter. He says Winnipeg has a population of over 100,000, and is destined to be the Chicago of the west of the country. In 1903 $5,000,000 was expended in building operations, and this year, the amount will be $10,000,000. Land which a few years ago cost $2 per acre, is now worth 10 times that, and the local wheat yield is 20 bushels to the acre.

The reason why the bequest of $25,000 left Bishop Tuttle and his family by the late Miss Maria Mount, New York for the benefit of the Episcopal church in the Salt Lake diocese, has not been used for the purpose intended is because that her sister, Miss Susan Mount, wants the money, and as administratrix fought the legacy. She has been victorious in the New York courts, and thereby $25,000 which is much wanted here, will have to be secured from other sources.

Safe-blowers are still at work in this city and their latest effort was an attempt to blow open the safe of the George Romney Lumber company, 65 north First West on Saturday night. They were evidently surprised while at work for they made several holes in the door when they must have been disturbed by some one and scared away. The tools are now in the possession of the police department and may be of some assistance in locating the burglars.

The public drinking fountain to be located in front of the new Packard library on State street will be the design of W. Montague Allen, son of Mrs. Mary M. P. Allen of Park City, a leading spirit in the Daughters of the American Revolution. Mr. Allen is a student at the University of Chicago, and distinguished himself in art work especially in the way of cartoon work for eastern periodicals. The design of the fountain will include the regulation colonial cap and the statue of the fountain will stand six feet high facing the entrance, and be built of Quincy granite.

The Relief society of the Seventeenth ward through the block teachers, have been very energetic during the past week in collecting means and provisions for the benefit of the poor. On Friday the officers and teachers met at the society hall and arranged for the distribution of the money, provisions, clothing and other articles that had been generously given by the people of the ward; and also a contribution from a class of the Lafayette school. Sixty-four baskets were filled to overflowing and distributed, so that before evening came the hearts of many poor were made glad and to realize the blessings of Christmas time.

The Consolidated Wagon & Machine company's building at Idaho Falls, taking the place of the one destroyed by fire last summer, is completed and the company is moving in. The floor space is 150 feet square on each of the first and second stories; and as the basement is 50x150 feet, the company has an area of 30,000 square feet on which to do business. In addition to this, there is a warehouse for the storage of capacity, and a lumber yard that will hold 100 car loads of building material. The new premises will be opened formally with a ball on the evening of Jan. 4, when it is believed there will be on hand nearly 5,000 people to take part in the ceremonies.

Zion's Savings Bank and Trust Co., the largest and oldest Savings Bank in Utah, pays 4 per cent interest on any amount from $1 to $5,000. Write to us, Jos. F. Smith, President; George M. Cannon, Cashier.

"SPORT" AT BINGHAM.

Dog Fighting Has Become Quite Popular in Mining Camp.

Dog fighting at Carr Fork, Bingham, is having a run of popularity. The manager of fighting the canines allows of only one outcome—a death, or so complete a victory for one dog that the promoters sicken of the sight and call off the opponent. Betting on the events is freely indulged in and runs to large amounts, according to a letter of protest sent to the "News" from a citizen of that place.

Describing the method of fighting dogs, he says:

"First, a hole is dug or a bin provided out of which there is no retreating or way of escape for either dog. Then two dogs, most often bulldogs, are dropped into the pit or thrown into the pen, and goaded into fighting each other. As long as there is any fight left in either dog this battle goes on, and it is only when one of the animals is dead or dying that the referee calls off the victor."

The writer cites a fight which occurred a month ago at Carr Fork, in which two dogs after the fight and finally died in the greatest of agony, and another in which one dog was killed and the other mangled to death.

The letter concludes by asking if there is no legal way of bringing the sport to a conclusion and punishing the spectators and backers of it, for cruelty to dumb animals.

Amusements

"Grimes' Cellar Door," with James B. Mackie as Grimes, opens at the Grand this afternoon and evening.

The Theater will be dark till Friday, when "Princess Chic" comes on a return visit.

OXYGEN FOR FIREMEN.

An experiment has been made in Paris with an ingenious apparatus, invented by M. Guilleminot, and M. Draeger, by means of which it is possible to remain without fear of asphyxia in places where it would be impossible to breathe. The apparatus is automatic, that is, it has no connection with the air outside.

