LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Acquittal.—Last night, in the case of W. A. Gieson, who had been on trial in the District Court for two days, on an indictment for rape on the person of Mrs. A. Hollinger, alleged to have been committed in July of last year, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and defendant was discharged.

Third District Court.—In the District Court this morning, the case of the People, etc., vs. C. Canvesson, indicted for battery upon an old woman, a verdict of guilty was rendered.

This afternoon the trial of Joseph Lee, of Graniteville, indicted for grand larceny, was begun.

Birthday Anniversary.—This is the 70th anniversary of the birthday of President Willard Woodruff. This much respected veteran has spent the greater part of his long life in laboring successfully for the welfare of the family of man. Hosts of affectionate friends desire to see him live many years longer, to continue one of the most active careers on record.

Running the Business.—Mr. E. Newberry has taken the business of Mr. John Hagell, on First South Street, and is prepared to supply a hungry public with hot dinners daily (Sundays excepted) between the hours of 12 and 3 o'clock. He also prepares meals for parties on special orders. He keeps a constant supply of inviting odibles of various kinds.

Artistic.—To-day we had the pleasure of seeing what appeared to us to be the best specimen of portrait photography ever produced in Utah. It is not behind the show specimens to be seen in the East and West, paraded as gems. The likeness is cabinet size, and the subject Miss Lillie Hooper. It possesses a combination of clearness, delicacy and strength. The artist is himself a Utah production, Mr. Ralph Savage, who has made rapid progress in his profession, as exhibited by the specimen of excellent and thoughtful work.

A Shooting Affray.—Shortly after seven o'clock last night people in the vicinity of the Continental Hotel, were startled by sudden reports of pistol shots, somewhere between eight and a dozen of which were fired in that vicinity. It appears that Chris. Donnelly and Richard Roach had quarreled during the afternoon, and separated. At the time the affray occurred the parties met on the east side of West Temple Street, nearly opposite the hotel named, Donnelly being accompanied by Cass Davis. What passed between the parties immediately before the shooting commenced, does not appear, but Donnelly opened fire on Roach, the latter stepping from the sidewalk to the open street and retreating with several shots from his pistol. From the number of shots it is thought that three pistols figured in the affair. On finding that his weapon was empty Roach retreated to the west side of the street and placed himself behind a tree in front of the hotel, and shortly afterwards walked northward. He was subsequently arrested.

Donnelly, accompanied by Davis, went off in another direction. He is stated to have received a slight flesh wound in the thigh.

Both the principals in the affair belong to the sporting fraternity. Roach claims that Donnelly, with whom he had been friendly for a long time, had taken to excessive drinking, and was offended because he had reproached him for this habit and told him to keep away from him if he did not quit indulging. It is claimed on the other hand that Roach had borrowed money from Donnelly, and that the trouble was in consequence of his failure to refund.

Eye Extracted.—About a couple of months since we published the details of a distressing accident that happened to Brother Henry Flamm, of Logan, while he was splitting a log by means of a powder blast. The sight of one eye was entirely destroyed and the other was painfully and seriously affected from sympathy, until it was feared that he would lose his entire sight. We learn from the Utah Journal that, to avert this calamity, the injured eye was removed last Monday by Dr. O. C. Ormby. Since the operation the remaining optical organ had been comparatively free from pain.

Clean them Out.—Steps are being officially taken to clear the tainted atmosphere in the rear of the establishments of Messrs. John Tulidge, & Co. and Mr. F. E. Schoppe, who are especially annoyed at the unwholesome effluvia in the vicinity. It appears that in a portion of the rear premises an old lady has gone into the business of raising porcine specimens, from whose surroundings emanate the noisome condition complained of.

While on a sanitary subject we may be permitted to state that the nearness of warm weather renders it imperative that sources of unhealthy emanations require to be liberally interviewed by the proper officers with a view to permanent abatement.

Animated Nuisances.—Yesterday afternoon a number of young fellows were made to appear in the police court to answer to a charge of disturbing a public assembly in the shape of a concert in the Sixteenth Ward school-house. As it was the first offense of the kind perpetrated by the boys, Justice Spiers let them off easier than he would had they been otherwise. They were each assessed a fine of $2.50, with the addition of an appropriate reprimand for indulging in disgraceful conduct and rendering themselves no better than animated nuisances. It is to be hoped the boys will take the hint and behave themselves better in future.

