

When Examined for Insurance.

When I was examined for insurance, I was asked to state my age, height, weight, and other physical characteristics. I was also asked to state my occupation and whether I was a smoker or not.

I was then asked to state my annual income and whether I had any other sources of income. I was also asked to state whether I had any other insurance policies and whether I had any other financial obligations.

I was then asked to state whether I had any other health conditions and whether I had any other medical treatments. I was also asked to state whether I had any other accidents or injuries.

I was then asked to state whether I had any other habits or vices and whether I had any other interests or hobbies. I was also asked to state whether I had any other family members and whether I had any other dependents.

I was then asked to state whether I had any other information that might be relevant to my insurance application. I was also asked to state whether I had any other questions or concerns.
