

able to proceed immediately to their homes. Prof. Gilliam was thrown on his head, with one foot through the front transom, and the other through a side one. He was fortunately more frightened than hurt.

Dr. Richards and one or two other physicians who were picked up in the hurry, were sent to the scene of the accident, where conditions were found not to be anything really serious beyond the smashing in of the ends of the two cars, and fright and shock for the most part to the lady passengers.

MOTORMAN BADLY INJURED.

The second accident occurred on the Waterloo line just north of Sherman avenue. Motorman A. V. Lubbers of car 32, northbound, is a new man, and in the fog miscalculated. The result was the head on collision with car 33, southbound. Motorman M. A. Hottel, conductor of car 33, was thrown from the car and landed on his head, and was seriously injured and brought to the hospital. He was killed at first he might die. He was brought to Dr. Benedict's office, where he was attended to.

ON THE MURRAY LINE.

On the Murray line, the new car 41 was but little injured, while car 81 was badly smashed. The carmen jumped after reversing. Conductor Allen of 81 was hurt, but not seriously.

LOOKING BACKWARD.

JANUARY 1ST, 1900: 1,500 telephones used in Salt Lake and Murray. Citizens protesting against poor service and high rates.

THREE YEARS AGO: Franchise of Utah Independent Telephone Company granted.

ONE YEAR AGO: Salt Lake City had finest telephone system in the United States.

TODAY: Three times the number of independent telephones operating in Salt Lake and Murray than were in use January 1st, 1900.

KNIGHT & SON CO.

John A. Knight & Son, the well-known blacksmith and wagon and carriage building firm, has succeeded to the business of Obad & Knight, and will continue to do business at 145 east First South.

Shooting For the Silver Medal.

CHAMPIONSHIP OF UTAH and a $5.00 Hat for second prize with 22-cal. Sporting Rifle, 123 Main St. Penny Arcade.

Shocking Ignorance.

Payne Whitney was talking about the game of squash.

"Squash," he said, "is simpler than racquets or court tennis, but not many people play it, and not many understand it, for, like the other racket games, it requires for itself the building of a pretty expensive indoor court which can be used for no other purpose."

Mr. Whitney laughed.

"Though I don't understand squash," he said, "many pretend they do."

"Thus, at the last tournament I attended, I heard a pretty girl say in her own loud, clear voice, 'I love squash!'"

"Isn't this grand? I love squash! But which game are they playing, soccer or intercollegiate?"

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY.

Take LAXATIVE BROMO Quinine Tablets. Druggists refund money if it fails to cure. E. W. GROVE'S signature is on each box.

A Mince Pie Story.

"Once, when I was a reporter," said David Belasco at a holiday dinner, "I spent two days with a gang of tramps in order to get material for an article on tramp life."

"These tramps were a merry lot. They had as many stories to tell as the end man in the saloon. The excellent mince pie that we have just been eating reminds me of a mince pie episode told by one of the wanderers."

"He said that a friend of his, one cold day in January, knelt at the kitchen door of a farmhouse."

"Well," said the farmer's wife, "You here again?"

"Yes, ma'am," said the tramp, respectfully. "I want to know, ma'am, if you'll be kind enough to give me the recipe for that mince pie you said I had here yesterday."

"Well, the dear old farmer's wife, 'Land sakes, man, what do you want that recipe for?'"

"To settle a bet," replied the tramp. "My neighbor says you use three cups of Portland cement to one of molasses, but I claim it's only two and a half."

A Sorry Prospect.

It is, of course, a platitude to say that the frankness of the youth is on certain occasions, most appalling; but the truth of the statement is illustrated in a new way by the following story of the little boy who was taken out to dine.

Ralph had, to the comfort of his mother, conducted himself in a most exemplary manner throughout the repast. At dessert the landlady, sitting at some fruit at the further end of the table, but much to his disappointment he was not asked to have any of it. He then turned to his hostess, observing the set expression on the boy's face, and being, of course, entirely ignorant of the cause thereof, said:

"And of what are you thinking so earnestly, my little man?"

"Mother told me," came in swift response, "not to take two apples, and I was thinking, 'Well, I'd be mighty lucky to get one.'—Woman's Home Companion for January."

An Ignorant Bride.

Harvard's football coach, W. T. Reid, Jr., was talking about the danger of overeating, and the staleness that overeating brings on.

"What, precisely, is staleness?" a freshman asked.

Mr. Reid smiled.

