Business closed on the Mining Exchange today with the sale of 46,675 shares for $22,878.25. During the week 268,810 shares of stocks were sold for the sum of $169,806.81. The most important changes in the stock market for the past week are seen in Ajax, Centennial Eureka, Grand Central, Mammoth, Northern Light and Yankee Con. The latter was traded in at 11 cents per share on Monday, but it has since climbed up to 17½, apparently without any just reason. The same may be said of Northern Light, which stood at 7½ in the beginning of the week. Since then it has sold as high as 15 upon unconfirmed news of a strike in the mine. Both of the above stocks have since declined. Northern Light was traded in today as low as 10 cents per share. Ajax sold as high as $1.22½ on Monday, but owing to unsatisfactory developments at the mine it has since declined to nearly 11. Centennial Eureka has advanced to $2.50 in the bidding today, while Mammoth, with the books just closed on the March dividend, started out at $2.10 and advanced to $2.27. Grand Central, which on Monday, sold as low as $1.85, has since been traded in at better than 37¢ per share. Sales were made today as high as $1.93. Ontario was being moved up towards the $10 mark very rapidly of late. As high as $9.25 was bid today for the stock though no one seems to know why it should climb so. Silver Shield has slumped violently during the week. Sales were made at 12½ on Monday, but it was traded in today as low as 8½. Lower Mammoth is quite firm around 14, while May Day is a little firmer today, being held at 52½ with 51 bid. Tesora shows a slight falling off as does Star Con, which has fluctuated between 60 and 70 during the week. Sales were made today as high as 65. Dexter was traded in as low as $1.10, while Daily-West, after weakening below $2, reacted today to $2.10. Con. Mercur sold as low as $2.13 today, while South Swansea continues to hang around $1.29. Ben Butler was active today at $1.10. Dalton going at 10½. Swansea is stronger at $2.54, while Eagle and Blue Bell is firm at 70.
