Bottom Shows Some Good Ore Containing Much Native Copper.

J. J. Trenam returned this morning from a trip to Beaver county, where he spent a day at the Beaver Con-solidated of which he is manager. The property was shut down for about 10 days so that certain repairs could be made, but work was started up again this morning. Driving Long Tunnel.

The McKinnon tunnel, which is be-ing driven by Salt Lake and eastern partles at Silver City, Ida, had been completed to the length of 85 feet on last Monday. Supt. McKinnon reported that another 35 feet will take it into the Pride of the West ledge, the first of the four to be tapped by this bore. There are three veins which the com-pany's property cover for a distance of 3,000 feet each, and the other runs the full length of one claim, 1,500 feet. The latter is known as the Trook & Jen-nings vein, and has produced a good many thousands of dollars worth of ore. The Mckinnon tunnel, which is be-