"Don't you know what it is to be stale?" he said. "Well, it is time you learned. You are as bad as the girl I friend of mine married last October."

"This girl, a few days after she had set up her housekeeping, went to a poultry dealer's and said:

"Have you any fresh roasting chickens?"

"Have I," said the dealer. "Well, madam, just look here."

"And he showed her his back yard, crowded with handsome live chickens that had just come in from his farm in the country."

"How many do you want, madam?" he said. "I'll kill them and send them up for you."

"I want two if they're fresh," the bride answered. "But don't kill them unless you are positively sure of their freshness. My husband will only eat fresh chickens."

In Dead Earnest.

A traveling man received the following telegram from his wife:

"Twins arrived tonight. More by mail."

He went at once to the nearest office and sent the following reply:

"I leave for home tonight. If more come by mail, send to dead-letter office."—Lippincott's.

TO TURN THE OF AMERICAN TRAVEL

(Continued from page one.)

something he could not truthfully say regarding the residents of the east. From this Judge Powers affirms his audience to get out and roll on the good work.

In fitting speech he extended the welcome of Utah to the visitors and told them if ever they are in trouble to give the high sign of distress and Salt Lake will do her best for them.

TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN.

Governor Chamberlain of Oregon Makes Stirring Speech of Response.

Temporary Chairman Gov. Chamberlain of Oregon, followed with an appreciation of the hospitable welcome. "This is not the first time," he said, "for me to feel the cordial hospitality of the city and state and I appreciate it."

Continuing he said that over in Japan prior to the outbreak of the war with Russia the school children were daily taught to repeat the sentence "I hate Russia."

Gov. Chamberlain thanked God that we had no enemies to hate or punish and proceeded to exhort his auditors to just love and charity into the minds of the young and old and promote a love of country and home and especially to let the watchword go forth in the schools and homes "See America First!"—let it be daily repeated in the schools as the anti Russian sentiment was over in Japan.

His excellency then proceeded to extol the work of the Salt Lake Commercial club, the press of Utah and other states and the splendid achievements of artists who have pictured the leading features of scenic America, thereby letting the less favored residents of the United States get a glimpse of the glorious possibilities of this great country. He referred to the present meeting as a patriotic one—a patriotic movement—a crusade which was started by the Salt Lake Commercial club and the irrepressible Fisher Harris.

Gov. Chamberlain then dwelt upon the benefits that followed in the wake of the Portland exposition last year. "People came west, saw the splendid scenery and the sterling whole-hearted patriotism of the residents of the great west."

He maintained that every man who visited Oregon last year went home an enthusiastic missionary with results that are already gratifying to many. In conclusion he affirmed that the "See America First" proposition was a patriotic movement and one and all, irrespective of place of residence, should do all in his power to further it.

GOVERNOR MEAD GLAD.

People of the Great Northwest Ready To Throw in Their Quota.

When called upon by former Gov. Wells to express himself, Gov. Mead of Washington said that he looked on the movement first as one calculated to divert travel to Utah, but was glad to know it had in contemplation the upbuilding of the citizenship of the whole country and the making of better conditions in the entire west.

"Why," Gov. Chamberlain and myself just about over the Columbia river," he declared, "that is our people do, and we are ready to offer our quota of entertainment to the thousands of tourists who ought to come west. Except for the calling of this convention I would not have seen Utah and Salt Lake, and that alone makes it worth while to know what state will join in making this convention a success."

ORGANIZATION COMMITTEE.

After Gov. Mead had spoken, Chairman Chamberlain announced that the committee on permanent organization was following:

Colorado, James F. Calbreth; Minnesota, E. J. Westlake; Montana, J. M. Ingessoll; Washington, J. M. Ingessoll; Oregon, Tom Richardson; California, C. E. Edwards; Utah, E. F. Colborn; Missouri, J. A. Runyon.

The credentials committee was announced, on motion, to consist of the special committee of the Commercial club, which has issued invitations for the convention. It immediately set itself up in a side office, and commenced a roster of the delegates, while the permanent organization committee retired to formulate a report.

SPONTANEOUS SPEECHES.