Ladies' Associations.—The several secretaries of the Relief Society in this Stake Zion will please be prompt in sending in their semi-annual reports to the Secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth Howard, Salt Lake City; Also the Secretaries of the Y. L. M. I. A. please send semi-annual reports as early as possible to the Secretary, Mrs. A. J. Crocheron, P. O. Box 419, Salt Lake City.

The Conference of the several associations R. S., Y. L. M. I. A., and P. A. will be held in the 14th Ward Assembly Rooms on Friday and Saturday, the 9th and 10th of March, and a full attendance from all parts of the country is desired.

Death of Sarah C. Armstrong.—In another column is a notice announcing the death of Sister Sarah C. Armstrong, wife of our respected townsman, Brother Francis Armstrong. The respected lady was just turned thirty-six years old. Her early demise will be lamented by many personal and family friends. A wide sympathy is felt for the bereaved husband and other near relatives.

Too Fast.—This morning four rapid young men were before Justice Spiers on a charge of riding fast and furiously, to the imminent danger of other people on the State Road. They ran into a vehicle driven by a citizen in that locality. Each of the accused was fined.

As the roads dry up the fast driving and riding mania will become more prevalent. It should be nipped in the bud by the prompt action of the police.

A Deaf Witness.—"What is the meaning of all that shouting?" remarked a party in the vicinity of the City Hall, this morning. The cause was soon ascertained. In the investigation of the charge of embezzlement preferred against Alfred Case the attorney for the defense had to tackle a deaf witness, forcing him to the necessity of vociferating with tremendous energy.

Thawing Them.—The severity of the cold weather experienced here a few weeks ago, is shown by the fact that the small service pipes from the water works main, were frozen solid at a depth of four to five feet and a half feet underground, and are now being thawed out by the plumbers, with a small steam apparatus.

THE MANDAMUS CASE.

APPEAL ALLOWED AND REMITS APPROVED.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock the Supreme Court of this Territory rendered its decision in the case of Kimball vs. Richards. The appeal was allowed, the supersedeas bond to the sum of $5,500 approved and the motion of respondent for remittitur denied. Judge McBride asked the Court to note an exception.

Worth Knowing.—A correspondent of the New York World, says: "One reason why cement or concrete floors in stables do not last better is that cement is applied directly to the ground. If the surface of the ground is broken up and a layer of coarse gravel or small stones laid first and then the cement plastered on that, the floor will prove much more durable and will be dry and hard. Of course when the soil is heavy it ought to be drained. My stable floor had a bed of broken stones about five inches deep, and on this the cement was spread two inches deep. I used the best Portland cement. The same plan as here described is good for cellar floors, only the cement need not be put on much more than half the thickness."

Shooting at Bozeman.—The Helena Herald states that, at Bozeman, Montana, on the night of February 22nd, in a saloon, H. J. Hoppe shot and mortally wounded Patsey Walters. Both men drew their revolvers, but the weapon of Walters refused to fire. Five shots were fired by Hoppe, one of which struck Walters near the spine, coming out at the navel. Walters, after being shot, grappled with his opponent, beating him badly over the head with the butt of his revolver. Walters then walked over to his room, undressed, and submitted to an examination. Walters subsequently died of his wounds. Hoppe was a former resident of Butte.

Suspended.—The work of laying track on the Wood River Branch Railroad has been suspended several days, owing to the impossibility of securing supplies and material. The O. S. L. track is constantly in use by surfacing and supply trains, while its unfinished condition prevents trains from making quick trips. The large force of men employed in bridging, trestling, rock-cutting, grading, track-laying and building on the line east and west of Staples and north on the branch, as well as at Shoshone, requires an enormous amount of supplies. Hundreds of teams are at work, and grain cannot be hauled in fast enough. The teamsters had a rough-and-tumble free fight trying to secure grain for their teams last week, as their was not enough to go around. The supplies of feed and coal are exhausted, and the blockade must be raised and different arrangements made before the line north can be laid to advantage.
