

EVENING NEWS.

Friday, March 3, 1882.

FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

Another slice of winter. The Carney-Baine agony is not yet over.

There is a plentiful crop of tramps in the city just now.

The Legislature will adjourn next Thursday, March 9th.

Regular March weather. Sunshine one day and clouds the next, with sleet and rain.

Pre-thought meeting of the Salt Lake Stake tomorrow, at 11 a.m., at the Assembly Hall.

The jury in the case of Sam Levi against Salt Lake City, suit for damages, failed to agree.

Elder James H. Hart is on his way to New York, to attend to the business of the emigration.

What is the latest news from Washington? Is the question asked by everybody to everybody.

The health of S. H. H. Clark, general manager of the Union Pacific, does not improve, as it was hoped, by his visit to California.

Young Nash, who escaped from the city jail the other day, is back in his old quarters. He had been at Fort Douglas in the interim.

Yesterday Mr. Savage's barometer indicated it would storm to-day. To-day it indicates that the storm will be comparatively light and soon pass off.

The Reno Journal says it has reason to believe that the net profits of the Central Pacific on its Nevada business last year were not less than $2,000,000.

Henry Merien, who killed Emanuel Gerber, at Laramie, last Sunday, by crushing in his skull with a match safe, has been held, without bail, to answer to the grand jury at a charge of murder.

Yesterday, the clerk of Salt Lake County was secured by the Legislature for refusing to furnish that body with such a financial exhibit as they desired. The particulars appear in our regular report.

We have received from the Russell Publishing Company, 119a Tremont Street, Boston, "Our Little Ones and the Nursery," a delightful and useful little book, published at $1 a year, or 15 cents for a single copy. It is neatly and profusely illustrated.

A few weeks ago there was a wholesale discharge of passenger and freight conductors on the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad. These conductors have ever since been in the city trying to find out the cause. One theory is that the detective camped on their trail, and another that the new management displaced them to make positions for favorites. Both theories are probably correct.

There was a District Meeting in Hoxley Chapel, Birmingham, England, on January 29th. Among the Utah Elders present were O. C. Ormsby, president, and David Spahr, Joseph S. Thayer, Wm. G. Davis, Wm. Butler, Chas. Sharp, and Alfred Bailey, traveling Elders in the Birmingham Conference. All of these brethren addressed the meetings. So we learn from the Star.

Senator Voorhees, of Indiana, gives the following remedy for rheumatism. He says: "I have cured myself of rheumatism by a simple remedy—taking lemon juice in warm water twice or three times a day. Consequently I am able to do what I have not done for years—walk from my lodging to the capitol and back, a matter of four miles every day, and outstrip the young fellows who go with me." Persons who give this remedy a trial will be particular in placing the lemon juice in hot water, and not in something else.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Not Killed.—Another dispatch from Denver says:

"Information obtained to-day is that two Mormons and the wife and daughter of Thomas Mathison were not killed by Indians. They were held during a trip through Arizona and New Mexico, but further than that no details are known."

Personal.—To-day we had a pleasant call from Mr. M. Keck, of Albion, Michigan, who visits Salt Lake City for the first time. This gentleman represents the Gale Chilled Plow Co., whose productions are well known to many of our citizens. Mr. L. B. Mattison being the agent for Utah.

A Randsome Fence.—Probably the handsomest ornamental fence in the city has just been placed along the route of the U. C. R. R. It is painted brown, with tips of gold in places. Each department has its special gate, through which business is now done. The fence greatly enhances the appearance of the office.

Missionary Work.—Elder O. C. Ormsby, President of the Birmingham (England) Conference, wrote to the Millennial Star, Jan. 17th:

"There have been added to the Church in this Conference during the past three months thirty-two members. In this branch the Female Relief Society has been organized over by Sister Bailey. A Mutual Improvement Association, with Elder John Elkin as its president. Both of these organizations are doing a very good work."

A Sneak Thief.—Yesterday morning a lad apparently about seventeen years old, went to Mrs. Gilroy's, holding house on Commercial Street. He stated that he had been working all night, and wanted a bed for a few hours, requesting to be called all night. On the servant going to the room assigned him to arouse him at the specified time, it was discovered that the young fellow was gone, and that he had taken with him a couple of blankets that were on the bed.