J. A. Runyon of Missouri was first to hear from the magazine and newspaper writers present. Douglas, a newspaper employed by the Salt Lake News in publishing The Arrowhead was first to respond, after which Mr. Blackburn of New York, who was announced as representing a number of eastern newspapers, spoke on the needs of the west in the way of hotel accommodations to give the lax easterner entertainment while he is seeing the west similar to what he gets while seeing Europe. The organization, he thought, could do its greatest work in collecting accurate information about the west, and in presenting a witty brief for California, which was in favor of the movement, and not because it would bring traffic to his road, entirely. He thought from every standpoint it was the right and proper thing to do. Once, he recalled, he had read a paper before a Colorado society on this topic, advocating something like this present movement, but now it is going forward on a much greater plan and will succeed beyond what it would be in the hands of any one organization or club, or under the patronage of any one state.

Hon. Frank Pierce, representative from California, followed and made a good speech in defense of the west. While he was not a representative of the press, Mr. Pierce maintained that the keynote of this convention stood for education. While he was a native of New York, he said, he was a resident of California by choice. He then entered a witty brief for California, which state, he asserted, furnished the finest scenery, the best men, the best horses and could show the handsomest women on the continent. He then proceeded to take an artistic fall out of "Brother" Blackburn, which brought that gentleman to his feet at the conclusion of the speech.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

Mr. Blackburn denied that he had been criticizing the west. What he had been criticizing was the west. What he had been criticizing was the west.

PLUM FOR HARRIS.

Popular Commercial Club Secretary Will Get Good Job.

There is considerable speculation among the delegates as to whom will fall the lucrative honor of executive secretary of the Seeing America First organization.

Judging from the applause which greeted his name in the convention this morning, the work he has already accomplished in the movement and the fact that the Salt Lake Commercial club was the first to make a move in the direction of the present undertaking, it is asserted that Fisher Harris, secretary of the Commercial club, will be elected for this important position.

Mr. Harris, of course, knows nothing about this, in fact, when a gentleman playfully suggested that he be appointed, Mr. Harris is reported as saying, "Oh, go away."

The fact remains the same, however, that Harris stood among the delegates today in goodly strong, and at this hour it looks as though his appointment is a foregone conclusion.

IDAHO DELEGATES.

Railroad Men Represent Gem State at the Convention.

Among the delegates who arrived from Idaho over the Short Line this morning were Judge J. H. Richards of Boise, representing Gov. Gooding; E. M. Heigho, vice president and general manager of the P. & N. delegates in large from Weiser; B. M. Hoover; Eugene Wright, Commercial club, Idaho Falls; Ralph Edwards, Idaho Falls; B. L. Steeves, Weiser Commercial club, and Col. Hamer, St. Anthony.

B. L. Steeves of the Weiser Commercial club who is attending the conference here, is lieutenant governor of the state of Idaho. He recently announced his candidacy as congressman from Idaho.

W. Frank Pierce of San Francisco is one of the delegates appointed by Gov. Pardee of California.

The Pacific & Idaho Northern sends four out of the five delegates at large from Idaho.

FROM COLORADO.

Ex-Gov. Alva Adams Expected Here Tomorrow Morning.

The Colorado delegates arrived this morning and it anticipated that ex-Gov. Alva Adams would be here tomorrow morning. Among the delegates Pueblo looms up wearing drooping festoons of satin bearing the legend "See America First." Especially Pueblo, in the party are E. W. Palmer of the Pueblo Business Men's association, I. M. Cobb, president of the Pueblo 100,000 club; Mayor John T. Wood; and Sam Newman, representing the Pueblo Star-Journal.

HONOR FOR HARRIS.

Father of the Movement is Made Permanent Chairman of Conference.

A marked honor was conferred upon Fisher Harris of Salt Lake at the opening of the conference this afternoon, when he was made permanent chairman, man amid the wild acclaim of the delegates. The report of the committee on permanent organization was presented by L. G. Monroe of Spokane, who was its chairman. The report is as follows:

Mr. Chairman: We, your committee on permanent organization, and who business, recommend the election of Mr. Fisher Harris of Salt Lake City as permanent chairman, and permanent vice chairman as follows:

Judge J. H. Richards, Boise, Idaho; J. A. Runyon, Kansas City, Mo.; L. W. Pratt, Tacoma, Wash.; W. F. R. Mills, Denver, Colo.; H. M. Calk, Portland, Ore.; J. M. Ingessoll, Minneapolis, Minn.; C. E. Edwards, San Francisco, Cal.; T. J. Nery, Butte, Mont.

We further recommend that E. J. Westlake of Minneapolis be elected as permanent secretary; James A. Metcalf of Missoula, Mont., first assistant secretary; J. A. Runyon of Kansas City, Mo., second assistant secretary; George Cordon of Rigby, Idaho, sergeant at arms; and that the chair be empowered to appoint an official stenographer for the conference.