It is composed of a tube containing a provision of oxygen, sufficient to last a man for breathing purposes for more than an hour, and a helmet of aluminum fitting the head exactly by means of a pneumatic pad. The oxygen is supplied automatically to the man's mouth, and the air exhaled is received in a compressible bag.

It passes through a regenerator with granulated caustic potash, which absorbs all the carbonic acid. A fireman, provided with this apparatus, went down into a cellar in which piles of damp straw had been lighted, and although there was suffocating smoke from this, he remained in it for nearly three-quarters of an hour without being at all inconvenienced by it—World's Work.

SANTA CLAUS IN COUNTY BUILDING.

His Role Freely Impersonated There to Joy of Several Persons.

WHO THE RECIPIENTS WERE.

Gifts Consisted of Cut Glass, Jewelry, Silk Umbrellas, Money and Other Things that Were Good.

There were a number of Christmas greetings exchanged between deputies, clerks and officials around the city and county building on Saturday afternoon.

In several of the offices the employees presented the officer and chief deputy with substantial remembrances. The deputies and clerks in the office of County Clerk John James had to work a scheme on him to get him down to his office to receive his presents. He was very busy at his home trimming a Christmas tree for his children, and had not intended going down to his office until 1 o'clock. A number of the clerks had the afternoon off and, as they wanted to see the presentation, they telephoned to Mr. James that he was wanted at his office on urgent business. He responded to the call, and when he entered his private office he was followed by all of his employees, and he found on his table an elegant cut glass water bottle, and six glasses, a silk umbrella, a box of cigars and a bottle of angel food cake. Deputy Clerk Harry F. Evans then made the following appropriate presentation speech:

"The close relationship which has existed between us during your two terms of office has afforded many of us an opportunity to pass upon your merits as an officer and a gentleman. We are desirous that you should know that we are not unkind of the many rare qualities of your heart and mind which you have unconsciously revealed to us on many occasions. Your kindly attention to our welfare, your true loyalty to tried friends and your readiness to excuse or condone their shortcomings; that total absence of affected superiority which is said to invariably mark great fellowships; these are some of the characteristics which have endeared you to us. And now on the eve of the holiday season and within a few days of the close of your term of office, we desire to tender to you these expressions of our warm regard for you personally. May these gifts serve to lend a charm to your Christmas festivity, and in the days to come, may they ever recall sweet memories of pleasant associations while serving the people as county clerk."

It took Mr. James some little time to recover from the surprise, but he arose to the occasion and heartily thanked them for the beautiful presents. He at once opened the cigars and held open bags during the rest of the day. Perhaps the happiest man around the building on Saturday was "Uncle" Sol Crown, who owns the cigar stand in the main corridor. He was called into the county recorder's office and presented with a purse of $150 cash, and a dozen boxes of cigars to replenish his stock. Nearly everyone in the building contributed towards the presents for the venerable merchant.

The employees of the health office presented Health Commissioner Willard with a fine silk umbrella. The same employees, together with Land and Water Commissioner Luce and his employees, presented Miss Bessie Davis, the stenographer for the two departments, a handsome present.

Deputy County Recorder "Jack" May was the recipient of a solid gold ring presented by the employees of the office. Joseph F. MacKnight made the presentation speech.

William Langenbocker, the elevator operator, was presented with many of the officials, and employees, whom he has served during the past year. He received quite a neat sum of money as a Christmas token.

CHRISTMAS SERVICES.

Special Musical Programs Added Greatly to the Attendance.

Yesterday's Christmas services were largely attended all over the city. The decorations, especially in the ritualistic churches, were elaborate and artistic, and not a few of the designs were strikingly novel. The musical programs, as given in the "News" of Saturday evening, were carried out in full, to the gratification of the crowded congregations listening. Both the organists and the singers performed with marked credit, and the preachers spoke from the all absorbing theme of the day, with fluency and force. A feature of the day was the evoking stereoscopic exhibition at the First Presbyterian church, illustrating scenes in the Holy Land. There were many dinner parties in town, and at the hotels, public institutions around the jail and prison, the inmates were handsomely remembered with extra good fare.

Ward Entertainments.

On Friday evening next, in the Eleventh ward assembly hall, a vocal and instrumental concert will be given in honor of Miss Emmeline McMaster. The young lady leaves Salt Lake City Jan. 4, for a mission to the Eastern states, and her friends will no doubt turn out in large numbers to show their esteem for her.
