Applications for Office.

WASHINGTON, 6.—Since President

Hayes came into office, two clerks have been kept busy at the White House, briefing and indexing applications for and recommendations to office. Over 4,000 applications have been received by the President, exclusive of those received by the Cabinet.

Chamberlain Will Not Surrender the State House.

CHICAGO, 6.—The Journal's

Washington special says Chamberlain left this morning for South Carolina. A conference between Chamberlain and his friends, last night, he informed them that he was determined, after reflection and consultation with prominent Republicans, to hold on to his office and not surrender the State House until elected by civil process.

Wade Hampton has given a pledge to the President that neither himself nor his friends will resort to violence. Chamberlain was convinced that he could maintain himself as Governor for some time, and prevent Hampton from being recognized as Governor by the legal legislature.

Senator Patterson Explains.

In conversation to-day with your correspondent, Senator Patterson explained the policy announced by Chamberlain a few days ago, that Chamberlain had decided not to give up the contest until there was some definite action in regard to Louisiana. Patterson said, in intended to stand firm for his rights, and events might occur in Louisiana which would cause a reaction in the country regarding the President's southern policy, and arouse a sentiment in the republican party which would compel the administration to change its front. This was a foolish hope, but the republicans of South Carolina intended to cling to it until it was swept away. If Patterson is disposed, then Chamberlain will give up the fight in South Carolina.

The Commission and Packard's

The Tribune's New Orleans special says the commission is much impressed with the stern logic of Packard's letter to Hayes and with his legislative resolutions, that both his houses have an undeniable majority. Packard's letter, he admittedly alleged that Packard has startling evidence touching the electoral college of Louisiana, and it is believed that of his rights will be President Hayes down with him.

Mass Meeting of Citizens at New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, 6.—A mass meeting of citizens in the square, to-day, was very large, estimated at from ten to fifteen thousand. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

We, the citizens of New Orleans, in a meeting assembled, representing as we firmly believe the sentiments of the large majority of the people of Louisiana, proclaim-collecting revenues, preserving the peace and order of society; that there is not within the limits of the State an officer exercising any actual authority except those whose official titles are recognized by this court, because duly elected; that many of those elected, as republicans have already recognized the true government, and those who have not done so will hasten to recognize it as soon as the federal interference shall cease; that this government is not only exercising itself in perpetuating its authority, but that it will not encounter no resistance and not even a desire to resist on the part of any portion of the people, but an insistent and ambitious policy, with a small following of ignorant dupes.

Fifth—That the pretended government of which J. B. Packard claims to be the head, is a mere simulacrum without body or substance, the offspring of a legislative conspiracy of the late usurpers to perpetuate their power in defiance of the will of the people as expressed in the ballot box, and in defiance of the constitution; that it does not and cannot command the moral or physical support of any considerable portion of the people, and that it is therefore incapable of exercising none of the functions of government; that its authority is recognized nowhere outside of the limits of a small following of dupes; that if the hope of federal interference were withdrawn it would disband without the uplifting of an arm against it; that it is not a single title to the possession of the State, but an attempt to establish and maintain it by the military power of the United States would be not only an outrage on the constitution, but a gross violation of the rights of the people, and a gross violation of the principles of civilization that has been witnessed in the nineteenth century.

Sixth—That the people of Louisiana observed with deep satisfaction the inauguration of the President, and the inauguration of the Louisiana State Institution. He was escorted, amid great enthusiasm, to Carolina, where he was inaugurated in December, 1868. From his inauguration, he has been the subject of the most enthusiastic popular admiration, and the people have pledged themselves to support him in his administration of the law, and to support his policy of peace and harmony.

He would support President Hayes as long as he pursued the policy of peace and harmony, and would support his policy of peace and harmony.

He would support his policy of peace and har-