Your committee would further recommend, as the regular order of business:

First—Introduction of permanent officers.

Second—Presentation of the special conference committee's plan for permanent organization of the seeing America movement.

Third—Appointment of standing committee.

THE PLAN OUTLINED.

Scheme Being Formulated Which is The Organic Law of the Movement.

The plan of permanent organization presented to the convention this afternoon is in accordance with the promise made when the idea of the See America First convention and movement was first conceived. It was last night considered by the local committee and a number of public experts present in the city at this time were called in. Together they went over the plan and it was signed and endorsed by all. Thus the plan represents practically the sentiment of the entire western country. It leads out with a preamble and definite plan for organization. This preamble recites the history of the movement and gives statistics regarding the diversion of gold and silver and hundreds of dollars into foreign channels through the tendency of some residents in the east to cross the Atlantic in pursuit of rest and recreation without first getting acquainted with their own country. It further goes on to state what can be accomplished and suggests in a general way how these ends can be attained.

Then the plan of general organization takes up the matter in detail and furnishes what might be termed the organic law of the Seeing America movement.

It provides for the appointment by this conference of a general executive committee which will have charge of the perfecting of the organization in accordance with the plans to develop at this convention.

It also provides for the election of an executive secretary. When this secretary is nominated and duly elected, the organization of the movement and the placing of it on a working basis will be the next thing to follow.

At the conclusion of the presentation of the plan, which will be at a late hour this afternoon, the delegates will be printed details, which will come off the press about 5 o'clock, will be handed each delegate for his individual consideration tonight and tomorrow before the convention again gets together, when it will be reported back and undoubtedly adopted without any great change, if any.

DELEGATES PRESENT.

List of Those Who Had Signed the Roster up to 3 p. m. Today.

The list of visiting delegates who had signed the See America First roster up to 3 p. m. today is as follows:

W. F. R. Mills, city and county of Denver, Colorado; E. S. Hooper, D. & K. G. system, Denver, Colorado; John C. Martin, business men's league, Denver, Colorado; J. A. Runyon, Miss. & M. association, and 150,000 club, Kansas City, Mo.; L. G. Monroe, chairman of commerce, Spokane, Wash.; C. J. Nery, business men's club, Butte, Mont.; J. H. Frisby, Provo, Utah; H. M. Calk, Rigby, Utah; W. L. Branch, Hualay, Idaho; W. A. Adams, chairman of commerce, Denver, Colo.; Hoyt Sherman, Colorado & Southern Railway, Salt Lake City, Utah; J. K. Persons, commercial club, Duluth, Minn.; A. E. Clark, chairman of commerce, Riverside, Cal.; W. Frank Pierce, San Francisco, Cal.; A. Foley, Illinois Central, Salt Lake City, Utah; R. F. Nealen, Salt Lake City, Utah; L. E. Beckler, Salt Lake City, Utah; C. F. Warren, Santa Fe Ry., Salt Lake City, Utah; Henry Russell Wray, secretary Chamber of Commerce, Colorado Springs, Colo.; J. M. Cobb, president 100,000 club, Pueblo, Colo.; Chas. A. Hemphill, Chamber of Commerce, Shoshone, Ida; Louis W. Pratt, Chamber of Commerce and Board of Trade, Tacoma, Wash.; John R. Burns, The Colorado state commercial association, Denver, Colo.; A. B. Calk, Central Pacific Ry., Seattle, Wash.; L. H. Hardy, Colorado Midland, Salt Lake City, Utah; John E. Gurnea, Salt Lake Route; Gourey Casanvier, Chamber of Commerce and Assn. club, Seattle; Thomas R. Homer, delegate at large, St. Anthony, Ida; W. L. Curtis, Chamber of Commerce, Los Angeles, Cal.; Leonard Merrill, Realty board, Los Angeles, Cal.; George Romney, Transmississippi congress; C. C. Moore, Commercial club, Austin, Ida; E. Beckler, Commercial club, Mant, Utah; A. W. Palmer, business men's association, Pueblo, Colo.; James A. Finney, mayor, Boise, Ida; V. A. Taylor, delegate at large, Idaho; B. L. Steeves, Weiser club, Weiser, Idaho; George C. Hamer, Chamberlain, H. M. Calk, Tom Richardson, A. L. Crais, R. E. Scotland, Portland, Ore.; George A. Cordon, Commercial club, Rigby, Idaho; John T. West, Pueblo, Colo.; Eugene Wright, Commercial club, Idaho Falls, Idaho; E. N. Hoover, P. I. & N. Ry. Boise, Idaho; S. T. Hamilton, delegate at large, Twin Falls, Idaho; C. C. Boyer, Rigby, Idaho; P. W. Crass, St. Anthony, Idaho; A. M. Boylen, St. Anthony, Idaho; T. A. Cosgriff, Cheyenne, Wyoming; H. F. Allen, Commercial club, Twin Falls, Idaho; Dr. T. O. Boy, Commercial club, Twin Falls, Idaho; G. C. Allen, Commercial club, Twin Falls, Idaho; W. J. Kerr, Commercial club, Logan, Utah; J. E. Diehl, National Educational association, Idaho Falls, Idaho; J. H. Richards, C. R. Shaw, Boise, Ida; J. M. Ingessoll, Commercial club, Pocatello, Ida; James Woodman, Commercial club, Rigby, Ida; W. T. Wood, Chamber of Commerce, Boise, Ida; Edward P. Colborn, Real Estate association, Salt Lake City; Albert George Mead, governor, Olympia, Wash.; W. Lathrop, Western Home-seeker, Missoula, Mont.; S. M. Newman, Pueblo, Colo.; James D. Glass, Pueblo Chieftain, Pueblo, Colo.; A. Cressy Morrison, Philadelphia, Pa.; N. Ralph Moore, Cache County Commercial club, Logan, Utah; H. Elynsburger, Pella, Ia.; James A. Metcalf, Missoula, Mont.; Clarence E. Edwards, California promotion committee; E. J. Westlake, Commercial club, Minneapolis, Minn.; James F. Calbreth, Jr., Denver, Colo.; Thomas H. Budgett, Outing Magazine, New York.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.

