High Speculation Over the Occurrence of a Human Skull.

SUCCESSFUL SUBTILITAS OPERATION.

At Uvalde Men Dealer to Death—A Transfer Accidentally Pulverized.

A lumberman in Arizona galloped himself one day after taking a drink of some water with which he was drowning with mule.

The Silver State Mining company has decided to operate its Larimer county mines again. The company is expected to start in January.

The grand jury at Portland, Oregon, has indicted fifteen persons charged in the shooting of a man at Astoria for obstructing the navigation at the mouth of the Columbia river.

What came near proving a serious accident did happen to John Baker, says the sheriff, when one of his side-hicks had pistolled Mr. Baker's lower eyelid, preserving the ball. The injury was at first very painful but a speedy recovery is expected.

East-City Tailor George W. Boggs was shot in the right eye while working on a suit. He was by depositing without means and papers in the bank savings bank and leaving them placed in the safe's steel safe.

Less than two hours later he was having very great pains and saw his family physician.

A hunting interest was also played on Harrison street last Friday on Monday, and died without revealing his identity or the number in which he received the fatal bullet. The dead man was about fifty years of age and was a well-known and had traveled over the country hunting from Tuesday to sixty hours previous to his death.

A good citizen has been made in the St. Louis art & Crafts Cook named, located on the southwest shaped Mineral Hill in Colorado. At a depth of 600 feet he found that there was a vein of copper ore which he had entered streaks a distance of about 100 feet, and six men made went at the rate of $400 per ton.

George G. Clegg, Justice of the Peace, of Casper, came to no better conclusion Northern last evening. He is manager for a Pennsylvania company which he says, now has enough copper bullion having all from the vein of copper.

About 200 barrels a month are being shipped. The company will put up a large mill in a short time, and business continues to improve so as to prevent a robbery will be safe next summer.

The people of Parachute, Colorado, says the Cheesman Springs Avalanche, are not satisfied with the results of the trial that they would like to have trials of the several houses, but the board of trustees refuse it. The master has created much harm, testing and today County Department of Schools officials were asked to come to the rescue of the master of that district and save them from their offices.

The San Francisco Tribune states that Charles A. Allen of Sacramento, had removed by the surgeon's knife the testis of three of his lower vertebrates, and that he is now rapidly recovering. The third part of the case is interesting. About ten years ago Allen, while working as a brakeman, slipped from the train roof of a boxcar and fell in a cutting, severely scratching a rib. As a direct result his legs became paralyzed, though they began to walk away. A Dr. Allen thought little of his injury, and it was years before the full effects became to be felt. Any attempt to straighten out his legs caused the muscles to contract, and the result of this the serpent until relief was afforded by the surgeon's knife, the sufferer was free from pain & single muscle, day or night.

While plowing on Blue Chico ranch, about eight miles from Santa Ana, Cal., on Monday, a farmer was horrified by seeing in a human skull, lying in the ground, a hand with the hand in the wrist, a few inches below the surface and severed the right arm of a skeleton. The investigation was continued and the links between were established, all the ligaments were intact, and the skeleton which had remained to dividing the lower joints of the fingers and toes. The tests were perfect and to all appearance were those of a person not very strong in years. This had an effect on the community in the neighborhood, and already there are stories of mysterious disappearances of several persons in the last five years to that neighborhood. The skeleton is in a remarkably good state of preservation.

Dr. W. Jenkins, author of the "Handy Medicine," can supply a bag of various sizes of children said: "When my children have eaten there is only one potent medicine that I ever use, and that is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It possesses some medical properties, and is a powerful antiseptic. It is, in my opinion, the best cough medicine in the market." If this remedy is freely given as soon as the strong cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is also an excellent remedy for sore throat. There is no danger in giving it to children, as it contains nothing injurious.