Couldn't Agree.—The Case of Sam Levi vs. Salt Lake City, suit for damages, was given to the jury at 4 p.m. yesterday. The amount claimed by the plaintiff was $3,730.74, for tobacco alleged to have been destroyed by water getting into his cellar, by seepage and overflow from an adjacent irrigation ditch. The jury appeared in Court at 10 a.m. to-day and stated that they were unable to agree upon a verdict, and were discharged. We understand the nearest the jury could get to an agreement was five for the plaintiff and seven for the defendant.

The County Statement Difficult.

—It appears from yesterday's proceedings in the House of Representatives of the Legislative Assembly that Mr. D. Bockholt, clerk of Salt Lake County, refuses to supply that honorable body with the kind of financial statement for the last fiscal year that is desired. The clerk shields himself behind the excuse that there is no law to compel him to make the exhibit that is wanted, the statute requiring it to be furnished by the County Clerk. This position looks a little similar to the reason given by small boys now-a-days, when they don't want to do what is requested of them—"We don't have to." Mr. Bockholt did furnish a statement, but it was of such a minutely detailed character as to render it inexplicable without giving it a large amount of clerical attention. The sort of statement wanted is one which will show at a glance the yearly totals for the several classes of expenditures. In view of the fact that the object of financial exhibits of this character are that the people might know what is done with their money, the objection of a competent servant of the people to furnish it, unless he is prevented by the County Clerk from doing so, is to say the least, somewhat extraordinary.

Notwithstanding the technical excuse put forth by Mr. Bockholt regarding the law, it is a matter of fact that the Legislative committee have been treating with him on the subject and not the County Clerk direct, and he has furnished an exhibit, but not such a one as is wanted. Unless there are some features connected with this matter that have not yet appeared, there is at least an apparent discourtesy in the attitude of Mr. Bockholt toward the legislative representative of the people, and through them, indirectly, to the people. The other counties, through their clerks, have all, so we understand, supplied the legislature with statements of the kind desired, with the exception of the two counties last organized.

An Incensed Chinaman.—Last evening one of three boys sent a rock crashing through Sam Lee's wash house window, opposite the Continental Hotel, First South Street. Sam came out and not knowing who the perpetrator was, and having an eye to vengeance, jumped upon the first specimen of human toy he could catch, knocked him down upon the sidewalk and gave him a hearty pummeling.

Unfortunately he was exhausting his strength on the wrong youngster. David Parry apprehending this truth, rescued the youthful victim of Chinese wrath.

Sam Lee next rushed back into his wash house from which he again emerged with blood in his eyes and a pistol in his hand. Seeing still another boy crossing the street at a lively gait, he blazed away at the retreating figure. It did not appear to matter to Sam whom he hit, so long as it was something in the shape of a boy.

As a windup to the affair, Sam found himself soon behind the bars of the city jail. The police desire the presence at the City Hall of the innocent boy who got the pummeling and the unoffending lad after whom the leaden messengers were sent, that they may testify in the case.

Murder Case Concluded.—The trial of John Oaks for the murder of David Richards, at Silver City, Utah, commenced in the District Court, at Provo, on Monday, and concluded yesterday at 4 p.m., at which hour it was given to the jury. The substance of the evidence was that Richards was drunk on the day he was killed, and was put out of Oak's saloon twice by the accused. The same night Oaks went outside and returned with a gash on his head, stating that it had been inflicted with a rock by the man he had put out. Later in the night Mrs. Oaks, wife of the accused, came to the saloon from the house, a short distance away, stating that a man was prowling around the premises. Oaks went toward the house and shot and killed the man referred to by his wife, the deceased being the same David Richards.

A special to the News, received to-day, from Provo, says:

The jury in the Oaks case retired at 4 p.m. yesterday, and returned at six this morning with a verdict of voluntary manslaughter.