WING to pressure on our columns. News advertisers are requested to hand in their advertisements for the Saturday News as early as possible to secure insertion in all editions.

Classified advertisements cannot be secured publication in all the Editions, and in proper classification, unless received in this office before noon on Saturdays.

BUSINESS NOTES.

Today's local bank clearings amounted to $1,153,331.77 as against $489,158.16 for the same day last year.

A copy of the articles of incorporation of the Simmons Warehouse company of Jersey City, N. J., was filed in the secretary of state's office today. Its capital stock is $250,000, divided into 10,000 shares of $25 each. W. D. Simmons is president; O. W. Richard, secretary; E. E. Stewart of Ogden, resident agent for Utah.

The Wayne County Irrigation company of Giles, Wayne county, filed a copy of its articles of incorporation in the secretary of state's office today. Its capital stock is $250,000, divided into 10,000 shares of $25 each. C. A. Gibbons is president; E. C. Abbott, vice president; J. F. Weber, secretary; J. E. Carroll, treasurer.

WEATHER REPORT.

Record at the local office of the weather bureau for the 24 hours ending at 6 a. m. today:

Barometer reading at 6 a. m., 26.01 inches; temperature at 6 a. m., 25; maximum, 35; minimum, 23; mean, 29 degrees, which is normal.

Relative humidity, 100. Dense fog.

FORECASTS TILL 6 P. M. FRIDAY.

Local forecast for Salt Lake City and vicinity:

Fair tonight and Friday.

R. J. HYATT, Local Forecaster.

TODAY'S TEMPERATURE.

6 a. m. .... 25
7 a. m. .... 24
8 a. m. .... 24
9 a. m. .... 25
10 a. m. .... 25
11 a. m. .... 25
12 m. .... 29
1 p. m. .... 30
2 p. m. .... 29
3 p. m. .... 29

YESTERDAY'S RECORD.
Highest .... 34
Lowest .... 29

PRaise OF PRESS FOR THE FIRST.

With One Mighty Voice it Proclaims the Benefit of Seeing America.

SOME NOTABLE TELEGRAMS.

Governors of States, Railroad Men and Others Join in the Great Chorus Started Today.

Following are some of the telegrams read at this morning's meeting of the "See America First" conference.

New York, Jan. 24-06.—Scribner's Magazine heartily endorses the purpose of your convention and wishes the movement success. J. R. MIN.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 24-06.—Much interested in your efforts. Offer our hearty cooperation. ATLANTIC MONTHLY.

New York, Jan. 24-06.—Most heartily in sympathy with movement to advertise western country, and to give it a