Statistics of the European Mission.—The Millennial Star of February 13th, contains a statistical report of the European mission for 1881. It shows the total number of branches of the Church to be 208; of these 136 are in Great Britain, 46 in Scandinavia, 22 in Switzerland and Germany, and 4 in the Netherlands.

During the year the additions to the Church by baptism were 2,460. Of these, 980 occurred in Great Britain, 1,038 in Scandinavia, 383 in Switzerland and Germany, and 24 in the Netherlands. The number excommunicated was 366, and died 135, making a total offset to the baptisms of 501, thus placing the additions at 1,959.

The total emigration for the year was 2,233 souls.

Legislature.—In the Council, this afternoon, a number of bills were reported back from the committee, and other bills which had come from the House were referred to respective committees. The bill prohibiting railroad companies from consolidating with or leasing the property of other companies, running parallel or competing lines, was passed. The bill providing for the purchase and distribution of twenty-five copies of the Utah reports, was passed.

In the House Mr. Sharp made the following motion, which prevailed: "That the committee on claims and public accounts be instructed to ask the County Clerk of Salt Lake County to furnish to this House the county report of Salt Lake County for the fiscal year 1880-1, substantially in the form of other county reports."

Fr. Fred Turner, a live Logan business man, is in town.

Ladies' Conference.—The Ladies

Conference of Utah Stake opened yesterday morning and was in session to-day. Sisters M. A. H. Horne, E. S. Taylor, M. A. B. Freese and Louise Felt, of this city, are at Provo, attending it.

Removal.—Mrs. Dr. E. R. Shipp has removed her office, heretofore in the Contributor building, to rooms over Hardy Brothers' store, East Temple Street, directly opposite Z. C. M. I. The Doctor gives special attention to obstetrics and the diseases of women and children.

A Long-Winded Case.—The defamation case of Bane vs. Carney, before United States Commissioner Pearson, concluded, so far as the testimony of witnesses is concerned, this morning. The final windwork will be turned on at 7 p.m. to-morrow, after which the decision of the Commissioner will come in in the order of business.

A Heavy Foundation.—Mr. Elias Morris has finished the mammoth mason work foundation for the huge machinery of the Ontario mine, at the Park. Some idea of the extent of the job may be formed when it is stated that it took 6,000 perch of rock. He has contracted for another job of similar character, but so extensive, for the same company, which will take 1,500 perch.

Broke His Leg.—The Territorial Enquirer says that Mr. Jacob Young, of Provo, was on Saturday last made the victim of a very severe accident. After taking a cold out to water, and while leading into the corral, the cold made a sudden leap over the bars which were only partially down. Mr. Young instantly placed his right leg between the bars, thinking he could restrain the animal until he himself got into the corral, but the cold continued to plunge forward and Mr. Young's body was violently thrown across the bars and his leg, which he could not extricate from between the bars, was completely broken, just below the knee.

MEDALS AND TESTIMONIALS.

IT IS A MATTER OF GENERAL KNOWLEDGE that many houses have relied for their reputation, in their several lines of business, upon the obtaining and advertising of medals, diplomas and testimonials, and that the obtaining of the same has become an affair of management, intrigue and often of downright bribery, rather than a question of intrinsic merit, is well understood by those who have had even the smallest amount of personal experience in competitive contests; and the fact that the awards obtained are made the subject of the can but be apparent to the general public, the thinking portion of whom understand and appreciate these matters at their true value. The many direct and indirect charges of fraud, favoritism and collusion in reference to the awards at our late and the very general method pursued by the majority of exhibitors, successful and unsuccessful alike, in regard to the value of awards distributed, afford only further corroboration of the views long held by many of our most advanced thinkers, that the whole system of competitive awards is radically wrong, and that instead of its being a fair test of the merits or qualities of the articles in competition, it is but a source of

JEALOUSY, CORRUPTION AND FALSEHOOD.

This principle now so generally understood has been recognized and acted upon by GEORGE WOODS & COMPANY from the beginning of their business career; and they have

and for similar reasons have never solicited or published a testimonial from professional musicians. That they have acquired such an enviable reputation without the aid of such efforts as many of their competitors have found necessary to adopt, can but be considered as not only an indication of the superiority of these instruments, but of the
